Evans Goes Up in the Air

You seldom hear of Chick Evans being up in the air, but the other day, put in Wichita, Kan., the noted amateur golfer explored the clouds. Chick was in an airplane. It was his first flight, and he was enthusiastic. "But I didn't land an eagle," he lamented.

John J. Irwin, organist; 9-10, Elsie Ingman, contralto; Marvin Kidding, bass; pianist; Benjamin trio; 10-11, 12 Max Bradford's Versatile band.

Malcolm, Entally Hunt, MAHSHFIELD, Ore. Frank Ferries, globe trotter and expert in wood carving, who recently returned after spending eighteen months in India, went over an engagement in the Coos Bay-Columbia highway in his automobile and suffered injuries which caused his death a few minutes after his arrival here.

Mr. Ferries was blinded, his companion, T. L. Stanley, said, when an automobile they met failed to dim its lights. Traffic officers have not been able to locate the driver of the car which caused the death of Ferries.

Apple Display Contests Keen.

HOOD RIVER. — The grange cooperative store won first prize for its window apple display. The Pacific Power & Light company won second prize, and Honorable mention was given the Apple Blossom club. Merchants participated in the apple displays as a feature of apple blossom week which will end when Miss Hartena Woodard, secretary of the Hood River experiment station, will be crowned "Queen of Apple Harvest."

German Editor Dares Women To Shave Their Heads As Men Do

DRESDEN (AP). — "If women will cut off their hair and shave their heads why don't they shave their heads all over the way many German men do who regard themselves as very aristocratic and distinguished?" is the challenge a German editor makes to women of fashion.

"Many men who belong to the Steel Helmet organization have shaved heads. It is a distinct mark of the officer class, and since women are organizing a feminine branch of the Steel Helms they should also shave their heads."

ACCIDENTS TOTAL 9131

SALEM, Ore. — During the first six months of 1924 there were 9131 motor vehicle accidents in Oregon, according to T. A. Rafferty, chief inspector for the state motor vehicle department, who was principal speaker at the week-long luncheon of the Kiwanis club here. Mr. Rafferty said many of the accidents were due to improper signals on the part of drivers, while others were caused by speeding and failure to dim lights.

The club voted to express condolences to Mrs. T. O. High, whose husband was killed in an automobile accident near McMinnville.
