

NEWS of SOCIETY

The ladies of Chapter I. P. E. O. were delightfully entertained last evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Richardson by their husbands, the B. L. L.'s. William Miller acted as master of ceremonies and to H. A. Zurbick, as chairman, is due the credit for the presentation of a clever farce, in which Clyde Seitz and E. L. Holmes served the honors of the leading roles. In addition a splendid literary and musical program was rendered, including vocal solos by G. L. Dutton and G. S. Hiron, Dr. E. P. Mossman gave an excellent dramatic reading.

The evening's entertainment was entirely in the hands of the men, even to the serving of a delicious two course luncheon, after the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Colon Eberhard entertained the members of the Tuesday Bridge club last evening at their home on N. avenue. Four tables of bridge were at play during the evening with the high score for the ladies prize going to Mrs. T. R. Maxwell and J. M. P. Snyder receiving the gentlemen's prize.

Because yesterday was inaugural day, patriotic decorations were used. Bouquets of beautiful red carnations were arranged throughout the rooms. At an appropriate hour a two course luncheon was served.

The Parkside club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. McCaffery, with Mrs. McCaffery and Mrs. C. H. Gump as hostesses. After the business session a short social hour was enjoyed and luncheon was served. Twenty-five ladies were present.

Mrs. J. F. O'Connell was hostess for the Altar Society yesterday afternoon. Thirty ladies were present and a very interesting afternoon was spent. Refreshments were served before adjournment.

St. Peter's Episcopal Guild met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Donald Pague, with Mrs. Pague and Mrs. Dwight Jesse as hostesses. Twenty-two ladies were present and after a successful business meeting luncheon was served.

The first division of the Ladies Aid of the First Methodist Episcopal church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. P. Harrison, 1513 Adams avenue. Several visitors were present and after the regular business session the afternoon was spent visiting. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. McChain and Mrs. S. C. Smith.

Tuxedo Coat Effect

CHARMEEN makes this interesting ensemble costume with the tuxedo coat effect trimmed with buttons and two shades of narrow moire ribbon. The frock and lining of the coat are of printed crepe.

refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. McChain and Mrs. S. C. Smith.

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Cassius Humphreys for their regular meeting. Thirty-five ladies were present. During the business session a final report was given on the pipe organ fund and it was found that there was a surplus of $5.00. Officers were elected and those chosen for 1925 are: Mrs. J. T. Richardson, president; Mrs. John Thomsen, vice-president; Mrs. Harry Turner, secretary and Mrs. J. M. Jackson, treasurer.

Before adjournment luncheon was served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Chas. Miller, Mrs. H. H. Cleaver, Mrs. Edna Ryanerson, Mrs. W. D. Pickens and Mrs. J. Jacobson.

Mrs. C. H. Griffin was hostess to the Second Division of the Ladies Aid of the Methodist Episcopal church yesterday afternoon at her home at 302 Main avenue. Mrs. Geo. Baars had charge of the business meeting and devotional, after which a social hour was enjoyed. Luncheon was served by the hostess before adjournment.

The American Legion Auxiliary met last evening at Honan hall for their regular meeting. During the evening plans were made for the sale of a Hope Chest and an Easter cake sale. The money will be used in relief work for disabled ex-service men. There will be a called meeting of the Auxiliary at the home of Mrs. C. N. Palmer, 703 Adams avenue, March 18.

Miss Lietta Leighton, graduate of the La Grande high school, who is attending Willamette University at Salem, has been pledged to the Alpha Phi Alpha sorority.

Mrs. H. Gow, Mrs. F. Kreutz, Mrs. George and Mrs. Mary Felker were hostesses to the Busy Bee club yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gow. After a short business session the afternoon was spent at cards, with Mrs. C. Bunting winning high score for the first prize. Mrs. G. R. Kerr won the second prize and the third prize went to Mrs. J. J. Towery.

Luncheon was served before adjournment.

Union (Special)—A social event which was keenly enjoyed by all present was staged at the R. H. Rohrig home Friday evening of last week, when the past presidents' organization met and elected officers for the new year. After a banquet with covers laid for all the members and a few invited guests the club selected the following officers: President, Elizabeth Phillips; vice-president, Margaret Smith; secretary-treasurer, Agnes Paddock.

The Park (Special) — Beverly Rose Lay celebrated her third birthday anniversary Tuesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lay. Many little friends accompanied by their parents were present. Dinner was served and a very enjoyable time spent. The little girl received many beautiful gifts.
