

NEWS of SOCIETY

Mrs. Lucy Stanchfield assisted by Mrs. J. D. McKennon, delightfully entertained Chapter I. P. E. O. at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. J. Lottis, yesterday afternoon, December 5. This was the regular meeting of the Chapter and after the business session Mrs. E. P. Mossman took charge of the program, which she handled in a splendid manner. She touched lightly on some phases of the Nobel Prize and reviewed the life of Feina Lagerlof, born in Sweden in 1854 and still living. Her latest book is just off the press. Feina Lagerlof as a child was delicate and crippled, with a vivid imagination. She has achieved world wide fame as an authoress, being the only woman who was ever awarded the Nobel prize for literature. Mrs. Mossman, in her usual charming style, reviewed three books written by this famous authoress, "The Wonderful Adventure of Mikal," "Jerusalem," and "The Saga of Gosta Berling." The last book deals with the fact that the vital forces of life are love and work. At the close of the program daily refreshments were served by the charming hostess.

Members of La Grande's younger set had a good time last evening when the Country Club committee, in charge of the exterior decoration of the club house, consisting of Mrs. A. J. Richardson, chairman, Mrs. Bruce Dennis, Mrs. W. C. Perkins, Mrs. Ray Murphy, Mrs. John Theisen and Mrs. W. H. Bohanekamp, Jr., gave a dance at the club for them. A large number of young people were present and a very enjoyable evening was spent dancing with music furnished by Olson's orchestra. During the evening punch was served. The proceeds from the dance are to be used in paying for the painting of the club house.

Members of the Alpha Club enjoyed a delightful time last evening when Mr. and Mrs. Walter Letsman entertained the club at their home on O Avenue. Four tables of bridge were at play for the ladies going to Mrs. Chas Reynolds and the gentlemen's prize to Dr. Verne Johnson. Luncheon was served by the charming young hostess at the close of the game.

Mrs. Albert Curry yesterday afternoon entertained the Junior Bridge club at her home on Spring street. Beautiful autumn flowers were attractively arranged in the living room and during the afternoon's play Miss Carolyn Rosenthal won high score and the consolation prize went to Mrs. Ray Rigger. Before the afternoon was brought to a close a dainty two course luncheon was served. Mrs. R. E. Westenhaver was a guest of the club for the afternoon.

The Parent-Teachers Association of the Willow School met yesterday afternoon at the school for their regular monthly meeting and the following excellent program was given: Song "America" by all present; two songs by Mrs. Bonnell's room, the last one being a Rally song; a talk by Senator Bruce Dennis; reading by Cora Shankis and a talk by Superintendent A. C. Hampton. After the program delicious refreshments were served and the

THE decorative quality of printed silks is demonstrated by this Parisian frock designed by Yvete, the famous designer. It is a black and white model of decidedly Spanish feeling, with a heavily fringed skirt and wide-brimmed hat.

The men's Bible Class, officers and teachers of the Christian Sunday School had a very enjoyable time last evening when the Loyal Women's Class of the school gave a party in their honor. Approximately 50 people were present and the time was pleasantly spent at various games, after which refreshments were served.

Members of the Happy Home Club were entertained at the home of Mrs. W. C. Ferrell, 1004 Twelfth Street. All members of the club but two were present, with three visitors, Mrs. Carl Cook, Mrs. Clarence Waldrop and Mrs. McGean. At the end of a pleasant afternoon a delightful luncheon was served.

Victor Depinto, Portland violinist, has returned from a tour of the Orient. Depinto was violinist and conductor of the orchestra on the Oriental passenger liner President Grant, and also appeared as soloist in concert in Japan and the Philippines. At Kobe he was soloist at a function given in honor of members of the American shipping board. Manila, Mr. Depinto found, has the largest cabaret in the world, the St. Ana cabaret, and it has an enormous patronage. It was in Shanghai when the warring factions were fighting within 20 miles of the city, but no one seemed to feel alarmed and business went on as usual. Depinto has a number of concert dates booked for different parts in the Pacific Northwest.—Portland Journal.

Tuesday, December 9, the Young Women's Educational Auxiliary will meet for its regular monthly program in the basement of the Methodist church. Featuring a stunt program the committee especially requests that all members be present promptly at eight o'clock. The committee in charge of "Stunt" night is composed of Mima Cooper, chairman, Vera Wattenburg, Mae Stearns, Mrs. C. P. Putnam, Mrs. Allen Wright, and Mrs. Floyd McKennon.

Announcements Social announcements may be printed in this column free of charge. Any announcements pertaining to any functions such as cooked food sales, etc., will be refused. Announcements to be printed the same day, must be in society editor's hands by 9:00 o'clock.—News editor's note.

Mrs. Dwight Jessu will be hostess at the Monday Bridge Club Monday afternoon, December 8.

The Alpha club has adjourned until after the Christmas holidays. Invitations are out for a luncheon to be given by Mrs. Norman Preece Tuesday afternoon, December 9.

Mrs. Lee Hanford will be hostess to the Thursday Bridge Club Tuesday afternoon, December 9.

The sons of veterans will meet Monday evening at the I. O. O. F. Hall at 7:30 o'clock. Officers will be elected at this meeting.

Railway Investigation Ordered SALEM, Ore.—The public service commission authorized an investigation of operating expenses and revenues affecting all major railroads in Oregon operating interstate. Members of the commission said that several months probably would be required to complete this investigation.

