Xmas Services Held in Churches Here Sunday

sermon idea by Mr. Jones brought the knowledge of the church members from the incarnation of the Lord.
At the Baptist church a special evening service was held featuring a Christmas sermon "Life's Answer to the Heart." The morning service also was of a Christmas nature.
"Christmas—the Song in the Air," was the title of a beautiful sermon delivered by Reverend Bert A. Powell at the South Methodist church last night.
At the First Methodist church a large audience witnessed the Christmas drama. The theme was "In the Pathway of Christ." and about 25 people assisted in the staging of the drama. The stories of the prophecies leading up to the birth of Christ and the results of His coming was very interesting. Christianity was represented by Mrs. Harold H. Young, who recited, Science, Labor, Womanhood, Childhood, and the Arts, all joining for the betterment of the world.

Mrs. Will Adler was reader in Act I. Mrs. Elmer Grant Keith directed the drama, assisted by Mrs. Vera Wastenburg and Mrs. C. C. Dunlap. Mrs. W. H. Parkinson presided at the piano, and Mrs. Ruth Kinnman at the pipe organ, while Mrs. Sherwood Williams led the music. Miss Mary Lehnert Keith, rendered a violin solo.

The lighting system yielding colored lights was handled by Harold H. Young with a special effect, giving the entire acting group a very beautiful setting.
In the session of the church school at 10 a. m. a large Christmas tree was "planted" in the school assembly room, the primary department rendered a Christmas program and each member of the school was handed a "tree" which was dug out of a manger near the tree.
Many of the churches that did not feature Christmas services yesterday are planning them for Christmas eve.
