

Two Noted "Riders" Meet

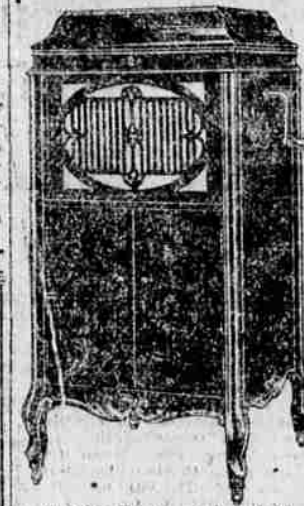

This shows Johnny Evers, the American ball player, talking baseball with Everett Haynes, American jockey, in France. Both are noted riders. No one has ever surpassed Evers in the gentle art of riding unspurred. Haynes was in the States this year, riding Epineard, distinguished French race horse.

"Contentment makes a long life" is more health advice. But many men work themselves to death trying to get contentment.

SPORT NEWS MANY GAMES ON HOLIDAYS

High school football championship games will get under way this week. You may skip the silver goblet (for the prize in controversy) by express, parcel post or freight.

The clipping, also from the Wallawa Sun, thus presents Wallawa's claim for consideration: "The Wallawa football team, not content with winning the eastern Oregon championship, now has a claim to the state championship, according to the directors and the organization. At any rate no other team in Oregon has any better claim to this title. All that is required is some mathematics to make the claim." Wallawa beat La Grande 42-0 (Grand) and Irwinston 10-0 (to 6). This makes Wallawa 12th in the state.

Penleton had an open date Thanksgiving Day and didn't lose a game. But Wallawa didn't want to risk her claim for the East Ore. title by playing Penleton.

And if that is any criterion Wallawa won't risk her "claim" for the state title by playing Hillsboro either.

No, no. Hillsboro might win. Lair Gregory, Oregonian sports editor, has the following to say: "Wallawa, high school in much respect in its claim to the state high school football title. Wallawa high enters the crucial contest for the title with enthusiasm, as the following letters from D. M. Major, editor of the Wallawa Sun, makes clear.

Among the claims for the state title rest on defeating La Grande 12 to 0 early in the season when the Tiger team was at half strength and on other wins from weak teams—Enterprise, Union, Joseph and North Powder.
