GOVERNMENT WINS FIRST ROUND IN OIL LEASE TRIAL

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Testimony given by E. L. Doheny, head of the Pan-American Petroleum interests, before the senate investigating committee last January relative to the $100,000 personal loan given to Doheny by former Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall, was the cause Thursday of the first heated clash between opposing counsel at the trial here of the government's suit for cancellation of leases held by the Pan-American in the Elk Hills naval oil reserve.

Legal arguments that followed lasted from the latter part of the morning session until nearly the close of court when Federal Judge Paul J. McCormick ruled in favor of the government.

The clash occurred when the prosecution in the unavailability of Mr. Doheny as a witness, he having refused to testify earlier in the day, offered in evidence testimony given by the oil magnate before the senate investigating committee both about Fall's role and proposed changes in the lease.

Hills of Lebanon Call For New National Hymn

BEIRUT (AP)—Greater Lebanon, as the section of Syria including Beirut and the Lebanon hills is called, wants a new national anthem and is willing to pay for it.

Although a French mandated territory, with a high commissioner sent from France administering it, the "Gouverneur du Grand Liban" finds that the "Marseillaise" does not do or is not enough.

28 YEARS AGO

La Grande Gazette, October 23, 1896.—Chet Wilbur, of Baker City was a visitor in La Grande this week.

J. H. Robbins returned from a visit to the Maxwell mines Friday evening.

C. S. Spencer will deliver a republican address at Island City tomorrow night.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holmes is on a fair road to recovery.

A bouncing boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bartlett this morning. Ed is looking somewhat downcast over the fact that the little visitor cannot vote for McKinley.

Benjamin Davis an aged and respected citizen of this city, died Tuesday morning. The funeral took place from the Masonic hall Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. A large number of friends attended the sad rites.

On Saturday night last the opera house was filled to overflowing to hear Congressman W. E. Ellis and Hon. C. W. Fulton discourse upon the vital issues of the day from a republican standpoint.

Asper G. Stevens, druggist of Cove, Fulton county, with his wife in Portland attending the exposition. He gives it as his opinion that the McKinley cause is daily gaining ground in his county, and will make a respectable showing in spite of the big populist vote at last election.

The annual meeting of the La Grande Building and Loan association was held Friday evening.

The report of the secretary shows the assets of the association to be $111,809.48, while the liabilities are $65,596.57 leaving a net gain to the stockholders of $46,212.91.

During the year just closed 14 loans were made. The highest number of months' interest bid in advance was eight while the lowest was three.

The first series will mature in a little less than three months, thus running a little over nine years.

China Withdraws Run Against Students Coming to America. PEKING (AP)—The minister of education had rescinded his recent instruction to the provincial authorities that the sending of students to America be discouraged.

In his new instruction the minister says: "A letter has been received from the ministry of foreign affairs stating that the American state department has instructed its consuls in China to issue non-immigrant passports to students going to America for the purpose of study in those institutions recognized by the United States government.

The obstacle has been removed, examinations should be held as usual without suspicion."

More Thrilling Than the Movies

Thousands at the Hawthorne race track, Chicago, were thrilled when Lillian Boyer, daredevil, airplane acrobat, came close to death. As she jumped from an auto to a ladder trailed by a plane, one ring of the ladder caught on the exhaust pipe of the car. The driver of the car saved the girl's life by going into a skid and disengaging the rope.

Tacoma Buys Argentine Corn Cheaper Than Iowa Product

TACOMA, Wash. (AP)—A shipment of 5000 tons of corn from Argentina, received here recently, revealed that corn from the South American republic could be had down here cheaper than corn from Iowa.

The British tramp freighter Ashworth brought the corn around the Horn, and the rate charged was $6.75 a ton for the 8000 mile sea voyage. The duty paid was $5.40 a ton making the total cost, in addition to the price paid in Argentina, $12.15 a ton.

The South American corn was dolly red to two milling companies here. The price paid in Argentina for the consignment was not disclosed.

Interesting Sale Ad Bring Back Memories

The following from the Camas Post is of interest to those who like to read stories of the old days when people were untrammelled by social barriers and conventionalities:

Below we reprint the advertisement of an old time auction sale that took place back in Kentucky in 1849-74 years ago. The ad was published in the Anderson News in February, 1849. The Post is indebted to O. P. Johnson, of the First National bank of this city, for this relic of old days, which were a great deal different from the ones of this age.

