

NEWS of SOCIETY

The 25th annual ball, to be held Monday, February 23, an event that is always looked forward to in La Grande, is expected to be one of the most successful social affairs of the season.

The general committee in charge, Harris F. French, Roy Healy, C. W. Gunning and George Meserve, has been diligent in preparation and an excellent program, with H. H. Brady presiding as toastmaster, has been prepared.

The M. I. A. of the L. D. S. church gave a character ball last evening at the amusement hall with a large percentage of La Grande's young people in attendance.

Mrs. Leo F. Miller was hostess to the Junior Bridge club yesterday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. B. Lynch, on First street.

Mrs. Hal Bohnenkamp was hostess to the Missionary society of the Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon when it met for its annual meeting and election of officers.

Mrs. A. S. Anderson and Mrs. I. C. Bowser had charge of the devotional for the afternoon, after which a very interesting program was given, the subject being "Original Americans."

Before adjournment a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. William Miller, Mrs. Robert Eakin, Mrs. L. P. Dinn and Mrs. H. R. Hanna.

The Country club dance for the month of February will be in celebration of Washington's birthday and the program for the evening will be carried out accordingly.

The committee in charge of the affair is Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bay, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Bohnenkamp, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. D. Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Westenhaver, Mr. and Mrs. J. G.

Silver Cloth And Velvet

VELVET, two kinds of lace and some cloth of silver make this frock which seems quite elaborate in a season when lines are so plain and trimming reduced to such negligible terms.

The umbrellas are altogether too unwieldy to be carried by the arm by means of a heavy silk cord. But they have the advantage of going away with the vanity case, for within the flat handle the owner carries her powder box, lip stick, eyelash crayon, a dainty little box of perfume, a three-inch comb, a mirror and enough hair pins to last her several hours.

Rev. Thornton Mills, son of the late B. Fay Mills, roused his fashionable Chicago church by making Ben Reitman, King of the Hoboes, head of the adult Bible class.

The guest day luncheon given by the Missionary Society of the Christian church yesterday afternoon was a success in every detail. An excellent luncheon, with beautiful Valentine decorations, was had as honor guest Rev. Pettelle of Wallawa, Reverend O. W. Jones, of the local Christian church and Carol Anderson, of Spokane, Washington.

After the luncheon a very interesting program was given by the ladies of the society. Also a vocal solo by Mr. Anderson was given and greatly appreciated by all present.

Conforming with the spirit of St. Valentine a costume party was given last evening at the K. of P. hall by the Pythian Sisters and the Knights of Pythias. Cards were the main feature of the evening's entertainment after which an excellent luncheon was served.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft met Tuesday evening at Eagles hall for their regular meeting. Three new members were taken into the order, after which Mrs. W. A. Rambo, Near East Relief worker, gave an excellent address. Mrs. Rambo is a member of the N. of W. and expressed her pleasure of being able to meet with the local order.

The ladies of Moonheart Legion entertained the members of the Moon lodge and their families Thursday evening. Dancing was the main feature of the evening, after which refreshments were served.

Ray Geiner and Harry Ollman were hosts to a number of friends last evening at a dance at the Durland packing house. Approximately sixty-five couples were present and everyone had a good time dancing until a late hour. At midnight an excellent luncheon was served.

Upon (Special)—The ladies of the Carleton club and their husbands were entertained Thursday evening at the Baird home in North Union. The hostesses were Mesdames Burdett, McClay and Baird.

The rooms were decorated with hearts and other reminders of St. Valentine's day. At 8:30 a four-course dinner was served and bridge was the diversion for the balance of the evening. Guests present other than members and their husbands were Mr. and Mrs. John Wirtman, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Smith, Mrs. Ruby Knight, Miss Alice Cadwell and C. L. Cadwell. The evening was a very enjoyable one.

Announcements may be printed in this column free of charge. Any announcements pertaining to any functions such as cooked food sales, etc., will be refused. Announcements to be printed the same day, must be in society editor's hands by 9:00 o'clock. —News editor's note.

Mrs. Sam Harris, Mrs. C. Neiderer, Mrs. Chas. Weis, and Mrs. Isabelle Symons will entertain the W. B. A. Bunsy Bees at the home of Mrs. Harris Wednesday afternoon, February 18.

The Past Matrons club will meet Monday evening, February 16, at the home of Mrs. C. M. Humphreys on Oak street.

The Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church will meet Monday evening, February 16, with Miss Hulda Anderson and Miss Sylvia Foster as hostesses.

The Women of Woodcraft and the Woodmen of the World will hold a joint lodge session and social meeting Monday evening, February 16, at Eagles hall.

LONDON (AP).—Umbrellas with handles flat as pan cakes have appeared in London and are considered quite the thing among fashionably dressed young women.

He comes here very highly recommended as one of the most interesting speakers in the Great Northwest. Great crowds attend this meeting and scores of conversions follow. He is sometimes called the Lord's Hunter because he has such wonderful discernment that people are pointed out by his words. When asked the why of his success, he answers, "In the prayer life in the secret closet after all is said." The hall has never yet been told. Come and hear him for yourself. The Christian Endeavor is much alive and already has its spots for the International Convention in Portland this summer. Crosby Ross, minister.

ISLAND CITY COMMUNITY CHURCH—There is new emphasis on religious education. Why not? What can we do? There is at least one phase of religious education in which all can take part and, as we take part, we both give and receive help—that phase has to do with the church school. The doors of this school are open to everyone. No tuition charges. No entrance requirements, except a desire to know the truth. Everybody welcome; everybody wanted; everybody needed. The church school begins at 10 and runs but for one hour. But think of the far-reaching benefits that may result from that one hour if properly used. "Watch us grow." No. That isn't it. "Come and grow with us."—Hail K. Wallis, minister.

You Can't Carry Electricity In Your Pocket

Electricity is a commodity—one of the most important bought and sold in modern business. It becomes more and more important every year. But there is a material difference between electricity and other commodities. You cannot carry electricity away in your pocket; you cannot ship it by freight nor you cannot keep it in stock. In order that electricity may do useful work for you, it must be delivered to you continuously by a highly organized technical generating, transmitting and distributing service which requires an enormous investment of money for installation, maintenance and operation. Eastern Oregon water power and mill waste, potential electricity, would be of no practical value without the investment of money in the system of this company.
