

NEWS of SOCIETY

Among the many parties being given this week honoring St. Valentine's Day was one given last evening at the Presbyterian church by the Bona Amica Sunday school class.

At an appropriate hour refreshments corresponding with the St. Valentine idea were served.

Miss Gweneth Workman and Herman Berger were married here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Anderson on N avenue recently.

Conforming to the spirit of Valentine Day, Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Skiff and Mr. and Mrs. H. Skiff entertained members of the H. B. C. club last evening at the former's home.

One of the most attractive affairs of the week took place last evening at the home of Mrs. J. W. Lytle on G avenue, when a number of friends gave a surprise party in her honor.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. James Moss, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Walsinger, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Walsinger, Mr. and Mrs. F. Paul Wright, Mrs. Jessie Taylor, Mrs. E. S. Norris, Virgil Walsinger, Thomas Walsinger and Clea Walsinger.

The Art Department of the Neighborhood club met yesterday afternoon at two o'clock at the Neighborhood club rooms for their regular meeting.

The next meeting of this department will be held February 26, at which time the class will begin the study of Roman Art.

The Ladies of the Lutheran church met yesterday afternoon in the community room of the church, with Mrs. L. G. Elbert as hostess.

Refreshments were served by the hostess before adjournment.

Cove (Special)—One of the most delightful social events of the week was a party given by Mrs. Clarence Herford Wednesday at ternoon, honoring her mother, Mrs. J. J. Conley, the occasion being her birthday anniversary.

Cove (Special)—Miss Alda Blank was the inspiration for a delightful surprise party recently, the occasion being her birthday anniversary.

Cove (Special)—Mrs. A. G. Conklin entertained a few friends at an informal party at her home Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Norman Fees will be hostess to the Clio club tomorrow afternoon at the Country club.

The ladies of St. Peter's Episcopal church will give a party tomorrow afternoon at Honan hall.

Does it Pay For Women To Be Alert?

Whenever women say they haven't time to read household magazines or listen in to radio talks, it brings to mind the story of the complaining husband.

A mistress said one morning: "My husband complains that the oatmeal is soggy, the coffee cold, the eggs hard-boiled and the toast burnt."

And the maid replied: "Sure you have my sympathy, ma'am. It must be hard to live with a man like that."

"It must be fierce" to live in a household where the homemaker is not interested in learning all she can about her job.

There are countless ways in which one can learn from the odd minutes one spends "listening in" or looking over current magazines.

I know a housewife who always uses white cornmeal in cooking. She doesn't know that spinnach should be cooked without the addition of any water save that clinging to the leaves after washing.

I know another housewife who makes French toast from fresh bread. She doesn't know that dry bread, quickly dipped into the beaten egg produces a far more perfect toast.

Chinese Gradually Taking Control of Tahiti Islands

PAPETE, TAHITI (AP) — It seems to be increasingly evident that the destiny of these islands is to become Chinese in the not distant future.

Which of these two classes do you believe will produce healthier children, better citizens and happier homes?

Which class do you believe find most fun in their "job?"

There isn't any question in the minds of those who have tried it. They know it pays.

Fashion Notes

THE VOGUE FOR COLOR While dark kid will always continue to be the essence of good taste, the new spring shoes show a decided flare for colored kid—not in the bright hues of a season or two ago, but used as narrow bands of trimming. Gray kid with a touch of red has been adopted by one smart Parisienne bootmaker while navy blue kid trimmed in
