

NEWS of SOCIETY

On Tuesday afternoon the Neighborhood club enjoyed a program of exceptional merit. Mrs. Robert Eakin was in charge and spoke on "David Bolneso and His Influence on American Drama." The subject was brought to the club by a most interesting and comprehensive paper on the noted playwright, whose success both as a dramatist and a teacher have been most important.

The dramatization of "Madam Butterfly" staged under the direction of Mrs. Donald Paige, was another proof of her ability as a director of plays. The leading role "Madam Butterfly" was taken by Mrs. Lester Stoddard, who showed remarkable ability in her interpretation of that character. "Suzuki" the maid, was carried by Mrs. Lynn Wright, and her excellent training in dramatic art was apparent in the role. The male characters in the play were cleverly represented as follows: Sharpless, the American Consul, by Mrs. Lee Warnick; Yamadori, by Mrs. Dick Claycomb; Mikudo, by Mrs. L. H. Russell and Lieutenant Pinkerton by Mrs. Lowell Williamson. Mrs. Houston as Mrs. Pinkerton was a typical American girl and carried her part respectably well. Little Ann Stoddard as "Trouble" was most attractive and apparently innocent of the tragedy that had taken place in the lives of those about her.

The play showed careful practice by trained participants and was thoroughly enjoyed by those who were fortunate enough to be in attendance.

Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Mossman entertained a few friends at 7 o'clock dinner last evening at their home on Spring street. An exceptionally pleasant evening was enjoyed by the guests. Following the dinner they visited until about 11 o'clock enjoying the hospitality of the Mossman home, which is always a pleasure.

J. J. Elliott, of Portland, who is visiting here with his mother at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hill, was the guest of honor at a dinner party last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Watkins. Exquisite refreshments served as a beautiful centerpiece for the dining table and a delicious dinner was served.

Following dinner bridge was the main feature of the evening.

Mrs. Elmer Rose, assisted by Mrs. Ray Brown and Mrs. George Old, delightfully entertained the B. G. club last evening at the former's home on Adams avenue. The regular part of the evening was held at cards with Nolan Skiff and Mrs. Blake Shields winning high honors and the consolation prize going to Mrs. William Hickey and Roy Cameron.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses before adjournment.

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen met last evening at Eagles hall and the

Black Panne Velvet

There's a classic simplicity and a hint of sophistication, too about this dinner gown of black panne velvet. The drapery is complicated by any other form of trimming and the very wide neck line is one of its distinctly new touches. The back hangs absolutely straight.

Following officers were elected: President, Grace Adkins; past pres., Marie Embury; vice-president, Nora Courtney; secretary, Blanche McGeary; treasurer, Evelyn Fowler; chaplain, Hanna Woods; conductress, Clara Kreutz; warden, Hazel Conghenover; inner guard, Margaret Arnett; outer guard, Ada Pideck and musician, Ethel Mann. Grace Adkins was elected as delegate to the Grand Lodge at Cleveland, Ohio, in May, and Anna Warner was elected an alternate. A large amount of Christmas gifts and candy was sent to the ladies' home at Glencoe, Illinois.

After adjournment the ladies were joined in the dining room by members of the B. of E. T., and a delicious luncheon was enjoyed, served by Mrs. Kreutz, Mrs. Arnett, Mrs. Watta, Mrs. Jennings, Mrs. Conghenover and Mrs. Woods.

The first Junior dancing party of the season will be held at the Country club Friday evening, December 12. Mrs. Kitchen, chairman, and committee in charge, consisting of Mrs. G. L. Larson, Mrs. Harry D. Smith, Mrs. A. J. Stange and Mrs. H. N. Ashby are making every effort to make this opening party the best of the year.

Backache Is a Warning!
La Grande Folks Are Learning How to Heed It.

Are you miserable with an aching back? Do you get up lame and stiff; drag through the day feeling tired, weak, and depressed? Then you should help your kidneys. Backache is often the first sign of falling kidneys. Kidney troubles quickly follow. Neglected, there's danger of gravel, dropsy or fatal Bright's disease. Don't wait for serious kidney sickness! Use Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys, before it is too late. This La Grande resident tells an experience:

"Mrs. George Strain, 4418 Monroe avenue, says: 'I have found Doan's Pills are good remedy for attacks of kidney trouble. My back was weak and lame and I felt dull and miserable. My kidneys acted irregularly, too. Doan's Pills gave me relief from these ailments.'"

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the name that Mrs. Strain had. Foster-McBirney Co., Mrs. Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

GRANDPAP.
Grandpap's gone,
Death called him home,
We'll miss him much,
He was a grand old man.

Yet we must not grieve,
For long he lived with us
In health and strength,
God is just.

He left for us a lesson
To think about and heed,
Be upright,
Grandpap sowed the seed.

Let it grow within us
Deep down in our hearts,
Live a life of right,
Grandpap did his part.

—Mrs. Estlin Baker.

Editor's Note.—This is an eulogy to Thomas Stephenson, who recently passed away and who was a pioneer of the Grande Ronde valley.

Hunt's Letter

gina, though Gore never had laid any political fence, he had built a hog-tight corral into which to round up a personal following of West Virginia farm folks, old and young.

He had for years been a booster for and worker in the boys' and girls' farm clubs.

He was an expert judge of live stock, and at county and state fairs had handed out red, white and blue ribbons to hundreds of proud exhibitors.

He had stimulated state pride in agricultural achievement by hitting the top of the New York market each year with his fatted lambs, and by turning out annually 1200 head or so of fat Hereford steers for the English market.

When the votes were counted it was found Gore's farmer friends had put "The Lone Wolf" over the top for the nomination, and on Nov. 4 they turned the trick again and elected him.

Whereupon his nickname was changed overnight to "The Miracle Man."

A stocky, round-headed, smooth-faced man of 46, Gore looks just like the sort of "common-sense" individual Coolidge would prefer at the head of the Department of Agriculture.

That he can apply common sense, his friends say, was demonstrated some years ago when he was preparing to buy several hundred additional head of steers for fattening.

His mother, with whom he lives in Charlesburg, his wife being dead, remarked at the increasing numbers of jobless men applying at the kitchen door for a "handout."

Gore put two and two together and got the right answer.

Increasing numbers of jobless men meant a decreasing market for fancy beefsteaks.

If the market was going off, there'd be no money in buying cattle to feed. So he didn't buy.

And the slump in the market that soon followed didn't catch him long on high-priced steers.

DRESDEN, (AP)—To cheer the downtrodden, a series of free symphony concerts has been given to the unemployed of this city by the League for Musical Culture. The attendance was overwhelming, and the interest of the audience keen, especially when the management provided musical experts as speakers who, previous to each performance, sketched the life of the composer and explained in simple language the underlying musical ideas of the opus.