CHURCH NEWS

CHRISTIAN CHURCH—We have enjoyed the Evangelistic Meetings, especially the privilege of working as a part of the full Christian Forge of the City. These meetings have had a fine influence on the individual congregations, as seen in the increased attendance of the past two Sundays. This gain we must hold and increase over it. You will be at Bible School and Church tomorrow that "Nothing is lost." Preaching services at seven and seven thirty. Come to the morning service, but don't miss the evening hour. Bible School at nine thirty. Junior and Senior 7:30 at six thirty.—O. W. Jones, minister.

M. E. CHURCH SOUTH—North Fir and I Avenue, 9:45 a. m. Sunday School, W. A. Egan, superintendent. Classes for all ages, 11 a. m. Preaching by the pastor. Subject: The Church, Its Origin and Place.

THE GRAYSTONE CHURCH—Fourth and O. Holy Communion, 8:30. Sunday School, 9:45. Morning Service 11:00. The reader of this notice is welcome.—Rev. S. W. Crasey

ZION ENGLISH LUTHERAN CHURCH—M. Avenue, opposite High School. Bible School 9:45 a. m. Morning worship 11:00 a. m. Sermon, "Christ Knocking at the Door." Luther League Devotions, Mrs. Sillinger, leader.—Wm. F. Hill, pastor.

WESTERN METHODIST CHURCH—M. Avenue, opposite High School. Bible School 9:45 a. m. Morning worship 11:00 a. m. Sermon, "The Shall Feed His Flock" by Harker and Andrew Loney will render a cornet solo. The message of the morning will touch a most vital theme. You will want to invite others to this opportunity and join with the congregation in their worship of the Eternal Father. The Sunday School at 9:45, the Christian Endeavor at 6:15 and the continuation of the study book "Of One Blood" at 7:30. The community Bible class on Tuesday evening at 7:30 and the Missionary society meeting on Friday afternoon at 2:30. May the Christmas spirit enter our lives with real appreciation.—Wm. Crosby Ross, Minister.

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH—"Christ's Doctrine of Man" will be the subject of the Pastor's Sermon at the 11:00 o'clock hour of worship tomorrow morning. In the Evening at Five the Winter Vesper Hour service of Worship will begin. There will be no service at 7:30 p. m. when the vesper hour is observed, which will be for the next three months. The First Half of the 5 o'clock hour will be taken in the showing of pictures of The Grand Canyon tomorrow evening. The Stereopticon slides to be used by the pastor are the latest and best that can be made and are all colored. If you have never been to the Grand Canyon, or if you contemplate a trip soon, you will enjoy these slides. Stay at home and take a trip to Grand Canyon. The subject of the pastor's evening discourse is "When is a man a Hick?" The Church school meets at 9:45 a. m. The Rev. Mr. Pollard of the local Baptist church will address the Men's Forum on "How did we get our Bible?" The Epworth League will hold their devotional meeting at 6:30.

CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE—Our Sunday School is getting a good start and we are expecting a good showing this Sunday. There are many of the people who don't send their children to any Sunday school and we are such a locality that it will be easy for you that live on the north side to attend. It starts at 9:45 a. m. There will be a special treat at the morning preaching service, as the pastor will sing a new song just off the press entitled "Put me off on Hallelujah street." This is great, you must hear it. A good spiritual feed will follow. The evening service will be Evangelistic with special singing and congregational singing. We have sort its independence in one grand, car-bursting blast of discord.

If Coolidge has his way, and just now it is recognized that he has public sentiment behind him, there will be a minimum of new law during the next four years. All proposals for extension of governmental activities will be frowned upon, and many of the present activities rigorously curtailed, both in extent and expense.

To an extent not equaled in recent years the executive would dominate the government, with Congress relegated to a position where its only important function would be enactment of necessary appropriation bills.

As nearly as practicable, the condition recommended by Samuel Vanclain, head of the Baldwin Locomotive Works—the giving of a four-year vacation to Congress—would be brought about.

But such a condition, however satisfactory it might be to business generally and to the public as a whole, would not suit the political needs of leaders in House and Senate who, to perpetuate their influence and power, must keep Congress—and themselves—in the limelight.

To such an extent as they can fit their own game into the program of the president, they are willing to go along with him. But beyond that point they balk.

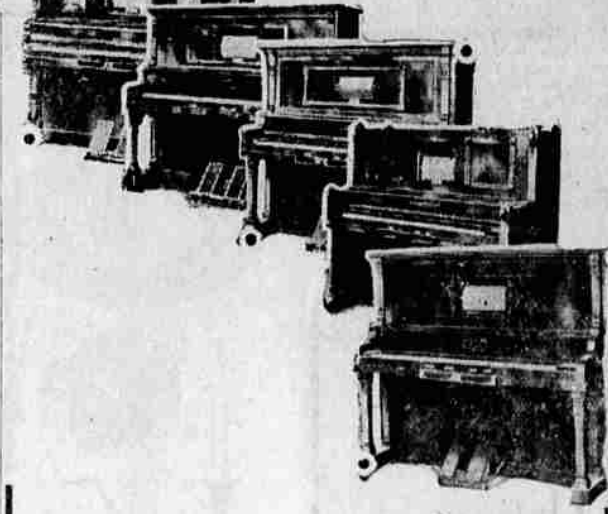

As a result, the real political drama just ahead is to be played within the Republican party itself, not between Republicans and their Democratic or insurgent adversaries.

Against the heavy drama of the Congressional get-away, however, Washington finds relaxation in a gala musical revue being staged by employees of the various departments.

The opening performances fell on the same day as the opening of Congress and, appropriately, was at the President Theater. If nothing else, it proved that all the his-
