

NEWS of SOCIETY

A charming event took place Saturday when Mrs. F. L. Ralston was hostess to the Clio club at her home on N. avenue. During the afternoon's play at bridge Mrs. Norman Press won high honors. The Ralston home was artistically decorated with fall flowers and during the afternoon a delicious two course luncheon was served.

Members of the Parkdale club were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Jay Shaw, recently. The rooms were tastefully decorated in cut flowers and after the business meeting an excellent program was given, consisting of a vocal solo, "Blue Bird," by Miss Elaine Shaw, accompanied by her mother at the piano; a violin solo by Martha Young, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Wilkinson and a selection on the piano by Alice Struck. At the close of the program an elaborate luncheon was served by the hostess.

On their regular quarterly social meeting day, Wednesday, the members of the Island City Ladies Aid Society were hostesses to a most delightful event, when at 6:26 o'clock they held a banquet at the club in honor of their husband and families. Mrs. Bill Wain, in her ever charming manner, acted as toastmistress and was responded to by several interesting toasts to husbands, wives and community life, after which a unique program was given, which further carried out the spirit of the evening.

On Thursday the society held the first all-day meeting of the winter at the home of Mrs. C. H. Hildwell. Twenty members and two visitors were present.

The Reading Circle for Bible

Ideal Dinner Gown

SOPHISTICATED simplicity is hereby demonstrated. A subtle cut allows the sleeve drapery to be a part of the frock without any seam or break in the shoulder line. Sections of steel bead fringe applied at intervals form the skirt decoration and the ends of the scarf. It is an ideal dinner gown.

Study will meet tomorrow, Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. H. R. Macdonald, 522 Fourth street. A high attendance is desired as the topic for the coming year will be discussed and decided upon. At the last two years have been spent on Genesis and Exodus it is likely that some subject from the new testament will be chosen and studied in its internal and spiritual sense. Women of any church whatever or of none at all, who are interested in this line of study, are most cordially invited to attend this reading circle and visitors are always welcome. If those who do not wish to walk will be at the Fourth street entrance of the Public Library at 2:15 p. m. they will be provided with a way to ride. Reading will begin at 2:30.

Cove.—The Ladies All held an all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. Geo. Baker. The day was spent in reading plans and preparing for the annual fall luncheon to be given in the near future. Those present were Mrs. A. A. Antick, Mrs. Smithey, Mrs. F. Williams, Mrs. O. Lund, Mrs. P. Towle, Mrs. Lydia M. Lantz, Mrs. Geo. Colby, Mrs. J. Allen, Mrs. Snedeker, Mrs. Mary P. Chambers, Mrs. L. E. Hartley, Mrs. E. Hartley, Mrs. Roy Baker, Mrs. Geo. McDaniel, Mrs. Mae Kelly, Mrs. Wesley Smith, Mrs. Lynn Chadwick, Mrs. M. J. Duffy, Mrs. Brothers and Mrs. Nina Burford.

Cove. (Special) — The Ladies Guild was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hallmark Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. A. H. Orton as assistant hostess. A new secretary, Mrs. J. R. Price, has been elected to succeed Mrs. E. G. Barker, who is teaching school at Perry this winter, and a treasurer, Mrs. H. H. Daniel, has been elected to succeed Mrs. Edna Conklin, who is spending the winter in Walla Walla, Wash. The afternoon was spent at "500" with Mrs. P. Miller winning high honors and at the close of the game a delicious luncheon was served to eleven guests, consisting of Mrs. J. J. Conley, Mrs. L. R. Carter, Mrs. T. R. Conklin, Mrs. G. Berbeck, Mrs. L. E. Anderson, Mrs. A. G. Conklin, Mrs. J. H. Price, Miss Rose Kelly, Mrs. F. Miller, Mrs. C. Horyford and Mrs. R. I. Barber.

North Powder (Special)—Among the first and most delightful social events of the season was a party given Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jacobs and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hutchinson at the Hutchinson home. The idea of Halloween was provided in the decorations throughout the home, creating a charming effect. Twelve tables of "500" were at play during the evening, after which delicious refreshments were served. The list of guests included Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson, of Haines, Mrs. M. C. Knapp, of Portland, Mrs. Mabel Laughlin, of Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Gyllenberg, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Herman White, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Norval Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Ella Berg, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter McGrath, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gruffo, Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. James Rigg, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones, Mr. and Mrs. William Pearson and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hutchinson.

North Powder (Special)—Mrs. C. L. Palmer delightfully entertained a number of friends Friday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. M. C. Knapp, of Portland, who is visiting here for several days. Mrs. Knapp will be remembered as Miss Lottie Olson, formerly of this city, and has a large number of friends here.

North Powder (Special)—At the meeting of the Rebekah Lodge here last week twelve new members, Mrs. L. L. Campbell, Mrs. Cordy Gilkinson and Mrs. George Ballard, were initiated into the lodge. At six o'clock, before the opening of the lodge meeting, a delicious dinner was served for the candidates and the Rebekah members and their families.

Umatilla, Fred Steiner, Pendleton. The service league cooperates with regular party organizations in the various states and performs such work as comes within its field as a coherent organization of war veterans and other service men.

The new league of course, views the campaign through the eyes of ex-service men and women. It has a special interest in the citizen who will vote for the first time. One of its bulletins discusses the La Follette year record, something of vital interest to every veteran. In this bulletin the Boston Post, an independent democratic newspaper, is quoted in part, as follows:

"If La Follette was a patriotic American in 1917, then Woodrow Wilson, Theodore Roosevelt and every gallant boy who died for us across the sea was not. If La Follette was right, then every man of us who believed in the cause
