Berlin Fruit Dealers Await Apples from United States

BERLIN. (AP)—Enemy apples in the first-class shops have been selling here this fall as high as 20 cents each. They are from France, without blemishes, and apparently raised with great care.

American apples, chiefly from the Pacific northwest, were retailed here a year ago in great quantities, but as yet none has appeared this season. Dealers say the American apples will be along for the holidays and the choicest ones will probably sell for 10 or 15 cents apiece. Ordinarily apples, however, German-grown, may be purchased from the push-cart dealers in the streets for from 10 to 15 cents a pound.

A picture great in every way—that's "Miami," the Alan Crosland production now playing at the Sherry theatre. Society pictures are no doubt the most popular with movie audiences and when they are like "Miami" it is easy to understand why.

In the first place John Lynch has written an excellent story with novel situations. Although Miami Beach has figured slightly in many pictures, we believe this is the first time an entire photoplay is laid in the famous resort.

The story is about the wealthy society set in general and about Joan Bruce in particular. Joan is an ultra-modern girl who almost loses the man she loves through her dining card policy. She is excellently portrayed by Betty Compson who is as able and alluring as ever. She is seen at her best in this one. She certainly can wear clothes.

Miss Compson's supporting cast is unusually good. Benjamin Pinney Jr., a newcomer on the screen, is her leading man. Mr. Pinney acts as if he had been acting before the lights all his life. Hilda Hopper, J. Barney Sherry, Lawford Davidson and Lucy Fox also have important parts in which they do some very good work.

The production has been made on a lavish scale. But the beauty is not merely confined to palatial homes, yachts, gambling saloons, and the like. The picture is a study in the various social parasites. All the sports for which the famous resort is famous figure prominently in the picture.

Alan Crosland can stick another feather in his cap for his direction of "Miami." Here's a picture that has everything—and a little bit more. It's one you can't afford to miss.

"Comedy, 'Never Again.'"

There Is Only One Pola Negri Says Her Director.

Note: Ernst Lubitsch, director of "Pension," "The Marriage Circle," etc., gives this answer in response to the query which he has heard more frequently than ever since he and Miss Negri were brought at the Paramount West Coast studio to make "Forbidden Paradise," which comes to the Arcade theatre for a three days' run today.

"There is only one Pola Negri. I have always said so and my conviction has become stronger since completing 'Forbidden Paradise.' It was the first time we worked together since the days in Europe when we began making pictures.

All her gestures, her walk, her very presence, even fraught with everything she does, have a meaning and a dramatic value. This quality constitutes Pola's peculiar genius for the screen and enables her to cover all ranges of dramatic expression with a minimum of mimetic gestures.

Pola has a wonderful gift of humor. In addition she is a woman who has studied life and who, as a result, has acquired a sense of proportion. Whether she is the vampire or the heroine, she is never all black or all white. She is that subtle mixture of light and shadow which is truly human.

When Pola plays the role of a woman whose wiles ensnare, she does not give one of those stock-in-trade seductions, crude and stereotyped.

Pola Negri cannot do anything without giving her movements a deeper meaning than the same gesture performed by anyone else. Even her most casual gesture carries with it a suggestion of some profound emotion.

With Pola a little goes a long way. She does not have to over-act to make a scene effective.

In real life one does not see people express their feelings through exaggerated gestures, rolling eyes or waving arms. People rather repress than express. The only visible sign they give is a twitching of the lip, a frowning of an eyelid. A great actress is one who can do these things as they are in real life and make them mean much. Pola has this gift.

Lawmakers Get Poor Pay.
BERLIN. (AP)—Being a member of the German reichstag, or parliament, is not a very lucrative position. The delegates are paid $110 a month, which is one quarter the salary of cabinet ministers.

But the German parliamentarian enjoys free railroad travel throughout the republic in a first-class compartment.

Airplanes Carry Freight From Sweden to Finland
STOCKHOLM. (AP)—A regular commercial express and freight service by air to neighboring countries is the latest development in the use of airplanes here. The freight service has actually started over the line between Stockholm and Helsinki, Finland, and this augments the air traffic between those two countries, which has hitherto been limited to passengers and mail. The distance to Helsinki is about 240 miles across the Baltic Sea, a good day's run for a small steamer. The pendage until ly of her shipmen was demonstrated by the fact that the first cargo carried was a ton of medical supplies which were delivered in Helsinki in three hours after being taken on board here.
