body in the best form of vaudeville and fragmentary acts that would find ready favor with all classes of theatergoers; that they have succeeded in doing this is evidenced by the success of their big minstrel enterprise, which is booked at Arcade Theatre today.

The venture has gone with phenomenal success and from a modest beginning, some few years ago, the company now ranks foremost and is the largest and best minstrel organization in America.

250 performers furnish an evening's entertainment in which fun is plenty and of the good, wholesome kind that wins public favor.

"Continuous fun" seems to be the real thing in the cities. "Continuous fun" is the motto of Russo & Heckwald's Famous Georgian Minstrels, who bring an entire new company of fun-makers. There is no fall of the curtain from the commencement of the jollification until the finish; the program is too long to permit of any waits or long-drawn-out excursions. It is one continuous round of pleasure and surprising novelties.
