Silver Lace Is Used Here

Silver lace is arranged over a foundation of beige crepe to make this very distinctive frock. A circular rounce gives the graceful flare at the feet and a large crimson poppy lends a brilliant dash of color. This is a typically Parisian frock, the sort one sees for dinner and theater wear.

the committee. "When Irish Eyes are Smiling," "Where the River Shannon Flows" and "Mother Macabree" by Donald Funk, accompanied by Dorothy Funk at the piano and Mae Stearns at the violin, Mrs. Doty impersonating Mother Macabree.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce DeBelle and son, Jack, left La Grande this morning for Baker, where they will attend the wedding of Miss Louise Pollman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Pollman, this evening at eight o'clock, to Prescott Lilly. Miss Pollman is a popular member of Baker's social set. She was born at Baker and has always made that city her home. She is a graduate of Mills college. Mr. Lilly is sales manager for the Basche-Sage Hardware company at Baker.

Immediately following the marriage this evening the young couple will leave on their honeymoon trip. They will visit eastern and southern cities, after which they will return to Baker, where they will make their home, through Los Angeles and San Francisco.

CHURCH NEWS

ISLAND CITY COMMUNITY CHURCH—Easter is coming. The Sunday school is increasing. The Epworth League is over on the job. The contest in the telling of Bible stories is instructive and interesting. The Junior League are developing. The preaching services are inspirational. The church services are for your benefit and for the benefit of the community. But we need your presence and your help. Come and worship with us. —Hall K. Wallis, pastor.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH — Holy Communion at 8:00. Sunday school at 9:45. Confirmation service at 11:00. Bishop Remington will preach at the 11:00 a. m. service. —Rev. B. W. Cresson, rector.

I. B. S. A.—The International Bible Students' Association (local branch) will have a visit from one of their traveling lecturers, S. H. Toutjian, an Armenian from Tarsum, Asia Minor. A man well versed in his subject from experience. His theme is "Jews Rebuilding Palestine." The reason "Millions Now Living Will Never Die." The movement of Jews to Palestine from all parts of the world since 1918 has been mentioned by the press all over the world. This lecture is free to all, and all are welcome. But from experience we will say if you want a seat come early. There is no collection taken, seats are free.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH — "They that wait on the Lord shall renew their strength," sang Isaiah of old and during this Lenten season we echo the thought. Our ideas of worship are gathered around the Risen Saviour as we worship Him in spirit and in truth, tomorrow morning we assemble in our house of praise as we attune the new pipe organ to lead us in our congregational singing, as our quartet render the anthem: "Light of the World, We Hail Thee," by Hamilton Gray, and the minister brings another message in the Lenten series. These morning worship hours are privileges for all to enjoy so we invite you to attend and to bring others with you. Our Sunday school at 9:45 with classes for all ages. Our Christian Endeavor at 6:15 for the young folks. Our community Bible class at 7:30 with the continuance of Romans under study and discussion. New members will be received on Easter and we urge discussion with this object in view. Speak to the minister about your desire to become a part of the Kingdom. — Wm. Crissey Ross, minister.

ZION ENGLISH LUTHERAN CHURCH—M. Ave., opposite high school. Bible school at 9:45 a. m.

Morning worship at 11:00 a. m. Luther League devotions at 6:30 p. m. Lenten services, Wednesday 5:00 p. m.—Wm. F. Holt, pastor.

Mrs. Stitzinger's program of Illustrated Hymns—Sacred Scripture and Sacred Hymns, oft repeated sometimes lose their souls and leave nothing but empty husks. Therefore a graphical visible portrayal of the inner meaning of hymns is very helpful in the season.
