La Grande Theatres

One of the finest casts that have ever appeared in a Swanson picture supports Gloria in "Manhandled," her latest Paramount production, directed by Allan Dwan, the man who made "Robin Hood," "Zaza" and "A Society Scoundrel."

Tom Moore, last seen in "The Brother," also made by Mr. Dwan, has the leading man's role opposite the popular star. Moore has the role of an automobile mechanic, who drives a taxi at night. Then there's Frank Morgan, well known stage actor, and Lilyan Tashman, former Ziegfeld Follies beauty, who is in one of the salesgirls in the department store where Gloria, as Trussie McLean, works. Paul McAllister, who played in "You Can't Fool Your Wife" and others, also has a prominent part as has Ian Keith, well known in New York for his work on the legitimate stage. Others in the cast include Frank Allworth, Carole Scott, popular vaudeville comedienne, and Arthur Housman.

Then, as the enterprising exhibitor would say, there's a big extra added attraction—Brooks Johns and Ann Pennington doing their stuff before the camera. There's an attraction in itself. And it's not just a flash of the popular Follies entertainers you get either. They have regular parts in the picture in a house party scene.

"Manhandled" declared by all who have seen it as the best thing Miss Swanson has ever done for the screen comes to the Star theatre Friday to remain until Sunday.

Don't miss it! We just know you won't.

Rare Costumes Shown in "Christine."

Although a story of strictly modern times, no more beautiful collection of costumes has ever graced the screen than those worn in the fancy dress ball in "Christine of the Hungry Heart," the Thomas H. Ince-First National picture now at the Grande Theatre.

Practically every country in the world is represented by costume, while many historical and fictional characters pass before the camera in a panorama of amazing beauty.

Florence Vidor, playing the title role, appears as a Spanish senorita, and that girgy soft-eyed loveliness that one invariably visualizes when the Spanish beauty is mentioned, typifies Miss Vidor's own personality exactly.

Her costume for this scene is not the customary black-lace-and-red-rose combination generally associated as the representative Spanish garb. She wears, instead, an entirely white dress of filmy lace that sets off her dark beauty with a distinction as no color could have done. An ivory comb, an heirloom, supports a mantilla of rarest Spanish lace, and with tiny silver slippers and a huge gauze fan there never was in Spain a fairer Senorita.

Sherrys Showing "By Divine Right" Today Only.

Two great trains coming together in a terrific crash, piling upon one another with a rending of iron and hissing of steam, crashing of timbers and a general holocaust of fire—such as the great thrill scene in "By Divine Right," Elliott Dexter's first Grand-Asher picture, produced by R. William Nell, which comes to the Sherry theatre today only.

This scene is one of the pivotal points in the picture because from this wreck emerges the hero to change places with one of the victims and return under an assumed name to right the wrongs to which he has been subjected.

Never has there been a more effective train wreck in a picture say the producers. It fairly lifts the spectators from their seats and brings out a gasp of astonishment and horror.

The picture also has a great fire scene when a mansion is consumed and these two scenes alone are of sufficient interest to hold anybody's attention. But in addition there is a tense human drama, emotion, love and a conflict of wills, ending in happiness and almost supernatural peace.

Mildred Harris is lending woman and Anders Randolf plays the heavy role.

It is easily Elliott Dexter's masterpiece to date.

Comedy showing, "Don't Park There."

Falls City Auto Stolen.
FALLS CITY, Ore.—A new automobile bearing Oregon license number 193,532 and motor number 10,266,041, was stolen from the old E. P. Brown garage here. It was owned by Robert Shiltz, who purchased it but a few weeks ago and had driven it only about 500 miles. It is supposed that the person or persons who robbed the Falls City mercantile store here the same night stole the automobile as it had a flat tire and the tracks showed that it had been driven from the garage directly to the store.

Every cloud has a silver lining, but every silver lining has its cloud.
