La Grande Theatres

"First Year" Is Record Breaker As Comedy.

The popularity of "The First Year," which will be the attraction at the Arcade theatre on Tuesday evening, Dec. 9, is easily understood. Frank Craven has written a play so close to human nature that every one who sits through the performance comes away with a warmer sympathy for his fellow man, a kinder point of view towards feelings and fallings, and a generally better outlook on life.

New York critics agreed during the run of the play at the Little Theatre, that "The First Year" was better than a sermon and funnier than a circus.

The production, under the management of John Golden, famous producer of clean comedies, whose "Lightnin'" was one of the outstanding hits of last season. Knowing that audiences have become fed up with bedroom farces and pajama comedies, Theatrical Enterprises Limited turned to Mr. Golden, world's champion producer of clean plays, for their first production, enjoying the producing field in a "time" when the stage was glutted with adaptations of risqué farces, mostly of French origin. Mr. Golden defied the pessimistic tradition of the theatrical wisecracker by presenting "Turn to the Right," which he brought to Broadway entirely at his own expense and chalked up a record-breaking run.

Following in that play came "Three Wise Men," "Lightnin'," "Thank U" and "The First Year," all of which have been astounding hits. "The First Year," breaking all records for an American comedy, the former record being that of the 557 performances held by Hoyt's "A Trip to Chinatown," for a quarter of a century. Reserved seats are now on sale at Glass Drug.

Last Showing of "The Tenth Woman" At Sherrys Tonight.

One of the most brilliant casts ever assembled in the screen version of the popular novel by Harriet T. Comstock, "The Tenth Woman," June Marlowe, the youngest and most beautiful screen star discovered in recent years, and Beverly Bayne, who is starring in her second production since her return to the screen, are taking the leading feminine roles. John Roche, who recently appeared in "Her Magnificent Obsession" and "Come Along with the Winner" takes the leading male role. Others in the cast are Raymond McKee, Charles "Buddy" Post, Gilbert Holmes, Alec Francis and Edith York.

Willa Brooker is saved from suicide by Harry Compton who takes her to his ranch where she remains as his housekeeper. On a trip east Harry, mounted on his heart, Rose Anne Brainerd, a married flapper. Because of Rose Anne's mad cap ways, she and her husband quarrel continually. Peeved because he will not go wherever she wishes, she goes off on parties with Harry without him. Finally Rose Anne, in a spirit of revolt, leaves her husband and goes to Harry's ranch to await his coming. Willa thinks Rose Anne is Harry's sweet heart, and when he returns, she decides to go away. Harry learns that Rose Anne is repentant, and finds out at the same time that Willa has gone.

Japanese Spokesman Plans To Present Case in America

TOKIO (AP)—Kotaro Mochizuki, Kansai member of parliament and one of the legislators most actively interested in relations with the United States, has announced that he will leave for America shortly for an extended speaking tour. He says he hopes to speak in every state in the union, presenting Japan's case in the immigration question.

Wives are often paid for on the installment plan in southeast Africa, and always in the United States.

Glorious Hair—In 90 Days or Money Back

Women who wish to stimulate the growth of their hair should use Van Ess Liquid Scalp Massage. A glorious head of strong vigorous hair surely follows its consistent use, and consistent use is easy because Van Ess comes fitted with a patent rubber applicator that feeds the medicament directly to the roots of the hair, eliminating messy massaging with the fingers. And the flexible tip of the applicator brings a healthy circulation of blood to feed the hair roots. Try your Van Ess on 90-day treatment plan. Money back if it fails.

Rudolph's "Sainted Devil" at Arcade Today.

Rudolph Valentino's second Famous-Forty Paramount production "A Sainted Devil," with Helen PANK, dark-eyed Spanish beauty; Nita Nash, Louise Lagrange, Darnay Godowsky and others equally as prominent, will be shown at the Arcade theatre today.

Valentino as a young man of the world, living in South America, having been educated in Paris is betrothed to a girl raised in a convent and whom he has never seen. It is a case of love at first sight for both, and then the happy day arrives only to have her—But it would be spoiling everything to say more.

It's a great picture, "A Sainted Devil"—Valentino's ideal role, a Rex Beach story, directed by the man who made "The Stranger," Joseph Henabery.

You just can't afford to miss this picture. And if you're a real Valentino admirer, you won't.

Group of Californians Sought To Lease Alaska From Russia

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—Information that the government purchase of Alaska in 1867 was completed only after a San Francisco, Calif., company had been offered a lease of the territory, has been revealed in an interview with the late Cornelius Cole, former United States senator, according to Prof. Edmond S. Meany of the University of Washington.

Professor Meany said the interview was obtained last year by Victor Ferrar, a former member of Washington faculty. The purchase was made as an alternative to the lease. Mr. Cole told Mr. Ferrar that in March, 1867, he negotiated with Baron Stoeckl, minister plenipotentiary of the Russian government for the lease of Alaska by the San Francisco company.

Life Counted Worthless Without Favorite Horse

BERNE, Switzerland (AP)—A man's affection for his horse ended in his death recently in the little village of Bomplere, in Vaud canton. Jean Touthory, a great sportsman and particularly fond of his mount, had to shoot the animal to put an end to its suffering from disease. Jean went immediately to his bedroom and, with the same pistol, shot and killed himself.

The big-saw puzzle, in six letters, is becoming more popular, proving the fur is not up.
