

NEWS of SOCIETY

The regular meeting of the Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Floyd McKennon.

The meeting was spent largely in observing founders' day and it was agreed that the Home and Foreign missionary societies of the church will join to give a banquet to the junior societies on March 27.

In honor of Mrs. Chris Miller's 50th birthday anniversary, a number of friends gathered at her home on Adams avenue with Mrs. Loda Terry acting as hostess.

The members of the Wednesday Evening Bridge club were delightfully entertained last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hayes.

High honors at the evening's play went to Mrs. P. L. Lilly and August J. Baines.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Pearson and Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Sanford entertained the Thursday Bridge club Saturday evening at the Sanford home on N. avenue.

High honors at cards went to Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Freeman.

Handkerchief Points

FASHION is fickle, no doubt, but she does remain true to handkerchief points on dancing frocks.

A cordial invitation is extended by the society to all ladies of the church and congregation to attend.

As ice cream social will be held at the L. O. O. F. Temple Thursday night, all members and their families have been invited.

British Fear Necessity of U. S. Trip to Study European Art

LONDON (AP)—The time appears to be rapidly approaching when it will be necessary for Englishmen to make a tour of the United States in order to study European art, says the Sunday Herald, commenting on "our lost art treasures" which have been purchased in England and other European countries by Americans since the war.

"Our own artistic treasures are pouring across the Atlantic at a vertiginous rate," says the article. "Two million pounds worth of pictures and antique treasures alone were sold in London for America last year, and the total since the war has been estimated at nearly $55,000,000.

JUDGE DICKSON TO WAIT

SALEM, Ore.—Ashby C. Dickson cannot take his seat as circuit judge of Multnomah county until the expiration of a 90-day period after the adjournment of the legislature.

Judge Dickson was appointed by Governor Peterson after the legislature had passed a bill, voted by the governor during the 1922 session and providing for an eighth circuit judge for Multnomah county.

SOCIAL NEWS AT THE PARK

THE PARK (Special).—Aunt Maud Vanorder entertained a number of friends, neighbors and relatives, some who had been unable to attend on her wedding anniversary the sixth.

It was reported that Chester Godday was sick Sunday. Monday he was unable to go to work. It is hoped that he will not be ill for long.

Mrs. S. Godday had four fine hogs butchered Saturday. Mrs. Will Vanorder repaired her bedroom and kitchen with a very fine pattern of paper, it is reported.

Cranky Drag Saw

Bert Titus of Raymo Flat was repairing his drag saw last week. It failed to go right and he started to saw his wood by hand with cross-cut.

George Wright of Raymo Flat was in Union preparing a garden for Mrs. William Wigglesworth. The Lee brothers of the Willow farm, Raymo Flat, were in Union on business Saturday.

Joseph Lay was branding cattle and fanned some of them to pasture last week.

Bert Van was hauling hay from the J. E. Kennedy farm, Big Creek Saturday.

Jack and Bobby Hunter were at Aunt Maud Vanorder's for dinner Sunday.

El Haek, Big Creek farmer and cattlemen, came over Sunday for a home Clarence Vanorder wintered for him.

Lester Miller, who is agent for dried fruits returned home to Pleasant Valley Sunday. He took large orders for prunes which are the very best dried prunes seen around this country for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Haek with their children from Big Creek went around Pleasant valley on Saturday on their way to Union to attend the funeral of Robert Landis.

Miss Mary Vanorder received a letter from her little friend, Martha Watts of Hill City, Idaho, stating that the snow there was still five feet deep.

A letter from Kenneth Vanorder was received telling that Mr. Gallek, owner of the large hay ranch where Kenneth is feeding the 500 head of the Woodson outfit's cattle, was taken seriously ill and was taken to Baker where it was found that he was suffering from appendicitis.

It is reported here that Bill Titus of Pleasant has been farming off and on for three weeks, stopping at times because of the ground freezing.

Ralph Titus from Raymo Flat, son of Bert Titus, went back to school in Union Monday.

Bert Titus is preparing to farm soon at Raymo Flat.

A bit of serious news that captured the correspondent was the shooting of Winn Duncan's big toe by George McDow. They were hutching hogs and Mr. McDow shot one pig with a .22 rifle. The bullet did not hit the pig at the right place and therefore the swine went on its way.

Mr. Duncan of Medical Springs, who was helping, caught the pig and held it by the ear for Mr. McDow to shoot again. This time the bullet struck the pig on the nose, going through the two jaws and hitting Mr. Duncan's big toe. As it was, everyone laughed, but Mr. Duncan didn't see any joke at all. However, it is reported that the toe while quite badly bruised, is in fair shape of recovery.

Chamber Directors Re-elected

GRANTS PASS, Ore.—H. D. Norton, for the last year president of the Grants Pass chamber of commerce, will head that organization for another year. He was re-elected unanimously at the annual meeting. All of the old officers were re-elected.

The Oregon-California radio debate had over attracted wide attention. The talk peace plan was the issue then. The teams spoke from the same stations which will broadcast the debate this month.

Radio gave the decision by mail vote, and Oregon won by an overwhelming majority. Decision in the Oregon-Stanford debate will be by mail, the radio listeners north of the California line sending their ballots to station KGW.

RADIO DEBATE WILL BE HELD

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Ore. (Special)—Oregon and Stanford debating teams will "go on the air" in the second intercollegiate debate in the West, March 25, the Oregon men arguing the question of the Japanese immigration law from station KGW, Portland, and the Palo Alto duo from station KIX, Oakland, Cal.

The teams, although approximately 500 miles distant from each other, will follow the ordinary form and convention of the usual debate.

Oregon has the affirmative of the question. "Resolved, That the Present Immigration Law Should Be Amended to Permit the Entrance of the Japanese" on the Quota Basis.

and south of the boundary to station KIX.

According to plans, the first Oregon speaker will deliver the affirmative speech. The Portland station will then remain silent while the negative speaker for Oakland station broadcasts. Then will follow the two remaining speakers and a rebuttal.

Frazier debated against California and last winter was a member of the team that defeated Oxford, Houston, a senior in economics, will enter his first intercollegiate contest against Stanford.

PHIZ CASE TERMINATED

SALJEM, Ore.—The famous Phiz case against the Salem Fruit union was terminated when the county clerk received a mandate from the supreme court. This spells the finish of the fruit union and at the same time presages a series of minor suits against growers whose
