
Why Not Give Sweaters?

There's always a welcome place in every woman's wardrobe for a New Sweater—and somehow a woman gets all kinds of satisfaction out of a Christmas Gift that she can put right on and wear. There are such stunning new sweater styles here too. Brushed wool coat styles with nipped wool collars. T-necked and youthful slip-ons, all just waiting to decorate some very gay Christmas tree.

SMALLER GRID LEAGUE PLAN

Colleges of Coast Make Tentative Rules for Organization to "Baby Conference."

COLLEGE OF IDAHO — Plans for a new college conference are taking definite shape, according to Prof. Paul Murphy and William McHose, College of Idaho representatives to the meeting of the northwest conference which met in Portland last week-end. They returned to Caldwell Sunday morning. In spite of rumors of a reorganization of the Pacific northwest intercollegiate conference at this meeting, nothing was said or done at the conference meeting that indicated that such was to be the case, they reported. However, the smaller colleges of the northwest did get together while the Pacific coast conference was in session and a move toward the organization of a little northwest conference has been started.

The plan for the smaller conference was taken up at the meetings of the faculty representatives and a temporary organization formed Charter members of the new conference will probably be the smaller college members of the present northwest conference, Whitman, Willamette and Pacific. The skeleton organization will be ratified by the faculties of these institutions and when ratified the secretary of the organization will be instructed to inform other colleges interested.

Rules to Be Same.

The little northwest conference will require the same high standards as the "big northwest" and in fact will probably be the same in practically every detail of organization as the big conference with the exception of membership which will include only smaller colleges such as College of Idaho, College of Puget Sound and Linfield college, beside the charter members. Admission will be granted by the same rules as in the northwest conference.

"College of Idaho representatives were cordially received at the meetings and have every reason to believe that within a short time admission will be granted to the College of Idaho," the Coyote representatives reported.

"Coaches Frank of Pacific, Rathbun of Willamette, McNeal of Puget Sound and Borleske of Whitman are enthusiastic over the new conference idea and have promised their support in putting the thing over."

A tentative schedule with these coast teams was arranged which includes games with Willamette and Pacific again with a possible game with College of Puget Sound in sight.

UTAH QUAIL BEG FOOD

OGDEN (AP)—Flocks of quail have joined the army of unemployed in Ogden and are begging at back doors for food. The residence district in which live most of Ogden's well-to-do citizens, is the one the birds have selected in their lean for handouts because it is nearest the foothills where they are unable to get feed because of the snow. One woman reported Monday she was feeding more than 200 quail each morning, using about four quarts of grain daily besides scraps from the table. The birds have been seen in all sections of the eastern part of the city. Shooting them is prohibited.

TWO WAREHOUSES BURNED

GRAND ISLAND, Neb. (AP) — Fire, believed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion in the Utz-Talbot company warehouse here Monday morning virtually gutted the warehouse containing $200,000 worth of sugar, completely destroyed the adjoining Dolan Fruit company warehouse building and was threatening to destroy the Koehler hotel. The loss thus far is estimated at $750,000 with the flames still unabated.

New Bridge Accepted

GOLD BEACH, Ore.—As a result of a visit to Curry county of C. B. McCullough, chief bridge engineer, and J. S. Sawyer, division bridge engineer, of the state highway department, the new concrete bridge, across Myers Creek, 16 miles south of Gold Beach, has been accepted from the contractors, Montague & Co., Portland. However, the bridge will not be placed in use for a couple of months at least inasmuch as the south approach, being in the proposed Myers Creek-Pistol River stretch, to come up for contract, has not been graded. The contract for the bridge was in the neighborhood of $20,000.
