Hummel was the one who found it. One of the seniors who was evidently afraid to go to the rally was called upon to speak.

few of the football players were also called upon. General amusement was obtained from these speeches as well as from the initiation of one of our new initiators. The assembly was then turned over to the pep leader, Clifford Selig, who had some peppy yells and worked up general enthusiasm for the game with Elgin tomorrow.

Eastern Gridgers Face Severe Test; Keen Interest Seen in Missouri Valley Games.

NEW YORK (AP).—Most of the contenders for eastern football honors of 1934 reach the cross roads today. The path that leads to title glory will be trod by a diminished band of warriors by the time the shadows have fallen across the fields. A battle that promises stirring fights for supremacy in many sections.

Of the eleven more important battles on the Atlantic seaboard that have not yet tasted defeat will meet in three of the day's outstanding engagements when Harvard clashes with Dartmouth at Cambridge; Lafayette lines up against its old rival, Washington and Jefferson, at the Polo grounds, and Rutgers meets Lehigh.

Harvard, Lafayette and Rutgers are their records, look at the most likely to emerge triumphant from these feuds; but they are not conceded decisive margins.

The five remaining undefeated eleven have formidable opposition. Princeton faces a difficult task in trying to check the onward drive of Notre Dame, but Yale is expected to down Brown in their annual game at New Haven. Chick Meacham's Syracuse outfit is favored to conquer the Penn State eleven. Pennsylvania, leading the eastern contingent with five straight victories to its credit, encounters Virginia and on past performances should win, while the remaining unbeaten team, Williams, battles Perry Houghton's improved and invincible segregation.

Notre Dame's invasion of the Tiger jungle in the most important intercollegiate clash of Saturday's schedule has attracted unusual interest. The Hoosiers, fresh from their triumph a week ago over Army will meet with machine-like attack of their brilliant backfield against an aggressive fighting Princeton eleven. Notre Dame's contest will be favored to win.

MISSOURI VALLEY GAMES—KANSAS CITY (AP).—With the four leader in the Missouri Valley conference race pitted against each other Saturday at least two of those to win a conference title for top position are thought to almost certain defeat. The Oklahoma Sooners, tied with Drake at Des Moines and apparently rule a slight favorite in view of their 7 to 4 victory over Nebraska at Norman two weeks ago. Considerable interest also is manifested in the Missouri-Kansas Aggie battle at Columbia. Missouri's goal line has been crossed this year. At the same time the old Aggie confidence and right has been rejuvenated as a result of the Aggie's 6 to 0 win over Kansas last week. Each of these four teams has a conference standing of one game won and none lost. Nebraska's fighting Cornhuskers invade the Kansas camp at Lawrence and Jayhawk followers are making no effort to hide their apprehension over the outcome. However, the Kansas gridironers have been working diligently and may spring a surprise on their northern neighbors. Washington will do battle against the Rolla school of mines at St. Louis. Ames and Grinnell have no games scheduled Saturday. WESTERN CONFERENCE TO SEE CRITICAL BATTLES (CHICAGO (AP)).—Three critical battles that will narrow the championship race in the western conference will be decided Saturday with two conference teams playing outside engagements. The two Hoosier eleven, Purdue and Indiana, will take a day off.

The trio of games holding conference interest are: Chicago vs. Ohio State at Columbus; Wisconsin-Michigan at Ann Arbor, and the homecoming struggle between Minnesota and Iowa at Iowa City. The Chicago-Ohio State clash undoubtedly will hold chief interest, although the eyes of thousands of gridiron fans will be on Michigan to find out whether the Wolverines will enter the game with rekindled spirits, anxious to take revenge for their defeat by Illinois last Saturday. The Chicago-Ohio State game promises to be a question of whether or not the White players can complete enough of those puzzling forward passes to offset the surging the Maroons are expected to earn, plowing through the line.

BOY AIDS IN BEAR HUNT CARCADE LOCKS, Ore.—Delmar Derr, 14, was late for school. He had been bear hunting, he said and reported that bruin, weighing 235 pounds had been shot. The animal had been robbing apple orchards in the Herman creek ranger station district this summer, so a trap was set out, which later was missed. Then the hunt started. Delmar's Airedale accepted credit for tracking the bear and he kept all other dogs and persons away until the arrival of his own party.

UNION WINS FROM POWDER

UNION (Special).—Both the high school and the grade rooms in Union were dismissed at 2:30 Friday afternoon and practically the entire student body and many of the grade pupils went to the football field to cheer the Union high boys on to their first victory of the season. North Powder came down for a return battle with the maroon and white eleven and soon found that the Union boys had vastly improved since receiving the weekend training at the hands of Powder a few weeks ago. Powder was shy one of their best men, and Union was getting along without Lamb and Cox, two of their finest players. Union kicked off and soon secured the ball from the visitors and bit for a fumble, would have scored early in the first quarter. They were soon playing on the defensive and it wasn't long till Powder was off for her single touchdown of the game. She failed on the extra point, the first half ending with the score of Powder 6, Union 6. In the second half the local boys came back strong and had the victory on the decisive most of the half. Union made her yardage mostly by straight line plunges, making over sixty yards by continuous assault on the heavier Powder line, before liming the ball. Powder punted and soon Union had the ball again and this time tore through the line all they went over the line. A successful kick gave the extra point that clinched the game for Union. Before the final whistle ended the struggle Union was on her way to a second down. Final score Union 7, Powder 6. Only one penalty was inflicted during the entire game and there were no delays except when a player was knocked out for a short time. Burton of La Grande returned and Earl Garrison of Powder umpired. Dr. Schuster acted as head linesman. This makes Union's fourth game and her first victory, practically all her games this season being against more experienced teams. Coach Pitts promised the school that he had a team that would fight like wildcats and they lived up to it to promise. Monday afternoon the alumni are planning to play the high school eleven. The alumni is heavier than the school team, but are not in practice and expect a defeat.

Dear Mr. R. U. Elder, and Mr. C. O. Ntractor, and Mr. F. A. Rimey: I just wanted to drop you a few lines to let you know that all the Lumber is well, and that we wish to see you today. One of our trucks was sick a few days and from the way it coughed I think it had a cold, but it is all right now and able to play up and down the streets hauling Lumber and Building Material. Uncle George was in and hauled out several large loads of Lumber. He seemed to think our prices were just about right. Well, they are—everybody knows that. It is nothing to see four and five trucks and wagons waiting their turn to be loaded up. Well, boys, I must close. Your friend,

It made a difference to Washington's hopes in the sixth world series game, with old Roger Peckinpough back in the lineup. The crippled veteran started the winning rally in the fifth inning with a single. Here you see him crossing the plate with the tying run after McNeely had walked and Harris singled. McNeely scored behind Peck on the same blow, registering the winning tally. Hank Gowdy, Giant catcher, is waiting for the ball as Peck crosses the plate, while Umpire Klem looks on.
