BACK BAD TODAY?

Then Find the Cause and Correct It as Other La Grande Folks Have.

There's little rest or peace for the backache sufferer. Days are tired and weary—Night brings no respite. Urinary troubles, headaches, dizziness and nervousness, all tend to prevent rest or sleep. Why continue to be so miserable?

Why not use a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys? Use Doan's Pills. Your neighbors recommend Doan's.

Read this La Grande case: Howard C. Trull, 1305 O St., says: "Doan's Pills are a remedy of merit. I have used them for attacks of kidney complaint when my back was weak and lame and my kidneys acted irregularly. A short use of Doan's has never failed to relieve these attacks and strengthen my back and kidneys." Price 50c at all dealers. "Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the name that Mr. Trull had. Foster-McMillan Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

La Grande Theatres

"Tarnish," a Play Of Youthful Emotions At the Arcade.

An exceptionally large group of celebrated screen players are to be seen in the George Fitzmaurice production, "Tarnish," which was made by Samuel Goldwyn for first National Pictures, and which will be the main attraction at the Arcade Theatre today.

"Tarnish" is an adaptation by Frances Marion, well known scenario writer, of Gilbert Emery's Broadway stage success. It is a story about youth, dealing with the tragedy that threatens young love when a young man intrudes upon the blissful courtship of two lovers. In its structure there is revealed a fine, nearly woven drama, in which the part of the young man turns up and shakes and humbles the young girl.

From the rolling plains of the Suggest ranch in Montana, to the heights of the snowcapped peaks, ranges the action of "Ridgeway of Montana," Jack Hoxie's western starring feature, a Universal offering at the Star today.

Someone once said that action no matter how intricate and fast moving can't make a picture of this type really interesting unless it has novel elements. Hoxie's "Ridgeway of Montana" is one of the most popular, best of Hoxie's unusual and strange plots.

Hoxie is supported by a capable cast including such veterans as Herbert Porter, Lou Meschan, Pat Harmon, Charles E. Thurston and William McCall. In addition, Pierre Gendron, one of the most promising juvenile leading men, and elevated from the ranks of minor players, are presented in principal roles. "Bank," an Australian sheep-dog owned by Hoxie, also is seen in his very first screen role.

The elements which make for success in Hoxie western features usually include a director of proven skill. Clifford S. Smith, guide of all the big William S. Hart picture, is the man responsible this time.

With great accuracy and skill the striking character of Charles the Bold, Duke of Burgundy, whom the French call "Charles the Foolhardy," is drawn. This fighting noble of ancient days and his wife Margaret, sister of the English King Edward IV, live again on the screen.

His daughter, Princess Mary, heroine of "Yolanda," portrayed so charmingly and vividly by Marion Davies, is another character brought back to life from the by-gone days of the fifteenth century.

It was Princess Mary who married Prince Maximilian of Austria, a small kingdom of Austria, who afterward became Emperor Maximilian I, and was grandfather of the great Emperor Charles V.

These figures live again on the screen in exact reproduction of the homes and cities they inhabited. In all history there are few characters more interesting than those of the fifteenth century when Louis XI fought his long battle with Charles the Bold, of Burgundy; the battle that established kings in place of a coalition of nobles as the ruling power in France.

Irish Gauged with Boycotting Oun Country's Manufacturers DUBLIN (AP)—The Irish people have been boycotting their own goods, it was disclosed at a meeting of the executives of the Cork Industrial Development association. Some few years back customers used to insist on Irish manufactures, but this is now exceptional.

The secretary commented upon a recent statement of Professor Smiddy in America that "Ireland is a creditor country rather than a debtor country," and that "Irishmen have a billion dollars drawing an income of about $5,000,000 a year."
