under the title of "The Ragged Messenger." The photoplay marks the first screen appearance of Naima in two years.

This picture will be the attraction at the Arcade theater on Thursday.

"Range Blood" Showing at Sherrys Today Only.

"Range Blood" an Arrow feature, will be the attraction at Sherrys. It is a different kind of Western, inasmuch as the plot revolves around the fight of one woman against another.

The star, Ed (Two-Faced) Cobb, is the hero of many stirring successes, who cannot be surprised as a real live cowboy, and in this picture he is given a splendid opportunity to display his strength and horsemanship.

The story is laid in the West, and is about a young Kenton whose car runs out of gas and while waiting for someone passing to help him out, decides to write his experiences.

When next the curtain rises, a young woman is struggling, seemingly in vain, against her enemy who owns the adjoining ranch and fights to take her neighbor's property from her.

Jim (Ed Cobb), foreman of the enemy's ranch, comes over on her side and fights for her manfully, to be rewarded in the end by winning her hand.

The picture throughout is thrilling with romance and intense action, and will send any audience home thoroughly pleased.

Comedy showing, "The Lion and the Mouse."

"Ten Commandments" Declared a Movie Masterwork

"The Ten Commandments," which will be presented at the Arcade theater on Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 22 and 23 by Adolph Zukor and Jesse L. Lasky, is the masterwork in moving-picture production of Cecil B. DeMille. It is also the fifth film that he has produced since entering the cinema field. Mr. DeMille brought to his work a thorough knowledge of stage gained through several years of experience as an actor, and also sound theatrical traditions inherited from his father, Henry C. DeMille, the noted playwright. "The Ten Commandments" will be presented here in

HIGHER TARIFF IS URGED
WOODBURN, Ore., Dec. 16.—An interesting farmers' institute under auspices of Woodburn community club, was held in the local armory, was largely attended by farmers during the three days' session. The different subjects were presented by experts from Oregon Agricultural college.

Before final adjournment a resolution was passed placing the institution on record as endorsing a higher tariff on cherries as American growers cannot compete in this fruit with foreign growers shipping to America. Another resolution passed favored completion of the soil survey in Marion county prior to removal of the field workers from the county to another location.
