Prosperity Walks Abroad In Northwestern States

CHICAGO (AP)—Prosperity's sudden arrival last summer, although commonplace, "did not over-whelm, and the northwest has not been left adrift at the swiftness," Charles E. Collinson, agricultural editor of The Minneapolis Tribune, told members of the Inland Daily Press association here today. "Even wheat raising communities are alive and active," said Mr. Collinson. "A query sent out by The Tribune revealed 45 different projects now in active operation locally throughout the five north-west states to put agriculture on a better basis."

U.S. FILMS ARE AT THE FRONT

BERLIN (AP)—American films made the strongest impression throughout the world during the year 1924, in the opinion of men and women regarded as authorities on the question of the film by Der Deutsche, a local daily. This journal addressed an inquiry to ministers of education, movie stars, stage managers, critics, movie playwrights, editors of film magazines, and movie vendors in a number of foreign countries, asking them which of the 1924 films impressed them most.

Ranked according to the countries of their origin, the verdict was as follows: The first place was awarded to 174 American, 224 German, 25 French, 27 Swedish, 14 Russian, and 4 Italian films. American or English films referred to by title and recurring frequently as favorites include "Down to the Sea in Ships," "Broken Blossoms," and "The Thief of Bagdad."

Many Pickford and Alla Nazimova both voted first place to "The Education of a Citizen." Charlie Chaplin agreed with Conna Doyle in believing "Down to the Sea in Ships" to have been the strongest movie of the year.
