OWE NO MAN ANY THING, but to love one another, for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law. Love worketh no ill to his neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.—Romans 13:8, 10.

THE OLD HOME TOWN

By Stanley

OFFICE CAT

By Junius

My wife is so modest, says a La Grande man, that she won't wear calico because she hates to see herself in print.

A motoring writer records that motorists in this country run into millions. We think this is slightly exaggerated.

It is not so bad to keep your mouth shut, and be thought a fool as it is to open it and remove all doubt.

Every man secretly envies the Indian chief, who sits around in front of the tent and grunts and smokes and lets himself be waited on.

That cheek girl: "Haven't you forgotten something, sir?" Husband of some one (turn and staring her carefully): "Oh, you, dear."

Your lot could be much worse. Suppose you were a fern and it took a million of you to make one fern frond.

AT LEAST IT NEVER DID. Our sympathy goes out to young Mrs. Newby, whose husband was endeavoring to explain to her the technicalities of keeping correctly the stubs in her check book.

This morning, while they ate their breakfast in a local restaurant, "You see," he said, "you just subtract every time you write a check." Sounds perfectly plausible and simple, but every woman knows it won't work.

EACH COMMUNITY SUPPLIED. Looks to the right of us. Looks to the left of us. Looks in front of us. How they display them. On they go trippingly. Throat and skippingly. Proud that takes nappingly. Does not dismay them.

Straight legs and bony ones. Bony legs and dandy ones. Awkward and humpy ones. Flirt with the breezes. Round legs and flatter ones. Thin legs and fatter ones. Especially the latter ones. Showing their knees.

Kneecapped and bony ones. Bony legs and plenty ones. Milk-covered tiny ones. Second to none. Straight and distorted ones. Males and distorted ones. Bony and distorted ones. AUNT WAGON FUN?

About the time a fellow gets interested in the girl in a corner at a ball comes a new magazine with a better looking one.

RATHER EMBARRASSING. "Supposing I decide to let you have the money, how do I know that I shall get it back at the time you mention?" "I promise it on the word of a gentleman."

"Ah, in that case I may consider it." "Come around the evening and bring him with you."

What people want to know is not "WHY it kills the color of onions?" It is, "How about the odor of boozing?"

As we have little respect for the opinions of those who do not agree with us, what fools we are, in arguing with them.

New Treatment for Varicose or Swollen Veins

Swollen veins are dangerous and often fatal. Sufferers are advised to get a genuine original bottle of HERRING OIL (not imitations), of any pharmacist and apply to reduce the veins and soothe at once.

Prevents venous congestion. Herold Oil is used in hospital practice and a single bottle will keep a long time because it is concentrated and a little goes a long way. Apply night and morning with a soft brush or allowed until the swelling is reduced to normal. It is guaranteed.

Dr. HERRING'S VEIN OIL is the only oil that cures varicose veins and even other diseases when used steadily. You can depend on it. It cures you. Cash orders accepted.—Adv.

Red Cross Drug Store

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen, of 25 Park St., Rochester, N. Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally composed a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allenehu, to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed druggists everywhere to dispense Allenehu with the understanding that if the first pint bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment.

Red Cross Pharmacy is my appointed agent in your city. If you live out of town I'll gladly send you free particulars.—Adv.

School to Aid Pupils Develop Music Talents

NEW YORK (AP)—The Master School of Musical Arts, founded to aid American students who have undeniable talent but no means for cultivating it, will begin to function at San Francisco next May 1 with a faculty which includes some of the world's most prominent authorities on music.

"Talented but poor music students all over America, sit up and take notice," says the announcement from officers of the school in this city. "Your fond dream of continuing your studies under the guidance of the world's greatest masters of music is about to become true at last, and absolutely without cost. The only stipulation is that
