Fashion Notes

New York.—Handy as a pocket square, is an old ewby extension, but it is not more true...

London.—The latest shoes are of pebble leather. A brogue model with a single strap and buckle is popular for country wear.

Zurich.—The one distinguishing feature of the winter sport costumes which will be worn in the Alps this season is that the materials all present an absolutely smooth outside surface to which snow clings will not cling.

Paris.—In chinchilla, has become a favorite for this winter, and these skins are worked in a novel way, which emphasizes a slender silhouette.

HEALTH TOPIC OF PHY'S TALK

TELOCASET (Special)—The basket social given by the Telocaset grange was a splendid success, both socially and financially.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Logola are the proud parents of a baby girl born December 2. The little miss has been named Bernice Beatrice.

George Ackley delivered about two hundred turkeys to La Grande the first of the week.

Lewis Harris has been assigned as helper here. He will relieve H. Stutzinger.

Henry Leaning of Muddy creek, was a Telocaset visitor this week.

W. B. Baxter made a business trip to La Grande the first of the week.

A community Christmas tree is being planned for the children of this community.

Miss Laura Wilson of Baker spent the week end at her home here.

Lars Larson made a business trip to Cove Wednesday.

A golfer survey is to be made in the school here by Dr. W. T. Thy.

Caucasian Japanese Subject Becomes Citizen of America

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Granting of citizenship here recently to a Caucasian native of Japan established what government officers believe to be a precedent.

The applicant, Ricardo Stanicel, a local interpreter, when applying for citizenship papers, stated that he was born in Japan, brought up according to the customs of that country, but that he was of Italian parentage.

After the death of his parents Stanicel said, he was adopted by a Japanese family with whom he lived until 12 years ago, when he entered the United States at San Francisco.

He stated that his wife is half English and half Japanese, but that no Oriental blood flows in his veins.

WALLOWA TAXI DRIVER IS ILL

WALLOWA, Ore. (Special)—Frank Marshall, local taxi driver has been quite sick for the past few days with a slight attack of pneumonia.

George Cussins and Dee Gastin have been busy the past few days hauling wheat to the warehouse here.

L. V. Lathrop of Leap was here the first of the week bringing his little girl to see the doctor.

The following message of sympathy has been passed by Wallowa Grange No. 603:

In the death of Brother James B. Gastin, the grange has lost a good member. It becomes our duty to pay a last tribute of respect to a worthy brother, and our hearts go out to the family in this hour of bereavement.

The community has lost a respected citizen and friend. His cheerful nature and kindly disposition will be missed, but the memory of his life will remain. May all of us seek to profit by his example, and emulate his good qualities. If we do, this he will not have lived in vain.

Gypsy Language in Print First Time in Campaign Document

SOFIA. (AP)—The Gypsy language, which is not regarded as a written tongue, has been put into print for the first time this autumn for political campaign purposes.

It is printed in Slavic characters, but most of the words are unintelligible to a Bulgarian or any other Slavic-speaking person.

An agrarian campaign document, printed in the Gypsy language, points out that the late dictator, Stamboulsky, was anxious to enfranchise the entire Gypsy race, but the Democratic Union prevented the enfranchisement by putting an end to the Stamboulsky regime.

Under the Bulgarian constitution the Gypsies enjoy the same rights of equality that are enjoyed by every other race.

ASHLAND OREGON SHOW

ASHLAND, Ore.—The southern Oregon poultry show and winter fair opened for a four days' session in the local Chautauqua building.

The following message of sympathy has been passed by Wallowa Grange No. 603:

In the death of Brother James B. Gastin, the grange has lost a good member. It becomes our duty to pay a last tribute of respect to a worthy brother, and our hearts go out to the family in this hour of bereavement.
