London Sparrows Shakespeare For Five-Prevention Slogan

LONDON (AP)—Shakespearean quotations are used by the London Metropolitan Fire Brigade in an effort to caution the public against carelessness where fires are concerned.

One quotation in particular, "A little fire is quickly trodden out, which being suffered rivers cannot quench," has been hung up in the fire brigade headquarters in London and distributed to various fire prevention bureaus.

Ants have started reading the papers already to see where the spring plagues will be held.

Australian Boxer to Invade U. S. LONDON (AP)—George Cook, the Australian heavyweight fighter, who has been in Berlin for some months, has arranged to go to the United States in the near future, according to his manager, Charlie Lucas.

Cook, who has been fighting here and on the continent for four years, expects several bouts in America, after which he will return to Australia. The Lucas announcement says Cook's first match will be in Chicago.

The reformers have started worrying over what the bathing girls won't wear this summer.

If he advertises it, he knows it's good.

Strong Theme of Love in "Sandra" At Arcade Theater

A strong theme is offered in "Sandra," Barbara La Marr's latest First National picture now being shown at the Arcade theater.

Her quest carries her throughout the capitals and gay spots of Europe, and she meets with numerous novel experiences. Yet the real love she seeks is not to be found.

Finally Sandra returns to her home town, and there she discovers love, right on her own doorstep.

Best Lytel is Miss La Marr's leading man, and the couple have an admirable supporting cast.

"Mine With the Iron Door" Showing At Sherrys Now

Once more has the motion picture camera been made the medium through which the entire public is being made more familiar with the history and the legendry of the very early days of Spanish, Mexican and Indian occupancy of the southwest.

This feature picture, with a truly stellar cast, headed by Dorothy Mackaig and Pat O'Malley, and directed by Sam Wood, follows closely in every detail the story, and everybody knows that when Harold Bell Wright finishes a novel, it is really a finished piece of work; that the author has studied his people, his motives, and has given an absolutely true version of historical fact, legendry and tradition.

Hence when theater goers see the San Xavier Mission, built by the Papago Indians away back in 1622 with its altar of solid gold, and all its other historical aspects, they may know they are not looking at some more piece of studio property work.

The gold for the altar of the San Xavier Mission, and in the frescoing, legend says, was taken by the Indians from a mine of fabulous wealth in raw ore—the mine with the iron door, which was discovered, owned and operated by a band of Franciscan Friars who settled centuries ago in the Canada del Oro (Canyon of Gold) some

OLD STOCKING BANK POPULAR

27 YEARS AGO

PARIS, (AP)—According to conservative estimates there are two billion francs in gold coins hidden away in the traditional "old stocking" of the French people, and if France had this gold hidden at its disposal the country's financial situation would be distinctly improved. Every kind of appeal has been made to induce the holders to let the state have their hoarded gold, and during the war much was recuperated under patriotic influences.

Daily Morning Observer, March 15, 1898.—The ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kuhl of Imbler, died Saturday, March 13, 1898. He had been complaining of a sore throat for several days and on Friday it was thought that he was nearly well and worked all day, but the treacherous disease all the time was claiming his victim. Dr. Mollitor was called late Friday evening but it was too late. The membrane had involved the trachea and he died the next day.

A girl should never marry a man who throws her money away as fast as she can make it.

Attorney Finn left Monday evening for Portland on legal business.

John Halter writes John Anthony from Denver, Colo., that he is thinking strongly of coming to this valley to start a dairy.

Karl J. Stackland of the Cove is in the city, stating that the People's party is working harmoniously and effectively. They have three candidates, J. E. Chiswell for reeve, Jack Russell for sheriff and D. M. Gardner for school superintendent, but whether they get their men or not will be just as hard to elect the other fellow.

Sunday, March 15, was election day in Division 362 of R. of L. E. The following officers were elected for the coming year: G. W. Moon, C. E. J. G. Gardner, P. E. T. F. Patty, S. E. Henry Hanson, F. A. E. F. G. Schilke, A. A. E. H. M. Wall, T. A. E. E. Jacobson, guide; F. E. Holm, chaplain. O. W. Moon was chosen delegate to the biennial convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers to be held at St. Louis, Mo., on the 11th day of May, 1925, and G. W. Hanson as representative of the G. L. of A. to be held in Portland.

Island City will have six delegates in the Democratic county convention, namely: W. G. Hunter, Andrew Blockland, James Garrity, J. W. McCall, E. R. Holman and Lee Humphrey.

POP I NEED A CHANGE OF SURROUNDINGS—I WANT TO GO AWAY SOMEPLACE WHERE I CAN GET SOME OUTDOOR EXERCISE AND FORGET ABOUT MY WORK IN THE OFFICE

FINE MY FOREMAN JUST CALLED UP AND SAID HE NEEDED AN EXTRA MAN TO SHOVEL MUD DOWN AT OUR SWAMP—I'LL TELL HIM YOU'LL TAKE THE JOB!

HULLO-MARIAN! THIS IS CHICK—I JUST WANTED TO CONGRATULATE YOU ON WINNING THE BEAUTY CONTEST

OH YOU NEEDN'T CARE FOR ME WHEN YOU THOUGHT THOSE OTHER GIRLS WERE GOING TO WIN THE CONTEST SO WHY SHOULD I BE WORTH WHILE NOW? GOODBYE!!

Dearest Marian I never dreamed that our friendship should come to this. Better and over circumstances which were beyond my control. I just phoned you hoping you would give me a chance to see you. Some day you'll be sorry for misjudging me and breaking my heart. And I am going away and shall never see you again. Hoping time will heal the wound you have so unjustly inflicted upon me.
