STOLEN SIGNAL
STORY SAPPY

La Grande Is Laughing Heartily at Pendleton Newspaper's Football Yarn.

(By SCOTT)
Imagine a sports writer falling for the old, tired, money-worked-to-death crack about "stolen signals." Imagine even a green cub reporter falling for such stuff. But it happened.
Somehow or other the East (pendleton) of Pendleton produced a story in Tuesday's issue, which was reprinted for the amusement of local people yesterday, that favored richly of the kindergarten.

Yes, verily, it is to laugh. Let us puff.

The Pendleton story stated that rumors had it that La Grande had had full knowledge of Pendleton and signals. And it went on to say that those signals would do the Blue and White any good because Hutton would cross "em and he would use signals that hadn't been needed before and maybe La Grande players would all run toward left and when a right end run was called.

And about all the story didn't say was that maybe if La Grande knew the signals, Santa Claus would be good to the Pendleton and give them a new saddle on which to ride their horse of folly.

Yes, yes, chuckles at this story are resounding yet. We know now the good old game of kindergarten is dead. But some Pendleton sports writers should be.

Seriously speaking, though, it might have been an attempt to involve matters into the coming football struggle. Or it might have been a conspiracy to boost the sale of tickets. Or it might even have been a bad day for news and the story had to go to fill up space.

All La Grande has to say about it is that one set of signals is enough for any football team to learn and it's a cinch that the set learned wouldn't be Pendleton-made.

Quite a few La Grander expect to drive to Pendleton Saturday if the roads permit. At the present time chains will insure safety on the trip over the blue mountains.

The Pendleton-La Grande game is regarded as the eastern Oregon classic and most of the fans here are either sure to go or else are busy figuring out how they can get there.

While the Ducks and Thons are itching and clawing about on the gridiron at Round-Up park, the remainder of the major eastern Oregon teams will be waiting to hear the news.

No other big high school games are scheduled Saturday.

The season will wind up Thanksgiving day with Baker playing here and Union at Enterprise. If Pendleton defeats La Grande it is possible that a Walla-Walla-Pendleton contest for the championship might be arranged.

DAD has always wanted an open car. He likes freedom. He wants speed—and flexibility. He loves to open 'er up on a smooth country road and feel the wind whiz past his face.

But Mother . . . she wants comfort and protection—she's thinking of that rainy day when the youngsters have to go to school.

And here at last is a new-type car to meet this old-time family problem.

It's a glorious—joyous—free, airy open car when you want it.

Then when it storms it may be changed to a comfortable, weather-tight enclosed car with complete protection from wind and rain.

Thirty seconds is all it takes—simply lower the roller side enclosures, without even leaving your seat. You've never seen anything like it before.

The Duplex body is framed and shaped in steel. Upper and lower sections are integral. Thus its construction is substantial and its beauty lasting.

It banishes once and for all the trouble of attaching the old-type curtains—makeshift at best.

No more hurried efforts hunting for the right curtain while the storm beats in.

No more exposure, through holes torn in them, while trying to obtain, for the emergency, the protection given by a closed car.

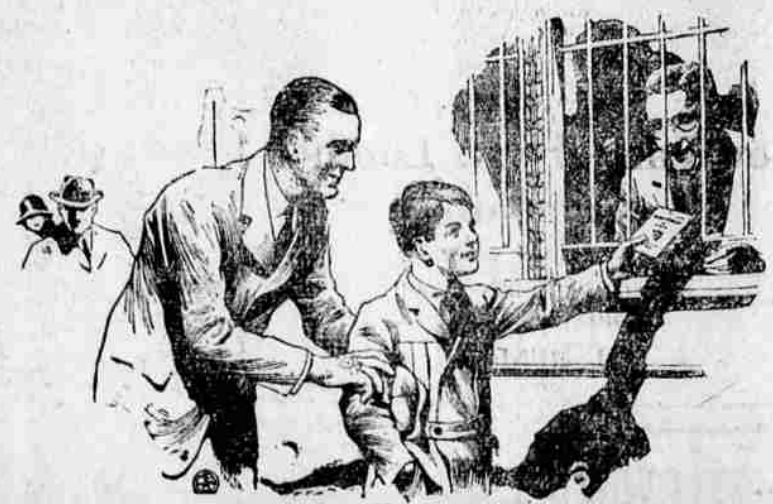

To the man unwilling to sacrifice the thrill of open car motoring—to the woman who wants closed car protection right at her finger tips—this car offers a wonderful new adventure—it marks a new era in fine car possession.

In justice to yourself—see the new Duplex now. Only Studebaker makes it.
