The Babe Meets Pola

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 27.—The coast, or that part of it occupied by the movie queens, Mr. Hambro Bath, our well-known home-ruler, was naturally persuaded to meet some of the film notables. Among them, Pola Negri, the emotional snorer. It is said that Mr. Bath was introduced in this manner: "He made more home runs last year than any man in the country." And Miss Negri is reported to have inquired, in her native European manner: "And who was chasing him?"

IDAHO PASSES TO VICTORY

BOISE, Idaho (Special)—Idaho Vandals closed their 1924 grid season by defeating the Nevada Wolves 22 to 9, here Thursday afternoon in a game in which a bewildering aerial attack was pitted against a hard-driving line. Regis, Idaho quarter, threw the Vandals' driving strength against the Wolves' impenetrable forward wall early in the first quarter but was forced to open with Mally Matthews' famed aerial attack before appreciable ground was scored.

NOTRE DAME TO COME WEST

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal. (AP)—Acceptance by Notre Dame of an invitation to meet the Stanford football team has been received by Dr. W. H. Barrow, athletic director of Stanford university. The acceptance leaves only the adjustment of minor details for holding of the proposed game at Berkeley on New Year's day.

THREE FIELD GOALS GIVE VICTORY TO SYRACUSE

NEW YORK (AP)—The kicking of John McBride, Orange half-back, featured the defeat of Cornell by Syracuse, 9 to 6, Thursday. McBride booted the ball across the uprights three times when his team had been checked by a stubborn blue line.

Outplayed during most of the game and handicapped by the inattention of several players and dispirited fans, Syracuse fell back on the kicking ability of McBride and each time to come through, bringing his total field goals to 11 for the season.

Syracuse found the Columbia forward line impregnable and its ends difficult to evade. The study Koppich, Columbia captain, says the Orange forwards plenty of anxiety. Aided by astute interference, he gained many yards, but poor strategy near the goal line cut the Blue an opportunity in the first quarter and except for one when Koppich, who Koppich caught a pass from Pease and ran 15 yards for a touchdown, he was kept away from the goal line.

Columbia's score was achieved in the second quarter when Koppich gathered in Pease's aerial thrust and rumbled over the goal line, unopposed by Orange hands.

MISSOURI WIN CINCHES FLAG

KANSAS CITY (By the Associated Press)—The University of Missouri Thursday emerged from its annual clash with Kansas with the victory of the Missouri valley championship—the mythical valley championship.

Founding the Jayhawkers line for two touchdowns in the third period, the Blue secured the only scores of the game that meant for them the leadership of the conference, or a place to hold Nebraska, the only team that defeated them this season.

With Thursday's victory Missouri stands with five games won and one lost, Nebraska is second with three won and one lost and Drake comes third with three victories, one defeat and one tie.

FLORIDA GATORS WIN FROM DRAKE

FLORING FIELD, Gainesville, Fla. (AP)—Aldley of the University of Florida's "fighting gators" to break up efforts at aerial passing by the "bulldogs" of Drake university, combined with the telling effects of Florida's balmy weather, proved the undoing of the visitors, who were defeated here Thursday, 10 to 9. The game was marked by brilliant playing of Dick Brown, flashy open field runner.

Science Says Glands Are Responsible for Health and Strength

Activity of certain glands is responsible for the strength, courage, fighting power and nerve force of man, in the latest opinion of science. Burman has gone so far as to analyze and classify the various types of ring fighters and famous fighters of his time, and shows that such men as George Dixon, Nat Nelson, Jack Dempsey and Napoleon were possessed of unusually active glands.

It is the function of the glands to pour into the blood their vitalizing secretions which stimulate vitality and energizing force.

Glandogen, the new scientific gland tonic, prepared in tablet form, provides a simple method of taking glandular treatment. Glandogen, for men and women, is obtainable at Ideal Cross Drug Co. (Mail orders accepted).—Adv.

MIMIR STAFF IS ANNOUNCED

Announcement of the personnel of the staff to prepare the high school annual, "The Mimir," has been made by Miss Malet Bennett, head of the English department.

Miss Velma McCall has been selected an editor in chief with Miss Helen Williams and Miss Lillian King as assistants. Douglas Moe and Raymond Messersiek have been appointed business manager and assistant business manager, respectively.

The chief aim of the staff from now until school is, out in the spring will, of course, be to put out a book to excel all annuals of past years. From the high standard of the publication in many former years this will be a big task.

QUAKERS' AERIAL ATTACK TOO STRONG FOR CORNELL

PHILADELPHIA, (AP)—A dazzling aerial attack gave Pennsylvania a 20 to 0 triumph Thursday over her ancient foe, Cornell. Fifty-six thousand spectators saw the Quakers conquer the Indians for the first time in four years, finish their first season without a defeat in 16 years and strengthen their claim to the mythical football championship of the east.

Outrushed by the powerful big red team which registered seven first downs at straight football to one for the Quakers in a final fight to reach last position, Pennsylvania achieved her victory solely through an overhead drive which was supplemented by all-round alertness and brilliant generalship.

