ARGENTINA PREPARING FOR BOOM IN OIL FIELDS. BUENOS AIRES (AP)—The satisfactory results obtained by the state owned petroleum wells in 1924 has encouraged the government to give additional impulse to boring in 1925. In the Comodoro Rivadavia field alone 156 wells will be sunk this year, while in the Salta and Jujuy oil fields a considerable number of borings will be begun.

Frances Howard, who made her motion picture debut in "The Swan," has her second picture engagement in a featured role in support of Richard Dix in his new Paramount starring picture, "Too Many Kisses," which will be the feature today at the Arcade theater.

"Too Many Kisses" was directed by Paul Roeg, who made "A Man Must Live." Gerald Duffy adapted the story for the screen from the "Cosmopolitan Magazine" serial, "A Maker of Gestures," by John Monk Saunders.

The star plays the role of a fickle young American whose many love affairs result in countless breaches of promise. "This exaggerated" actress shines him off to the Basque country in the Tyneones to get him away from girls, only to have him fall in love with a dark eyed senorita. Yvonne, played by Miss Howard. All of Gaylord's carefully laid plans go up in smoke.

William Powell, seen in "The Bright Shawl," "Raniola" and others, plays the part of a valet who is the captain of the guards in the little village, and is a rival of Dix for the love of Yvonne.

"Harp" Marx, the silent one of the Four Marx Brothers of stage fame, is cast as the town half-wit. Frank Currier has the role of Gaylord, Sr.

Other big names in the cast are Joe Burke, Albert Tavorner, Albee Mills, Arthur Ludwig, and Paul Panzer, the last two henchmen of Powell in the production. They carry Dix off to a mountain but white Powell goes about kidnapping Miss Howe.

"The Golden Bed," adapted from Wallace Irwin's best-seller and "Picture" Review serial, is a fine social satire.

Featured in the principal roles are Ired La Roque, Vera Reynolds, Lillian Rich, Warner Baxter, Theatrical Review serial, is a fine social satire.

Cowboy Actors Thought the Cities Need a Thrill.

A dignified, scornful latter and other serving men, equally as dignified and equally as scornful, furnish great temptation for the use of the long barreled big calibre revolvers carried by William Desmond and the five cowboys who romp with the star through the rapidity of action in "Ridin' Pretty." Universal picture now being screened at the Star theater.

However, the cowboys restrain themselves, all except Barb Wire, and that irate person considers that he has been insulted and endangered by gargoyles that are ranged along the roof-edge of the mansion in which the cowboys are domiciled as the result of a strange happening.

"Mary the Third" Is Screened as "Wine of Youth."

King Vidor, the brilliant young Metro-Goldwyn director, is producing himself one of the most versatile of the Hollywood megaphone kings.

His latest production, "Wine of Youth," at Sherry's now, a film version of Rachael Crothers' stage success, "Mary the Third," is a highly original and entertaining as it is successful.

"Ridin' Pretty" tells the story of a cowboy, Sky Parker, personated by Desmond, who has been left a fortune by an uncle with the proviso that he lives for a year in the mansion of the uncle. He brings with him some of his range pals and they have strange adventures in the big city—adventures in which they play a part, traffic is obstructed and society women get a thrill.

The drama is supplied by a beautiful young woman and a sleek, lounge lizard type of man who conspire to prevent the heir from coming into his inheritance. And this plot also supplies the love interest, for Sky falls in love with the fair computer and she falls in love with him, much to the chagrin of her fellow schemer.

Desmond is supported by Ann Forrest as leading woman and by Billy Sullivan, Stanhope Wheatcroft, Frank Rice, Billy Gillis and Tex Young, the latter genuine cowboys and members of the famous Universal "Ranch Riders," under Arthur Rosson's direction.

AUSTRALIA'S WHEAT YIELD SHOWS STRONG INCREASE

MELBOURNE (AP)—Australia's 1924-25 wheat yield is officially estimated at more than 100,000,000 bushels, an increase of 26,000,000 bushels as compared with the yield of 1923-24. Farmers are receiving the highest prices they have received since the World war.

Starting March 23, Monday night for an engagement of two days the Arcade theater will house the Brandon Opera company, an organization of fifty gifted voices that made such a deep impression here ten years ago at the American Light Opera company. The repertoire includes "The Bohemian Girl," which will be presented Monday evening and "The Chocolate Soldier" on Tuesday evening.

Local music lovers need not be reminded of the youthful vigor and singing ability of the principals, among whom are: Theo Pennington, prima donna soprano; Harry Proll, tenor; Carl Bundeck, baritone; Ed Andrews, comedian; Irma Tice, contralto; George Olson, tenor and Chester Bright, basso. The Brandon Opera company is billed as "the best light opera organization in America." More than 1,000,000 music lovers have so acclaimed in the past three years. The chorus under the able direc-
