AUTO GOES DOWN BANK

ASHLAND, Ore.—James Kelly of Santa Ana, Cal., is in the Community hospital with a broken leg, while his companions, Claude Dickson, Howard Dickson, Harley Heaton and Happy Simpson, all of Santa Ana, narrowly escaped serious injury in an automobile accident in the Skikyoos.

The men were driving through from Santa Ana, bound for Klamath Falls. According to Heaton, owner of the car, who was driving at the time, they were coming down a slight slope and in attempting to make the turn at the bottom their car skidded and rolled down the embankment.

School News

The girls hiking club is planning a big hike for Saturday afternoon. So far, in the history of the club, very few girls have attended the hikes, but better and bigger hikes are planned for the future.

An assembly was called Wednesday at which time Victor De Pinto, well known violinist of La Grande, accompanied by Mrs. Parkinson, rendered three selections. The first two played were "Polonaise" and "Toujours." An encore he played "Traumeri." The program was enjoyed by all, especially those in the music classes.

Miss Miller announced that the music classes had resumed appreciation every Wednesday and all those who had study periods at that time were welcome to join either class.

The seniors held a class meeting immediately after the assembly while the rest of the students went to their seventh period classes.

Miss Miller is busy coaching the class teams for the interclass tournaments. Many new girls are trying out for the tennis, Freshman and Sophomore girls practice on Tuesday and Thursday and the junior and senior girls on Wednesday and Friday.

Six weeks exams have been following one another rapidly during the past week.

An assembly was called for the girls Tuesday. Talks were given by Edna Belle Kitchen and Adelaide Clark on "How We Can Improve Our Assemblies." Miss Bennett announced that Dr. Stella Bodmer would talk to the girls at a later date. Lois Nelson told the girls of the hike this Saturday afternoon.

The students are beginning to bring their kodaks to take pictures for the Minut. Miss Bennett asked them to do this.

There was a meeting of the chairman of the A. G. S. in Miss Breitholz' room Monday after school to discuss plans for the future. The social committee has planned to give a George Washington party.

A junior class meeting was held Monday afternoon at the intermission. The junior rings are here.

Practically every student attended the picture, "The Man Without a Country," Wednesday afternoon. School was dismissed ten minutes early to give the students time to reach the theatre by 7:30. The American Legion gave a special matinee for the high school students who were all urged to attend the picture if for no other reason than to help the American Legion and try to repay them for the way they have backed the high school in all of their activities this year.

Thursday afternoon Mr. Hampton talked to the Seniors concerning what they would do after leaving high school. He spoke especially of the possibilities of teaching. The psychology learned in the school of education benefits us in any business or profession we may choose. Teaching gives us a wonderful chance of service. Russia is an example of a country without teachers. It gives us an opportunity for self culture and development of character. The knowledge derived in this field equips us with the fundamentals for any vocational education. Teaching must be done well and the technique thoroughly understood making it truly a profession. There are broader and newer fields opening all the time. The necessary compensation at present is not what it should be but people are beginning to realize this and it is improving. The compensation does compare favorably with the other fields one may enter, because of the consciousness one has of service and independence.

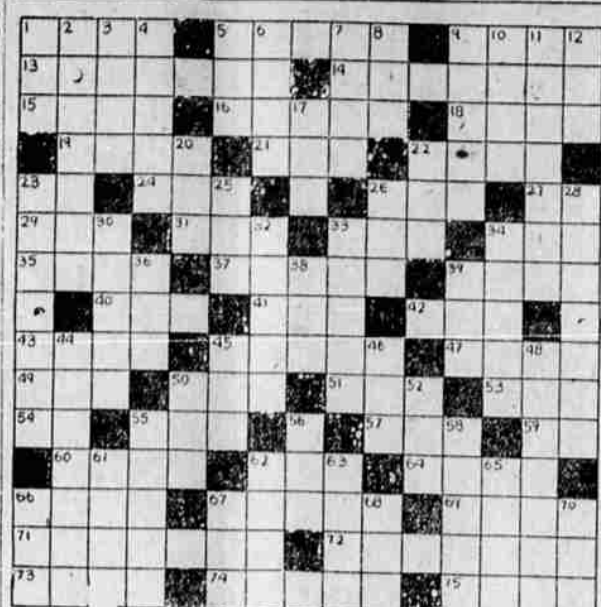

He gave us the question to consider "What can a young person on his own resources do that will bring sturdier or quicker compensation than teaching?" Even though we do not wish to continue in this field, teaching affords a good opportunity to prepare for a college education in another field.

In closing Mr. Hampton urged that no matter what we choose, to go ahead with a definite aim and not aimlessly get a haphazard education of no special value.

A Washington party was given after school Friday by the A. G. S. The program in the auditorium consisted of a song by Dorothy Funk and Adelaide Clark, a dance by the grade school children of Central school and piano solo by Veda Price and Juanita Graham.

Following the program a matinee dance was held in the gym. Refreshments were served.
