

NEWS of SOCIETY

Mrs. A. C. Hampton was hostess to the Wednesday Bridge club yesterday afternoon at her home on Main street. Bonquets of beautiful spring flowers were arranged throughout the home, making an excellent setting for an afternoon of bridge. Mrs. E. L. Holmes won the club prize and the guest prize went to Mrs. A. T. Hill.

Belt Is Rare These Days

THE costume that has a belt these days is rather rare. This one has squares of white crepe de chine pleated in blue with embroidered slits through which a blue ribbon passes. The rest of the costume is inconspicuous—blue crepe de chine bound with white.

An attractive affair took place yesterday when Mrs. F. B. Hayes entertained a number of friends at a bridge luncheon at her home on O avenue. The house was beautifully decorated in accordance with Washington's birthday anniversary and an excellent two course luncheon was served at 1:15 o'clock, with covers laid for eighteen guests.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson and Mrs. Mrs. Clyde Zimmerman entertained the members of the Tuesday evening club at the Wilson home Tuesday evening. The rooms were artistically decorated to conform with George Washington's birthday anniversary and cards were the feature of the evening. High honors among the ladies went to Mrs. Lester Bramwell and the gentlemen's prize to T. R. Maxwell.

At an appropriate hour a dainty two course luncheon was served.

Mrs. Sam Harris, Mrs. C. Neiderer, Mrs. Chas. Wells and Mrs. Isabel Symons were hostesses to the Busy Bees of W. B. A. yesterday afternoon when they met at the home of Mrs. Harris for their regular meeting. Mrs. Catherine Erickson, Deputy Supreme Commander of W. B. A., was present and gave an interesting talk. During the business session officers were elected and installed for the coming year as follows: President, Mrs. Frank Kreutz; vice president, Mrs. Harold Dow and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. C. R. Kerr.

After the business meeting the afternoon was spent at cards with high score going to Mrs. Kreutz, the second prize to Mrs. Dow and the third prize to Mrs. Louis Wetzel.

Refreshments were served before adjournment.

Mrs. W. W. Rinaldi proved herself a delightful hostess when she entertained the General Aid of the Methodist Episcopal church Wednesday afternoon at her home at 1506 Third street. Mrs. A. Cooper led the devotional and Mrs. M. D. Feiler was in charge of the business session. Mrs. Will Adler supervised the social hour and led those present in the singing of patriotic songs already on "Bartholomew's Feast" was given by Mrs. Howard Pearson, taking the part of Barbara, and Mrs. C. C. Dunlap, Lizzie, the "dark" maid. The room was decorated with spring flowers.

At the close of the afternoon dainty refreshments were served by the hostess and the committee in charge, consisting of Mrs. B. A. Donham, Mrs. Clyde Peterson, Mrs. Dorothy Smith and Mrs. F. A. Eames.

The Bible Searchers Class, of the Presbyterian church had an interesting meeting yesterday afternoon, when they met at the Anderson home on Adams avenue, with Mrs. A. S. Anderson and Mrs. L. Bullis as hostesses. Officers were elected for the new year, as follows: Mrs. Harry Turner, re-elected president; Mrs. Phil Thompson, re-elected

Hints for the Housewife

(By Josephine Neal) Italians, known for their sturdiness and strength thrive chiefly on macaroni and other pasta products such as spaghetti, vermicelli, etc. Macaroni is highly nutritious and is a valuable mineral and tissue building material. This makes it particularly attractive in the diet of children. Here are two time tried recipes that are very popular in my home.

Mock Crab Salad. Break 1/2 package Egg Vermicelli into short lengths and add slowly to boiling salted water. Boil 4 minutes, cover—remove from fire, let stand 4 minutes, drain—pour cold water over it. 1 can Shrimps, chopped fine. 1/2 cup chopped heart of celery. 1 teaspoon celery salt. 2 tablespoons chopped pimientos. 2 tablespoons mayonnaise to which 2 tablespoons of sweet vinegar has been added.

Macaroni Salad. 1 package salad macaroni—add slowly to boiling water. Boil 6 or 7 minutes, remove from fire and let stand 6 or 7 minutes in boiling water—drain and pour cold water over it. Add 6 or 7 medium sweet pickles, chopped. 1 small tin pimientos, chopped. 2-3 cup chopped celery. 1 small onion. 1 cup mayonnaise to which one tablespoon sweet vinegar has been added. Serve very cold on lettuce leaf.

And here is another dandy recipe that never fails to find a warm welcome. Try it tomorrow. Noodle Ring. 1/2 package wide noodles; add 3 to 4 eggs, beaten separately (whites light and stiff). 1 cup milk or 1 cup evaporated milk (or fresh cream if desired); salt and pepper. 1/2 cup grated cheese; butter the ring-pan well. Set in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven 20 to 30 minutes. Serve with creamed sweet breads, chicken, crab, kidney, meat left-overs, etc.

Cook all varieties of macaroni, spaghetti, egg noodles and vermicelli in plenty of violently boiling salted water. Add to water slowly. When cooked, drain at once in colander. Complete preparations according to your favorite recipe.

How to Choose Fruits And Vegetables, Wisely

There are easily discerned characteristics of fresh fruits and vegetables that everyone should know. These are easily remembered, easily used and worth much in the housewife who does her own marketing. For instance onions should be selected for their silvery skins, either of a white or brownish shade, for their uniformity of size and their firm, fresh appearance. This type of onion is most attractive when cooked and most delicate in flavor.

Handsome are picked when green and ripen during shipment. In choosing this fruit, one is apt to select bananas not ripe enough because of their fresh appearance. Bananas are really at their best when they begin to show a tinge of brown along the seams of the skin and yet one must be sure that the stem end is still cold and not beginning to soften.

Brussels sprouts should have green outside leaves, be uniform in size and, of course, free from worm holes. Turnips when fresh are neither wilted nor pithy. They are heavy for their size and of good color. Celery can be distinguished by its crisp white stalks and fresh, bleached leaves. In serving celery, be sure it is scrupulously clean. Celery is grown under conditions that make this important and necessary.

Fresh spinach has tender, crisp leaves and stems that snap. Head lettuce when fresh is heavy and firm, with no signs of brown on the outer leaves. Cranberries should be firm and bright. Do not overripe, however, and should be kept in a cool, dry atmosphere until used. Grapefruit and oranges, uniform in size with smooth, thin skin and small pores in the photo ones. And never let a ruddy, shining