AGGIES LOSE HARD BATTLE

LINCOLN, Neb. (By the Associated Press)—Scoring two touchdowns in the final quarter Thursday afternoon, the University of Nebraska Cornhuskers defeated the Oregon Aggie before a large crowd here, 14 to 0.

The Aggie outplayed the Cornhusker throughout the first half, the Nebraska team failing to make a first down and Tebb's lengthy punts keeping the ball constantly in Nebraska territory.

In the closing half Nebraska's back field paced off 12 first downs, halfback Lodge raced through broken fields for 42 and 24 yards and Bloodgood contributed some brilliant open field runs.

Nebraska threatened to score in the third quarter when Locke slipped through the forward wall and side-stepped Aggie tackle to the Aggie 18-yard line. The Huskers lacked the punch to carry the ball on straight football and the Oregon team took the ball when a Nebraska pass was grounded in the end zone.

Tebb punted out of danger, but early in the fourth quarter Locke broke legs with another long run of 24 yards to Oregon Aggie 10-yard line. Rhodes carried for four yards and Locke punched the ball across on a sweeping end run.

Bloodgood's 23-yard run through a broken field brought the ball again into Aggie territory late in the closing period. Bloodgood forward pass to Collins for a 25-yard gain and a second pass, Locke to Bloodgood, scored a touchdown.

Richmerick, Oregon Aggie back, attempted two place kicks but both fell short of the mark. Schilling, back and Snyder headed the Aggie

PITTSBURGH WINS FROM PENN STATE THURSDAY

PIITTSBURGH, (AP)—A roaring lion met a snarling panther on Ketch field Thursday and despite the fact that the king of lions drew first blood, the University of Pittsburgh football eleven, beat Penn State, their old rivals home carrying the small end of a 24 to 3 score.

At times it seemed to the throng of spectators that packed the field that Pitt was getting the breaks of the game, but as the contest wore on, it was plain that the Panther had come out of his secret training place in the woods in perfect fighting condition and was outpacing the Lion that had been picked by most experts to win the contest.

Penn State missed virtually its only chance to put over a touchdown in the first period when Pitt had the ball on their own 20-yard line.

Johnson, Pitt's center, made a wild pass and the ball landed on Pitt's one yard line but was recovered by Pitt. State was unable to hold and the ball was on Pitt's 20 yard line before they recovered it and Prevas's toe came to the rescue for a field goal and the only tally they could score.

Pitt caught its stride in the second period when Gustafson sidled over the slippery field to within one yard of the State's goal line and then added the necessary punch to carry the ball over.

In the third period Gustafson again went over the line after a series of plunges and end runs and the second touchdown in the quarter was the outcome of a perfectly executed pass from Brown to Harding.

Pitt's fourth and last touchdown came in the last quarter when Metcosh took the ball around right end. Gustafson, who was sent in for Kifer to do the kicking, failed in all four attempts to kick goal and made two futile boots at the ball for field goals.

The field was slippery after a light rain and fumbles by both teams were numerous.

UTAH U. AND AGGIES PLAY TIE AT SALT LAKE

SALT LAKE (AP)—The University of Utah and the Utah Agricultural college wound up their 1924 conference schedule here Thursday by playing a 7 to 7 tie.

Both teams were made in the final period, Knight's Aggie's halfback, and leading scorer of the Rocky Mountain conference, scored for his team by making a 45-yard run from scrimmage. He kicked his own goal. Livingston, Utah half, seven minutes later, received a punt on his 30-yard line and raced through a broken field for a touchdown. Tauter booted the ball for the seventh and tying point.

Utah university has won two conference games, lost two and tied one. The Aggies have lost two, won three and tied one.

When Grandfather Was A Little Boy

EVERY fall there would come a day when his mother would say to his father, "John, it's time to see about the children's shoes."

Shoes were matters to reckon with in great-grandfather's family. As in many other families of the countryside, calves had to be killed and skinned. The skins were taken to a tannery across the river, and in due time young John would set off with the leather to the cobbler to have his measure taken.

Old Sam, the cobbler, was a friend of the family. They knew him. They knew his work. They knew the quality of the leather they had furnished him. They could have estimated pretty accurately the time young John's shoes would wear him.

Those days are gone forever. No longer do you know personally the makers of your shoes. Your clothing, your food, your furniture, your household utilities are produced by men and women you will never see.

That element of confidence, however, which in former days came from personal contact of neighbor with neighbor and friend with friend is still present.

Nowadays, advertising is the bond between manufacturer and consumer; between merchant and patron.

Through advertising, maker and dealer build with you their reputations.

Through advertising, they make a bid for your friendship. To them, your friendship is essential, and to assure it, they see to it that their goods are as advertised.

By reading advertisements, you KNOW where and what you can buy with confidence.

IN BUYING ADVERTISED GOODS THE ELEMENT OF RISK IS REMOVED
