

NEWS of SOCIETY

Chapter I, P. E. O., met yesterday afternoon for their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. W. L. Bohnenkamp, jr., with Mrs. Bohnenkamp and Mrs. A. L. Ittenborn as hostesses. Miss Wythol Wade had charge of the subject of the afternoon which was one of Carl Spittler's books, "Two Little Misses." Spittler is a Noble prize winner and Miss Wade reviewed his life and work in an excellent manner.

The Bohnenkamp home was beautifully decorated for the occasion with a holiday color scheme of red and green, red carnations and red candles being used profusely. Light refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Among the La Grande girls who are home from college for the holidays are Miss Eleanor Glass and Miss LaNita Gaskin, students of the University of Oregon, who arrived in La Grande this morning. Miss Grace Chaplin, also from U. of O., arrived last night to spend the holidays at home and Miss Constance Deaver will arrive in the morning from the same college to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Cleaver.

Members of the Junior Bridge club spent a pleasant afternoon yesterday when Mrs. Lefroy Knight was hostess to the club. Besides the members one guest was present, Mrs. Allen C. Wright. During the afternoon's play high honors were won by Miss Carolyn Rosenthal and second high score by Mrs. Elmer McManus. At an appropriate hour a delightful two course luncheon was served by the hostess.

The committee in charge of the country club dance to be given Thursday evening, January 1, is as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stoddard, Dr. and Mrs. G. L. Bigger, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kitchen, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stoddard, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Coburn, Mr. and Mrs. Chase Bohnenkamp, Dr. and Mrs. W. P. McAdory, Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Hays, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh E. Brady, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. Colin B. Eberhard, Mrs. Anna M. Pollock, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Fitzgerald.

The newly organized B. Y. P. U. held their first party last evening at the Baptist church with about thirty young people present. In the early part of the evening an excellent program was featured which included the reading of a letter which had been passed at a number of very clever new games. Delicious refreshments were served before adjournment at 10:30 o'clock.

Members of the Associated Girl students of the high school met last evening after school and enjoyed their annual Christmas party. The following program was given: vocal solo, Mrs. Floyd Shorwood; play by several of the girls; dance, Misses June Stange and Gilda Ashby; skit by a number of girls; songs by chorus and songs by the entire group.

After the program the girls were taken to the gymnasium, where games and dancing were enjoyed for some time. At an appropriate hour Santa Claus appeared and presented each girl with a gift and candy.

The Ladies of Mousheart Legion spent a delightful afternoon at the L. O. O. F. hall Thursday afternoon, during the business session officers were elected for the coming year. Those placed in office were Mrs. Don Shanks, Mrs. A. N. Maxville, Mrs. B. Brannon, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Berger, Mrs. Guy Shanks, Mrs. W. Cass, Mrs. Chas. Runyon and Mrs. C. S. Shultz. After the business meeting luncheon was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Lou Crandall and Mrs. Chas. Crandall.

Monmouth. (Special)—The faculty of the Oregon Normal School were entertained at a formal dinner given at the dormitory Wednesday evening, December 17. After dinner music was the feature of the evening.

Announcements
Social announcements may be printed in this column free of charge. Any announcements pertaining to any functions such as cooked food sales, etc., will be refused. Announcements to be printed the same day, must be in society editor's hands by 9:00 o'clock. —News editor's note.

The Junior Bridge club will hold its next meeting Friday, January 2, with Mrs. Dick Lindsay as hostess.

Mrs. Lowell Williamson will be hostess to the Westminister Guild of the Presbyterian church, January 3.

Deputies to Be Retained.
MEPPORD, Ore. — Ralph Jennings, sheriff-elect, announces that when he assumes office January 1, he will retain three members of Terrill's staff as deputies. They are L. H. Fornerook, fingerprint expert; George Howard, in the tax collection department; and Miss Olga Anderson, who will have charge of the office work. No changes have been announced to be made in the personnel of the county clerk's office, the new incumbent of which will be Miss Della Stevens and Bone is likely in the office of the county school superintendent, successor and treasurer, incumbents of which were re-elected. Nor has County Judge-elect Hartzell yet announced any changes.

They say poets are born. Now doesn't that sound like a poet? Trying to dodge the blame.

SAVE RAPIDS FUNDS, PLEASE
FENDELTON, Ore.—Telegrams requesting Senators McNary and Stanford and Representative Shindler to use their efforts to have the unexpended appropriation for investigating the Umatilla rapids project saved so it will not revert to the treasury January have been sent from Pendleton by George C. Baer, secretary. Of the $50,000 set aside by the government for the survey $6000 has not been used.

The reason for the action was that directors of the Umatilla Rapids association were not satisfied with the scope of the government engineers' report. It was announced here.
