

La Grande Evening Observer

Editor and Publisher HARVEY F. MATTHEWS Business Manager

Published evenings, except Sunday, at 1416 Adams Avenue, La Grande, Oregon.

MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited if published therein.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES By Carrier Daily, per month in advance $1.50

By Mail Daily, per month in advance $1.50

ADVERTISING RATES Display, foreign, per column inch $4.00

BE KINDLY AFFECTIONED one to another with brotherly love; in honor preferring one another; recompense to no man evil for evil.

That Florida church that charges $50 for a reserved seat probably banks on the desire of folks generally to prove the possession of $50.

The only way La Grande can get along another year without taking some steps toward better street lighting is to have congress pass a law making about eighteen hours of daylight the year 'round for this part of Oregon.

We can't say confidently about Oregon, but we know some states that would consider it a great good fortune to have a governor and legislature pulling in such distinctly opposite directions.

TREES ON THE HIGHWAYS. Announcement of the Highway Commission's plan to plant trees along the Oregon Trail between La Grande and Ontario should be received with a great deal of favor.

INHERITANCE TAXATION. President Coolidge's recent condemnation of the inheritance tax in which he characterized it as socialist was undoubtedly a sincere statement.

Naturally, such a position as Coolidge has taken will be applauded by a large group of the very wealthy families of the country.

The rest of us, however, are more inclined to favor the inheritance tax—not because we have a grudge against the multi-millionaires—but because it provides government revenue from a source that cannot be seriously affected by the drain, and it helps slightly in the elimination of the idle, non-productive rich.

The attack on the inheritance tax is similar to that being waged by others on all variety of taxation. Tax questions are always a source of controversy.

THE OLD HOME TOWN

By Stanley

THE RUMOR THAT BIRDIE CROWE THE WELL KNOWN MILLINER IS EXPECTING A NEW TRIMMER FROM THE CITY HAS CAUSED CONSIDERABLE COMMENT

OFFICE CAT

A cynic is a person who discovers mean things about himself and then says them about the rest of us.

Rouged cheeks and powdered faces are rather attractive if you don't notice the yellow neck beneath.

Mrs. Newswell: "George, the cook left and I don't know how we're going to eat for the next few days."

Mr. N.: "You still have my love letters, haven't you?" Mrs. N.: "Of course."

Celery and soup have quiet enough dispositions until some one sickens his appetite on them. Then the riot begins.

Take no chances when you marry. Let the valet clean your room; listen to the staid old limers; Do not buy your wife a broom.

Mrs. Newrich was fond of flowers and especially liked the salvia, but was not very reliable in getting names right.

"Well, madam," answered the ardent solemnity, "maybe it would be a good idea to put some spit-sundas there."

Webster slipped a cog in allowing shirker to rhyme with worker.

Heard a La Grande man the other day who asked his barber not to cut his hair as short as usual, but he was afraid of being mistaken for his wife.

"Friedrich Eberich Will Lead Thirteen Men" says a newspaper headline. Maybe the cross-walker could figure that out.

"Those Enduring Young Charms"—Tongue, face powder, elastic garters and false teeth.

Dumb Dora (reading sign over lect. office)—"Oh, John, it says Entire balcony 35c". Let's get it or we'll be alone.

Dr. Conan Doyle says everybody works in heaven. Then it won't be heaven to a lot of politicians.

The things that stand cold weather best are the polar bear, the reindeer and the feminine tuble.

The Prince of Wales finds he needs more money, so most of our young men are right in style.

CLAUDE C. PRATT THINK OF THIS! We are introducing a large carload of extra sharp-saw shingles and you can help yourself to them for $3.95 per M., as long as they last.

Yesterday In Congress

(By The Associated Press) Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, started a fight against congressional salary increases.

The house aircraft committee deferred action on a resolution to re-open hearings.

The nomination of Alanson B. Houghton to be ambassador to Great Britain was sent to the senate.

A deficiency appropriation bill carrying $54,426,996 was reported by the house appropriations committee.

George Washington's birthday anniversary was observed by patriotic societies and governmental departments.

Sustaining a ruling of President Coolidge, the senate sent the Underwood Muscle Shoals bill back to conference.

A house committee was told by its counsel the department of justice was investigating 30 "unworthy" veterans' organizations.

A woman's conference on national defense heard addresses by President Coolidge, Secretary Weeks and other high officials.

Eighteen of 21 members of the house-commerce committee joined in an adverse report on the senate bill to wipe out the Pullman surcharge.

The department of justice announced it was investigating charges that Senator Bursum, New Mexico, and Spencer, Missouri, had improperly appeared before government departments.

Good Business in Prospect CHICAGO (AP)—Production of rail steel for reinforcing bars is expected to shatter all previous records during the present year.

Great activity in the construction of apartments, hotels, office buildings and public institutions, which made $124 a $5,000,000,000 year for America, is continuing through the winter period, the association says.

Norway's Queen a Novelist OSLO (AP)—If Queen Maud of Norway had had to earn her own livelihood, she would probably have adopted a literary career.

Indians Ballot for Council. KLAMATH FALLS, Ore.—Klamath Indians locked to voting booths to cast their vote for a new tribal council, according to Fred A. Baker, superintendent of the Klamath Indian reservation.

ALWAYS HUNGRY Growing children are almost always hungry and demand an abundance of vitamin-rich food.

Scott's Emulsion is vital-nourishment that helps children keep their strength and grow normally. Most children need Scott's.

72 People Out of 100 Lost Their Investment

According to life insurance figures, 72% of the policy holders die before they have owned the policy 20 years.

