

NEWS of SOCIETY

The first of the programs under the Department of Literature of the Neighborhood club was given Tuesday afternoon and was declared a decided success by a very appreciative audience. Mrs. E. A. Epling, as leader, had as the subject of an excellent paper "Early American Drama," in which she gave an interesting resume of the life and works of American drama. It was he who first set on the stage phases of American life thereby establishing the fact of the existence of American drama.

"Shenandoah," a war drama by Howard, was reviewed in part by Mrs. Stella Taylor in her pleasing manner of story telling, after which several scenes from this play were presented under the direction of Miss Lorna Coolidge, with a cast whose parts were especially well chosen, consisting of Miss Coolidge as Gertrude Ellingham; Mrs. Walter Leisaman, Ketchival; Mrs. J. E. Woodell, Robert Ellingham; Mrs. G. L. Dutton, Madeline West; Miss Bertha Wainwright; Gen. Buckthorn; Mrs. Ethel Crandall; Gen. Haverhill; Mrs. Chase Bohnekamp; Edith Haverhill; Mrs. Chad Moore; Sargeant Barlett and Miss Florence Thompson, Old Marjorie.

The plot centers around the love affair of a southern girl and a young man of the north shortly before and during the civil war and the portrayal of characters brought out some clever acting both in scenes of pathos and humor. Of particular interest were the costumes and uniforms of the Civil war period. Much credit is due Miss Coolidge for the splendid presentation.

The Past Matrons club of Hope Chapter No. 13, O. E. S., spent an unusually interesting time last evening when they met at the home of Mrs. Ed Kiddle at Island City. Fourteen members were in attendance and following the regular business meeting a pleasant social hour was spent and delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Kiddle was assisted by Miss Carrie

ALL OUT OF SORTS?

So Was This La Grande Woman Who Tells Her Experience.

All too often women accept their pains and aches as natural to their sex. They fail to realize that weak kidneys are often a blame for that backache, those headaches, dizzy spells and that tired, depressed feeling. Thousands have found new health and strength by helping the weakened kidneys with Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic. This La Grande case is one of many:

Mrs. Bettie Kohr, 2065 First St., says: "My kidneys were out of order and I had dull backache. I felt dull and languid, and my kidneys acted irregularly. I used Doan's Pills and they soon cured me of all signs of the trouble. I have had no return of it."

Mrs. Kohr is only one of many La Grande people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Pills. If your back aches, if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy, ask distinctly for Doan's Pills—the same that Mrs. Kohr had—the remedy backed by home testimony, and sold at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. "When your back aches, remember the name."—Adv.

speeches and arguments that could possibly be hurled at the voters between now and Nov. 4. "Coolidge or Chaos, Coolidge or Chaos"—the very suggestion of horrific things to come should Coolidge fail of election is counted on to cause all cautious and conservative folk to flock. In fear, into the Coolidge camp. "Coolidge or Chaos, Coolidge or Chaos"—just that, nothing more; but the same haunting chant, repeated over and over until it works its spell, like the throbbing of the voodoo drum in the hands of tribal medicine men.

The brain responsible for this Coolidge chant, playing on the psychological timidity of the masses, is that of Colonel George Harvey, erstwhile ambassador to Great Britain, now editor of a Washington newspaper and Coolidge's confidential consultant on campaign strategy. George claims full credit for having made Woodrow Wilson president and later for his defeat.

brought about his overthrow. Not being a wholly self-effacing individual he would not object to winning credit for having turned the trick in clinching Coolidge's election.

To what extent Chairman Butler and Frank Stearns, or even President Coolidge himself, approve George's attempt to make this a Harvested campaign, with George in the role of Master Mind, does not appear.

Cal and George go autoing together. George talks and Cal listens.

Then George picks up his pen again and writes more about "Coolidge or Chaos."

HINTS TO MOTORISTS

About Jay-walking. Pedestrians should cross street intersections, within the congested district, at right angles with the curb. They will find that when crossing at the crossings provided for them that the motorists will give them every consideration they are entitled to. But when crossing the street in the middle of the block or cutting across the center of the intersection they are taking a large and unnecessary chance of getting bumped into or run over. —ALONZO DUNN, La Grande traffic officer.

Just Like a Man

"My husband suffered for several years with stomach trouble. He often had colic attacks that put him to bed. But a man can't stand the pains that a woman can. He thought he was going to die, and the doctors didn't seem to help him any. Like a drowning man grasping for a straw he tried Mays' Wonderful Remedy, which a nurse told us about, and now he is entirely well and eats anything." It is a simple, harmless, preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all druggists.—Adv.
