Crinolines of Grandmother's Day Revived.

Norma Talmadge, in her current First National picture, "Secrets," now showing at the Arcade Theatre, wears the tight-fitting, wasp-waisted gowns which were in vogue sixty and seventy years ago. She decidedly is not in favor of them.

"Women of Today Have Much to Be Thankful For."

"Women of today have much to be thankful for," says Norma. "Our grandmothers were very sensible women in most things, but I am afraid that the society belles of other days must have pined themselves unmercifully in order to achieve the wavy waist effects which were in vogue in those times. "And how they endured the wire hoops and the heavy materials in their crinolines I cannot understand. Crinolines must have been a terrible nuisance for they catch on nails and every projection within range.

"After wearing half a dozen kinds of crinoline gowns in 'Secrets,' the women who appear in the old illustrations in Harper's Weekly of the '50s and '60s seem like old friends. The average gown in a bungalow would hold just about two and a half women today if they wore the crinolines of 1860. And I should imagine that a hundred women would fill any ballroom almost to suffocation.

"Secrets," starring Norma Talmadge, is her greatest picture. In this Joseph M. Schreck production Norma plays four roles, that of a girl, a young mother, a middle-aged matron and an aged woman. The picture is cast in four periods, 1922, 1888, 1870 and 1865, and the action takes place both in the far West and in modern society settings. In all four periods Norma displays a remarkable range of characterization.

Frank Borzage, of "Humoresque" fame, directed "Secrets," with the veteran Gaetano Gandio as his cameraman.

"Hold Your Breath" Showing at Sherrys Theater.

Thrilling action spaced with packs of laughs—that's "Hold Your Breath," the first of the Al Christie feature productions, which comes to the Sherry theatre. Those who have seen Christie's short farces and comedies in the past know what to expect, for in this full-length production, the Christie organization has followed the style which it pursued in its two-reel films; that is, telling a logical story and heightening it up with funny situations.

"Hold Your Breath" has an all-star comedy cast headed by Dorothy Devore who is called upon to display her talents in many dangerous situations. While she dances from hazardous heights and risks her fair neck in a hundred different ways, she manages to inject large quantities of humor into her role.

Playing opposite Miss Devore is Jovial Walter Hiers, known to be as content as he is competent. Walter plays the role of Dorothy's fiancé who, being too fat to climb and rescue her from her difficulties on a high building, calls in the fire department and assembles a load of hay, a ton of mattresses and other necessities to get her out of her predicament.

Tully Marshall, who has been seen in countless serious roles in comprehensive study of conditions throughout the furniture advertising field to prove its practicality.

The code consists of two rules which set forth that, in advertising furniture in which exposed surfaces are of one wood shall be designated by the name of that wood, and where the exposed surfaces are of more than one wood, the principal wood used shall designate the furniture.

"Leatherstocking" Matinee Saturday Afternoon.

Episode Seven

Leatherstocking, the valiant hero portrayed by Harold Miller in "Leatherstocking," the Pathosocial is the Huron's prisoner in episode seven, "Riveroak's Revenge," at Sherry, Saturday only. Paring the Indians will accept the ivory elephants as ransom for Leatherstocking. Hurry Harry commits another act of treachery and Leatherstocking is doomed to death. However, he is tortured by being forced to look on while the Huron's attack Muskrat Castle. What is to be the fate of Judith Hutter, the girl he loves?

Department Stores Adopt Furniture Advertising Code

NEW YORK (AP).—The board of directors of the National Dry Goods association has adopted a code for the truthful advertising of furniture, according to Lew Hahn, managing director of the association.

The code is in accordance with the "Name the Woods" campaign carried on by the national vigilance committee of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, Mr. Hahn said. The same code has been put in effect by the Furniture Manufacturers' association of Grand Rapids, Mich.

New Way to Stop Night Coughing

Those who have suffered the tortures of sleeplessness due to continual coughing at night, and who as a result often feel utterly worn-out and useless during the day, need no longer permit their systems to be weakened and their vitality sapped by this distressing ailment. For through a very simple treatment the trouble can be stopped almost at once, and people often get their full night's rest undisturbed after the very first trial.

Here is the method: Simply get a bottle of the prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery from any good drug store. Then, to-night before retiring take one teaspoonful and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing. This prescription has a unique action. It not only soothes and lessens the soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which is the real cause of the cough. So your throat is left wonderfully moist and cleared of irritating substances, you can sleep soundly and restfully, and the cough is usually gone in a very short time.

Dr. King's New Discovery is a remarkable remedy for coughs, chest colds, hoarseness, sore throat, spasmodic croup, bronchitis, laryngitis and bronchial asthma. At all good druggists. Ask for
