War Wounds Are Fatal To Speedy Irish Merman

DELFAST (AP) — The death from war wounds of Major George Shannon Dockrell, hailed as Ireland's greatest swimmer, occurred recently. Major Dockrell went as a boy to America, where he met C. M. Daniels, the great American swimmer, whose style he adopted. Although he was only 18 years old, he won third place in three American championships.

On his return to Ireland in 1906 he introduced the crawl stroke, made a clean sweep of all British records for the next six years and was the first Irish swimmer to make the 100 yards in 60 seconds. He was on the British Olympic team in 1912 and frequently represented Ireland at water polo.

Major Dockrell was the son of Sir Maurice and Lady Dockrell of Monkstown, County Dublin.

Apple Tree Thrives 100 Years

VANCOUVER, Wash. (AP). — An apple tree said to have been planted in 1826 by a member of the Hudson's Bay company, is still thriving and bearing fruit. A movement has been started locally to place this tree on the roster of other trees famous in the history of the country.

OTHERS ADVANCE CLAIMS

ALBANY, Ore.—Following a dispatch in which a suit against the Trinity church by heirs of the Edwards estate was revealed, two Albany residents have claimed descent from the family that originally held title to part of the Trinity church property. The local claimants are Mrs. Ella Birchfield and W. T. Edwards.

Both declared they could trace their lineage back to the man who settled on the property now occupied by Trinity church.

PAVING JOBS AWARDED

EUGENE, Ore. — Five paving jobs were awarded by the Eugene city council to local contractors in preference to an outside firm which had the lowest bid on most of the projects. Stein Bros. received the contract for laying the pavement on four jobs and Guy Tyle the contract on another.

The Oregon Contract company of Portland had low bid on four of the jobs.

"For my heart is wrapped about the chubby toes and pink fingers, the sweet eyes and queer buttony noses, the rosebud mouths and dimple chins of all the babies that flower 'cross my path. I know, you see, because they have all been willed to me by the Baby-Who-Could-Not-Stay."

Lillie Isabell, our "Baby-Who-Could-Not-Stay," has gone to that "Land of Far-Away." Her going has left an aching void and loneness, words cannot tell.
