

NEWS of SOCIETY

The Young Women's Educational Auxiliary of the Methodist church met last evening at the home of Mrs. H. E. Dixon, where a very enjoyable and well prepared program was rendered. About sixty young women were present. The subject for the evening was "The Sowing Seed," and the play "The Sowing Seed," was very beautifully rendered, with the following cast: Mrs. Will Adler as Martha; Mrs. Margaret Dalgic as Harriet; Mrs. Cora Scott as Elizabeth; Mrs. Harold Young as Mary; Miss Ruby Wilson as Anna; before the play, Mrs. Steward's William and Mrs. A. W. Nelson gave a vocal duet, and Miss Mae Starnap and Mrs. A. E. Kinnaman rendered a violin duet. After the conclusion of the play, Miss Starnap and Mrs. Kinnaman played "Aurora" from "The Holy City," accompanied by Mrs. Williams. The Auxiliary is entering the National Hymn Contest, and the program was closed with practice on hymns after which refreshments were served.

The committee in charge of this meeting consisted of Mrs. H. E. Dixon; Mrs. Will Wilson, Miss Margaret Dalgic, Mrs. Will Adler, Mrs. Ruby Watts and Mrs. Cora Harding Scott.

The next meeting will be an evening of stunts, and the time and place will be announced later.

For the purpose of raising money for their treasury the Neighborhood club gave a dinner last evening at Roman hall. A fair sized crowd was in attendance and a delicious dinner was served from five until seven o'clock. The hall was attractively decorated with autumn flowers, pink pom-poms and chrysanthemum being used.

The committee in charge of the fair were Mrs. E. H. Henshaw, chairman; Mrs. L. W. Warrick, Mrs. N. Nowland, Mrs. Walter Perry, Mrs. W. H. Riley, Mrs. J. T. Rich, Mrs. J. D. Brown, Mrs. P. A. Duffing and Mrs. Grace Moller. Mrs. Lynn Wright was in charge of the music.

Mrs. E. L. Paareh entertained the Wednesday Bridge club yesterday afternoon at her home on Main street. During the afternoon's play Mrs. Edward Henshaw won the club prize for high score and Mrs. John Thelsson won the grand prize. Chrysanthemum decorated the home and at the close of the afternoon a delicious two course meal was served.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the First Methodist Episcopal church held their regular monthly meeting at the home of

Short Model Popular

In spite of the popularity of the long and three-quarter-length coat suit, there are many women who prefer the shorter models, and for such women, here is such a one. It is of gray wool, lined with mink and with metal ribbon for giving a little color and dash. The lines are distinctly youthful and becoming.

Mrs. A. Cooper, 702 Main street, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Cooper read the devotional and Mrs. L. W. Leighton had charge of the lesson and mystery box for the afternoon. At the close of the afternoon delicious refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. B. I. Patton.

Mrs. Ed. Baylen was hostess to the Tuesday Bridge club yesterday afternoon at her home on Greenwood street. The home was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers and during the afternoon's play Mrs. E. J. Kinnaman won high scores. A delicious two course dinner was served by the charming hostess before a very enjoyable event was brought to a close.

Fashion Notes

Paris.—More for one's money is no recommendation when it comes to buying Parisian lingerie. The latest "chemise pentalon" consists of two short plastrons of crepe de chene which fall front and back. These are joined at the side by a six-inch section of Valenciennes which also runs round the top and the bottom and reveals no more than it conceals.

London.—Not all the coats this season are fur trimmed. One charming example seen today was a roll-top of navy blue serge embroidered and braided in vivid Polynesian designs over a gray poplin lining. The long collar and the lower half of the sleeve also were of gray, but without a touch of fur.

New York.—Some of the new topsuits actually have to fit. One of the latest models shown is of English tweed and cut on similar lines to those of a man's overcoat when men wore them tight about the waist.

New York.—Collars and cuffs instead of muffs. That in the wardrobe of the girl golfer at present. Many of the enthusiasts are wearing two-piece sport suits of flannel, kasha or knitted materials adorned by white linen collars and cuffs. Solid colors and plaids are about equally popular for these costumes.

New York.—Many persons who go in for winter sports will this year adopt the short, heavy woolen sock worn by Swiss guides. These, usually in white or natural wool, are put on outside the stocking and roll down in a neat circle around the shoe top.

ZONING TO BE PROPOSED
SALEM, Ore.—Zoning the city of Salem, with relation to building restrictions, will be proposed by Mayor Gleay in his annual message to the city council.

Under the plan outlined by the mayor, each district of the city will be considered separately and no attempt will be made to adopt uniform restrictions. In support of his proposal Mayor Gleay said that it would be almost even to suggest that building restrictions in the factory district of the city would be suitable in the residential sections.

WOODBURN RESISTS SUIT
WOODBURN, Ore.—At a meeting of the new city council it was decided to resist a $25,000 suit against the city by bringing condemnation proceedings. The damage suit was brought by N. Miller for alleged damage to his land on account of water from the city people tank entering a spring that flows through his land.

This suit was set for trial in circuit court, Salem, Thursday.

Physical Education Given Incapacitated

BERKELEY, Cal. (AP) — The University of California's system of physical education has been expanded to include students who have physical defects, but are not necessarily required to forego all exertion conducive to building up their bodies.

As Prof. Frank L. Kieberger, chairman of the department of physical education, explained: "Many students who are incapacitated in one way or another apply for permission to be excused from work in this department because they think that it is impossible for them to pursue such a course. Yet they are anxious to engage in something that would border along athletic lines. After we have secured permission from attending physicians, we have in many instances been able to place such students in special classes, with results very gratifying."

University gymnastic teams in recent terms have included three one-legged men. One student with a withered arm has become adept at bar punching.

"Physical education does not necessarily mean physical exertion," said Prof. Kieberger. "Many times we recommend abstention from physical exercise and advise certain regular living habits which tend to build up the nervous system. Diet also plays an important part."

HOW LA GRANDE CAN BLOW AWAY

Yesterday we discussed in this space something of the shortcomings of local institutions including churches. We said that all sane men in all Christian lands say that without schools and churches, or either, there would be no towns and communities within a year. We are not arguing that this is true—it is accepted as true everywhere.

If churches are so vital to the commercial welfare of our town and state, why are men who employ and men employed so unconcerned about the cornerstone of their respective mealtickets? Because they have been letting a few carry the load of an institution that is above all else the backbone of their community.

These questions will be discussed more fully next week; in the meantime,

MEN OF LA GRANDE,
settle with yourselves the question: Am I as an individual doing my part toward the church of this city? If you find yourself wholly or in part at fault, what are you going to do about it?