Having sold my farm an leaving by ox team for "Oregon Territory," will offer on March first, 1849, all of my personal property, to-wit:

- All ox teams except two teams, Buck and Ben and Tom and Jerry; 2 milk cows, 1 gray mare and colt; 1 pair oxen and yoke; 1 baby yoke; 2 ox carts; 1 iron plow with wood mold board; 800 feet of popular weather boards; 100 2-foot clap boards; 1500 10-foot fence rails; 1 60-gallon soap kettle; 85 sugar troughs, made of white ash timber; 10 gallons of maple syrup; 2 spinning wheels; 20 pounds of mutton tallow; 29 pounds of beef tallow; 1 large loom, made by Jerry Wilson; 300 poles; 100 split hoops; 100 empty barrels; 1 32-gallon barrel of Johnson-Miller whiskey, 7 years old; 20 gallons of apple brandy; 1 40-gallon copper still; 3 sides of oak tanned leather; 1 dozen real books; 2 handle hoes; 3 scythes and cradles; one dozen wooden pitchforks; half interest in tan yard; 1 32-caliber rifle made by Hei Miller; 50 gallons of soft soap; hams, bacon and lard; 40 gallons of sorghum molasses; 4 head of fox hounds all smooth mouthed except one.

DANCER ASKS DAMAGES

TILLAMOOK, Ore.—F. R. Beals of Tillamook is defendant in a suit for damages for $6050 filed this week in the circuit court here by Lola Z. Totten, dancer and entertainer.

The plaintiff, who said she had registered at the hotel owned by Beals at Pacific City, charged that she was injured when struck by a bed in the hotel which collapsed as she was sitting on it. She said that she received injuries to her foot and ankle, which prevented her from accepting employment as a dancer and entertainer. The collapse of the bed, she alleged, was due to a weak brace and supporting post.

What Theft Suspect Held.

PENDELTON, Ore.—J. C. Campbell, charged with the larceny of a small quantity of wheat from several farmers in the vicinity of Weston and Athol, was arrested by Sheriff Houser. Losses of from eight to 50 sacks of wheat had been reported to the sheriff. Campbell was said to have stolen from one to two lots a night and to have sold the grain in Milton.

LESSON NO. 3 Lighting the Kitchen

It may seem a bit odd to start with the kitchen instead of with the living room for our lighting lessons, but the kitchen is a room of importance. A home may be built without a sun room or a living room, but without a kitchen, never!

And this is the room in our home where somebody must work a good many hours each day. In most families that somebody is likely to be Mother. Winter mornings there's breakfast to get by electric light. There's always kitchen work to do after dark in the evening and there are gloomy days when artificial light is necessary almost all day long in the kitchen.

Factory work rooms are compelled by law to be at least reasonably well lighted, but the work room of the home, the kitchen, often is very badly lighted just because Mother never has complained about it.

To be well lighted, there should be a flood of soft, even light in the kitchen that gets into every nook and corner. When you stand at the sink while washing the dishes there should be no deep, black shadows on the dishes. It should be impossible to "stand in your light" so as to throw a dense shadow on your work anywhere in the room. You should be able to open the oven door and actually see in.

Many kitchens are lighted with a fixture light like the one shown in this picture. No kitchen can no bad shadows, it is usually well to provide in addition to the light on the ceiling, a bracket fixture on the wall over the sink, or if that is not possible another light hung from the ceiling, which will be over the sink. This light should be just high enough above the head to be out of the way. This fixture should have a deep, open bottom, dense milk-white glass shade. It may have an insulated pull chain switch. In some kitchens a fixture like this may be needed over the kitchen stove.

Just as a 100-watt lamp bulb in the ceiling fixture will give proper lighting, so a 60-watt white bulb is excellent for the fixture over the sink or the stove. Some people prefer a 150-watt daylight or blue bulb in the center fixture and a 75-watt daylight or blue bulb in the fixture over the sink or stove. The use of daylight or blue bulbs makes a well kept kitchen look even more quick and spry and gives to it, night or day, a daylight cheerfulness.

When using an electric iron or any other appliance, we need all the light we can get. Therefore it is not a good thing to remove a bulb to connect the iron. Have a convenience outlet just like this in the wall near the table, about 26 inches or more above the floor.

be well lighted with this old style lighting equipment. In spite of everything you do, it will always make bad shadows, because the bulb is so low that you can't help throwing your own shadow in front of you. There's only one cure—take it out.

Proper light for the kitchen means a 100-watt clear bulb or 150-watt daylight or blue bulb, put close up to the ceiling so that there will be a minimum of shadow. To soften the light, it should be surrounded by a dense milk-white, all enclosing, glass globe. Preferably this piece of glassware should be flattened out a little in shape in order to spread the light well over the room. This is shown in the next picture. In a very large kitchen two of these may be needed.

Changing the old style fixture to this modern kitchen light will
