Scalper?

Mrs. Maybelle Fuller Douglas is one of the alleged principals in the $200,000 Chicago ticket scalpers' syndicate that went on the rocks. Her husband, Captain Bruce Douglas, was previously arrested by police and released on bonds. Mrs. Douglas was captured in a downtown office building.

COLD KILLS MOTORISTS
ONTARIO, Ore.—One death is the toll of the cold wave which still holds the Snake and Malheur valleys in its grasp. C. B. Turner, whose permanent address has not been learned, died from exposure.

Turner started from Burns in a light automobile for Vale, when his car stalled at Coyote Wells on Cottonwood mountain. Apparently Turner had been drinking for no apparent effort was made to get the machine in operation and he fell asleep. He was found by W. C. Tomlin, a rancher living not far from the Wells, and was taken to Vale. There it was found that both hands and feet were badly frozen. He died the following morning.

One of the funniest things we have ever seen was a sign on a cafe door, "Out to lunch. Back in one hour."

Strange Washington news today—Senator sang a song at a banquet. Let it be "What'll I Do?"

Saves $250,000; Gets $1000

Postmaster General Harry S. New is seen here presenting a check for $1000 to Richard Breiden of Berwyn, Md., in payment for a precanceling stamp device he made. The device, it is estimated, will save the government approximately a quarter of a million dollars annually, but the $1000 is the maximum payment permitted by law.

cards." His father had a long record in the diplomatic service and it is felt that this increases his eligibility.

Robert McCormick, father of the senator, was the first United States ambassador to Austria-Hungary. Later he was ambassador to Russia for three years and served in a similar capacity in Paris, as ambassador to France, from 1905 to 1907.

Gossip in Washington political circles has it that Senator McCormick's chance at an ambassadorship, after his term expires March 4, depends largely on Coolidge's willingness to "forget and forgive."

These stories have it that the Illinois senator was not favorably inclined to the Coolidge candidacy for reelection and that when he was invited to help line up Illinois delegates for Coolidge, prior to the Cleveland convention, he declared that Coolidge could neither be nominated nor elected.

The immediate result of this is declared to have been the support by the Coolidge forces within Illinois, of former Governor Charles S. Deneen, who beat McCormick for the nomination in the primaries and will take his seat with the beginning of the new Congress.

After the Cleveland convention McCormick "saw the error of his way" and campaigned actively for Coolidge's election. And he accompanied the White House party to Chicago the other day. But only time will tell whether he has completed his political rehabilitation in Coolidge's eyes.