If the 72% who died had bought insurance for protection only and had put the balance in a 7% investment, their investment would not have been lost and their heirs would also have received the full amount of insurance.

INSURE FOR PROTECTION, SAVE SEPARATELY FOR INVESTMENT I WILL ANALYZE YOUR POLICIES FREE OF CHARGE. Bring Your Agent With You. FLOYD McKENNON LA GRANDE NAT'L BANK BLDG. MAIN 230

AMERICANS IN ENGLAND PLAN COUNTRY CLUB

LONDON (AP)—An American country and residential club may be organized in London in the near future. One of the historic tracts near London where Henry VIII used to hunt has been suggested for the site, and as the is plenty of space for golf, Americans interested in the deal rather look upon this place with favor.

It has been proposed by the prime movers in the idea to take over all the buildings as they stand, this including a splendid Georgian mansion known as Addington Park, one of the show places of this section. The site of the proposed club is near Croydon, the large suburb from which London planes arrive and depart for the Continent, and until a few years ago was the country seat of the Archbishops of Canterbury.

The hunting lodge of Henry VIII stood near where the mansion is located. Originally this site was granted by William the Conqueror to his cook on the peculiar condition that he and his successors should present at royal coronations a certain mess of pottage in an earthenware pot.

German Show Activity In British East Africa

LONDON (AP)—Back to the old colony evidently is the purpose of many German commercial firms who have reestablished themselves in Kenya and Uganda, according to Colonel W. H. Franklin, trade commissioner in East Africa. Reporting to the department of overseas trade, Colonel Franklin says:

"Since September, 1923, German firms have been allowed to establish their own branches in Kenya and today there are nearly a dozen such establishments in Mombassa giving what can only be described as the loosest of credit conditions.

"How far this is simply a means of commercial penetration, or how far political exigencies are forced into the matter, it is difficult to say. It is natural that Germany should try to recapture commercially what she once dominated politically, namely, the Tanganyika territory, and it may also be a matter of national financial policy to hold capital balances abroad in the shape of long-dated bills."

Obligatory Practice Makes Good Marksmen of Many Argentines

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—The reason Argentine rank among the best shots in the world, as shown in various international rifle contests in past years, is that marksmanship is obligatory upon every male citizen of Argentina between the ages of 18 and 45.

Not all citizens have to serve in the army, but those chosen recruited by lot, but those chosen may reduce their one year term of service by three-fourths if they take the marksmanship course. Those not chosen are obliged to take the course anyway.

Statistics recently issued by the ministry of war show that during last year 44,000 citizens took lessons at the 130 rifle ranges in the country, and shot off 4,500,000 cartridges.

Indians Ballot for Council

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore.—Klamath Indians locked to voting booths to cast their vote for a new tribal council, according to Fred A. Baker, superintendent of the Klamath Indian reservation. The final returns will not be announced till Tuesday. Indians voted at five voting places, Hearty, Sprague, Chiloquin, Klamath, agency and Modoc Point.

A "Lucky" List

Roy Rucker county prosecutor at Sedalia, Mo. plans to publish names of all persons obtaining liquor through the prescription method. His first reads like the social register. He says publication helps to enforce dry laws.

Bones of Prehistoric Animals Are Unearthed

CHICAGO (AP)—Skeletons of North American mastodons, mammas as big as camels, saber tooth tigers, mammoth bears, wolves and species of the northern horse family, have been unearthed in Central America, among fossilized remains of the South American gryllodon and huge ground sloths, D. C. Davies, director of the Field museum announced here Sunday.

The discoveries were made by a Marshall Field expedition, led by Prof. Elmer S. Riggs, and they lead the fossil experts to visualize an intercontinental battlefield of millions of years ago, where opposing migrations of mammoth animals from North and South America fought and exterminated one another.

Rumania Determined to Drive Bolsheviks from Country

BUCHAREST (AP)—While the arrests of Bolshevik agents and workers are proceeding in Rumania, there are indications that a similar campaign, in an intensified

New Two-Tone Ladies Shoes For Spring

THE BOW WINS THE HONORS TAN And BLACK BLONDE And BLACK

support of Bolshevism. One hundred and four men were arrested recently in Krajova and lodged in jail.

MARKET JOEL'S GROCERIES

PHONE MAIN 759 Clorox TO BLEACH CLOTHES 25c PER BOTTLE

INCOME TAX SEASON IS HERE

Have your Income Tax Statement prepared by one who knows. Two years with U. S. Internal Revenue Department. H. M. MALONEY LA GRANDE, OREGON. Foley Building

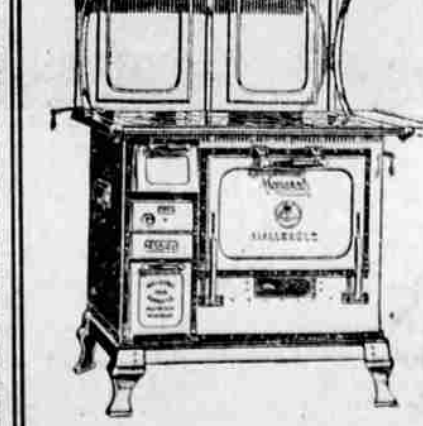

SMILING BEAUTY HATS

For girls from babyhood to graduation. They Smile at Competition. Priced $1.25 to $1.50. We want your trade and you will like our goods and prices. Our Business Is Growing—There's a Reason. Norton's Kiddy Shop

The "Stay Satisfactory" Range Today, as for the past, Lifetime Ranges are supreme for quality durability and satisfaction.

Monarch users are our best salesmen. We only ask an opportunity to show you this range. Come in and let us do so. Your old stove taken as part payment.

W. H. Bohnenkamp Co.