La Grande Theatres

Camouflage Dance In Movie Is New Novelty.

One of the unique features in "Let Not Man Put Asunder," the picture of Basil King's novel, which comes tomorrow to the Arcade theater, for Kathleen Norris delves into all the divorce records she could find, in Reno and elsewhere, before she started the story. Her idea was to show the factors that lead to the average divorce with a possible cure.

Laura La Plante, Norman Kerry, Ruth Clifford, Kenneth Harlan appearing in the production of the novel, which is a story of a woman who is a struggling romance, in which two sisters are pitted against each other for the love of two men in a daring "quadrangle" with an original and peculiar twist to the age-old "triangle" idea.

Laura La Plante's role is one of a Finnish musician with a propensity for flirtation, Ruth Clifford, her sister, a staid business woman, Norman Kerry, enters a Voltaire Russian as against Kenneth Harlan, portraying a hard-headed bridge engineer. Into this combination a maelstrom of emotion breaks, with dire results.

Others in the big cast are Freeman Wood, Cesare Gravina, noted as the clown of "Merry-Go-Round" and the dancing master of "Scratch My Back," Margaret Livingston, she of the perfect form, and "T. Roy Harper."

Clarence Brown directed. He made "The Sign of the Cross," which

Those who have seen the Messrs. Schubert's lovely production of "Blossom Time" are surely going to see it again at the Arcade theater, where it is presented by Messrs. Lee and J. J. Schubert for one night only, Monday, Jan. 19th.

The title of this piece indicates its cheerful qualities. No more aggressive musical piece has been seen in America in years than this charming and diverting Viennese opera. Dorothy Donnelly indicated her splendid capacity as adapter by her re-writing of the original book and supplying a new set of lyrics. In the original this musical play was by J. M. Wilner and H. Kober. The score is made up of music from the melodies of Franz Schubert, new music is by H. Berte of Vienna, and the entire production made under the personal direction of Mr. J. J. Schubert.

The Messrs. Schubert have gone to great lengths to provide a fitting production, for this charming piece, and a singing and acting company of the first quality; the identical company that presented it at the New York Century Theater for over two years.

Reserved seats for this attraction will be placed on sale at the Glass Drug store, Thursday, Jan. 15th. Mail orders will be received now.

"Butterfly" to Open at Arcade Tomorrow.

CLUB WORK TO BE ORGANIZED

COVE. (Special)—Through the efforts of Miss Ethel Quinby, domestic art teacher, the boys and girls club work is being reorganized. Several women, mothers of the club workers, will assist in the instruction. Mrs. H. C. Blank will have charge of the camp cooking for the boys. Mrs. J. E. Mills will have the department of home making for the girls and Mrs. Heathers the rest and sewing sewing divisions. Instructors for other departments have not yet been selected.

had its world premiere in London, and "The Acquittal."

Warner Baxter Featured Opposite Betty Compton.

Warner Baxter, who appeared in support of Betty Compton in the Paramount picture, "The Female," is featured opposite her, same star in the James Cruze production of the Broadway stage success, "The Garden of Weeds," which comes to the Star Theatre today.

Since he left the legitimate stage to cast his fortune with motion pictures, Baxter has been singularly successful and there is no doubt that within a short time he will be one of the most popular leading men on the screen.

"The Garden of Weeds," adapted to the screen by Walter Woods and Anthony Colduwey, deals with the theater's mysterious "back-stage" and with the adventures in love of a beautiful young chorus girl.

It's a great role for Betty, a great triumph for Cruze and great entertainment for everybody.

Dechelle Follows, Charles Ogle and Al St. John are also featured with Baxter in support of the star.
