Mrs. Hiner Addresses Woodcraft

The Neighbors of Woodcraft of Circle No. 47 and representatives from Union, Enterprise, Dayton, Huntington and Dillon, Montana, met Tuesday, October 21, in special session at Honan hall. The meeting was called in order that Grand Guardian Minnie Hiner might address the circle and also to initiate a class of twenty-three into the mysteries of Woodcraft. After the business session was closed the Neighbors were invited to the banquet hall, where a four course luncheon was served to the members and their families.

At 7:30 in the evening a very interesting program was given during which Mrs. A. L. Richardson graciously contributed two vocal numbers in her usual charming manner. Dick Lindsay played two violin solos and Mrs. Agnes Padlock gave several readings, which were received with appreciation. Following the program the Grand Guardian again addressed the meeting on the Good of the Order of Woodcraft. Mrs. Hiner is an able speaker and has a very pleasing personality. Her addresses were appreciated by a large audience.

The delegation from Union consisted of Mesdames Eva Reuter, Molly Johnson, Agnes Padlock, Eliza Shaw, Olive Donovan, Lizzie Shiff, Lulu Nadine, Martha Ferguson, Cora Titus, Beulah Blacker, Lola Langford, Clara Lee, Ida Cline, Mae Scott, Serepta Thompson, Pearl Miller, Olive Jenkins, Nellie Brown, Emma Horton, Creas, Churchill and the Misses Mildred Halght, Merle Mayo and Avon Blacker.

Simple Tunic Quite Pretty

YOU can concentrate what little trimming you use this season all in one spot if you like, as in this model. The note of interest in the brick colored fall outfit is the huge patch pocket embroidered in the gayest of wools. For the rest, the frock is a simple tunic affair—straight, beltless and smart.

The Reynolds home was beautifully decorated with pink roses and during a very enjoyable evening a dainty luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hampton and Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Andrews were hosts and hostesses to the members of the Wednesday Bridge club last evening at the Country club. During the evening's play Mrs. H. L. Pouch won high scores for the ladies prize and J. J. Carr received the gentleman's prize.

Exquisite bouquets of marigolds were attractively arranged in the club rooms and before adjournment a delicious two course luncheon was served.

Mrs. W. S. Haver was hostess to the Tuesday Bridge club Tuesday afternoon at her home on Cedar street. Three tables were at play during the afternoon with Mrs. E. Doyle receiving high honors. At the close of the afternoon delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

At the regular meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star, held last night, several out-of-town visitors were present and at the conclusion of the business session refreshments were served. Half-wen decorations provided.

One of the first events celebrating Halloween was given last evening when Rev. Ford and Mrs. George Pollard entertained the W. W. G.'s at a delightful party. Approximately twenty-five guests were greeted at the door by a snack and were taken into the Pollard home, which was artistically decorated for the occasion with autumn leaves, jack-o-lanterns and other Halloween fixtures. The first part of the regular business meeting of the class, after which games and contests, appropriate for the occasion were played. During the evening delicious refreshments were served and just before adjournment each one took their fortune from the boiling caldron, which was the center piece for the dining table.

Mrs. Walter Leisman, Mrs. Adolph Seigrist, Mrs. N. C. Hampton, Mrs. H. M. Bay and Mrs. Chas. H. Reynolds motored to Wallowa lake this morning to spend the day.

Miss Gladys McCullough and Fred W. De Boli, both of Elgin, were married at the parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal church with Reverend Elmer Grant Keith officiating. They were accompanied by two friends from Elgin. The happy couple will make Elgin their home, where the groom is employed in a meat market.

The Missionary Society of the First Methodist Episcopal church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sherwood Williams in an unusually interesting meeting. Following the business session with Mrs. L. F. Hanford, president, in charge, Mrs. T. E. Pierson had charge of the afternoon's program. Both Mrs. Pierson and Mrs. E. W. Beck gave excellent talks, after which there was a general discussion of the topic. Before adjournment a delicious two course luncheon was served by the hostess.

Mrs. David L. Stoddard and Mrs. Chas. H. Reynolds motored to North Powder yesterday and spent the day.

Mrs. Lester Stoddard will be hostess to the Junior Bridge club tomorrow, October 24.

Mrs. H. N. Ashby and Mrs. C. P. Neahm will entertain the Kaffee Klatch club tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ashby.

The regular monthly business and social meeting of the Lutheran League will be held at the home of Miss Genevieve Nelson, 2004 Oak street, Friday evening. The following officers will be installed: Miss Emma Wurt, chairman; Miss Irene Ebert, secretary, and Miss Marie Mathes, treasurer.

Fashion Notes

Paris.—Gold and silver are combined very often lately. One sees gold and silver shoes, gold and silver wristbags and gold and silver lace evening gowns.

Paris.—For evening wear, either as a cloak or as part of the gown, the milk embroidered shawl is now in evidence. It is worn with the embroidered corner over one shoulder.

London.—The more one can resemble a pencil in figure the more fashionable one will be this coming season. Evening gowns are cut very low in back or lack of back altogether.

London.—A well known American woman dining recently at the Berkeley has set a new fashion in

This Child Saw Mother Killed

The only witness to the killing of Mrs. Fern Compton Davies by her husband at San Francisco was their four-year-old son, Wilbur Davies. "Papa hit mamma with a big knife," says the child. The motive for the murder is unknown. There was a violent quarrel. Then the husband moved to Daly City near San Francisco, carrying his wife's body in a trunk. Almost a month later shots were heard in the Davies cottage. Davies' body was found with two pistols beside it. Mrs. Compton and her son are shown above.

pearl necklaces. The pearls instead of being graduated were strung hit or miss in regard to size.

New York.—While the dark brown suede shoes are just now at the height of style, the log cabin brown suede is good. So also in black suede, especially if combined with black leather.

New York.—Red lingerie is an unusual idea shown here today. Some exquisite underthings have been made in venetian red gossamer with pipings of narrow gold ribbon and a bit of gold embroidery.

SURE YOU EAT CORN
Do you realize how the corn crop affects you? A probable shortage of good seed corn in some sections is predicted by the United States department of agriculture in consequence of the unusually late spring and continuous cool weather, factors which have caused corn to be very late.

How much do you know about corn which took the place of the gold the white man was hunting for when he came to these shores? Although considerable quantities of corn are used directly for human consumption it is not for this purpose that corn is grown on more land than any other cultivated crop in the United States. To ham, bacon, and other pork products is where most of the corn sees says an American Nature association bulletin which points out that nearly half of the crop is fed to swine on farms. About half of the remainder is fed to cattle and horses.
