

NEWS of SOCIETY

Mrs. C. M. Riddle was hostess to the Parkdale club yesterday afternoon at her home in May Park. The home was attractively decorated with spring flowers and pussy willows and a St. Patrick's program was featured. Each member responded with an Irish story and several Irish songs, including "The Little Irish Rose," "Where the River Shannon Flows" and "The Wearing of the Green," were rendered by these present accompanied by Mrs. Cass at the piano.

The St. Patrick's Day idea was also carried out in the dainty two course luncheon served at the close of the meeting.

The Bible Searchers Class of the Presbyterian church met yesterday in the community room of the church for its regular monthly social meeting. Mrs. O. E. Silverthorn was hostess for the afternoon. At an appropriate hour luncheon was served with Mrs. Turner Oliver presiding at toastmistress. Mrs. Robert Eakin, Miss Margaret Anson, Mrs. H. H. Cleaver and Mrs. Harry Turner responded.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist Episcopal church held a most delightful meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Allen, 1544 Fourth street. Mrs. E. G. Keith read the devotional and Mrs. Sherwood Williams, president, presided at the business meeting. The first division was in charge of the entertainment for the afternoon. Miss Mildred Webb rendered several beautiful vocal numbers and Miss Helen Williams played several piano selections. Mrs. A. W. Leffel and Mrs. Thomas Weisinger gave readings.

At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served by the committee in charge, consisting of Mrs. S. C. Smith, Mrs. Charlotte Williams, Mrs. A. W. Leffel, Mrs. James Moss, Mrs. S. G. Coleman, Mrs. Ella Doty and Mrs. Coppinger.

Over twenty young people were present last evening when the R. T. P. U. gave a St. Patrick's party in the Baptist church basement. The rooms were cleverly decorated in accordance with the occasion, in a color scheme of green and white, and games appropriate for the event were played.

Delicious refreshments were served at an appropriate hour.

Flower Blooms In Dark

THIS new Paris dress won't be for the flapper who is not averse to "a kiss in the dark." A large phosphorescent flower, just below the waistline, is its only decoration.

Home Decoration Topic At Fuller Co. Meeting

"One of the chief topics of discussion at a recent meeting of the W. P. Fuller & Co. branch managers was the importance of color in decoration of the home," K. L. Haman, of the Johnston-Ayres company, has stated.

Otis N. Johnson, of the Fuller company, offered a few suggestions as to the color schemes for various rooms, saying "the dining room should be one of the most cheerful and inspiring rooms of the house. It is the place where the family gathers to enjoy meals together and nothing insures a better start than having breakfast in a bright and cheerful room. * * * The walls may be done in some light, cloudy landscape paper, or in a small all-over pattern in light cream, buff, gray, tan or putty color."

Argentines Like Baseball But Lack Good Pitchers

BUENOS AIRES, (AP)—Baseball has at last gained a place among Argentine sports, though as yet a small one. Two teams composed of natives have been organized, coached by Americans, one representing the Buenos Aires Y. M. C. A., the other the Gymnasium and Fencing Club, the principal athletic club of Buenos Aires.

YOU POOR KID, WHY ARE YOU SO SKINNY

Don't your mother know that Cod Liver Oil will put pounds of good healthy flesh on your bones in just a few weeks?

Tell her every druggist has it in sugar-coated tablet form now so that you won't have to take the nasty, fishy-tasting oil that is apt to upset your delicate stomach.

Tell her that McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets are choicest of vitalizing vitamins and are the greatest flesh producers and health builders she can find.

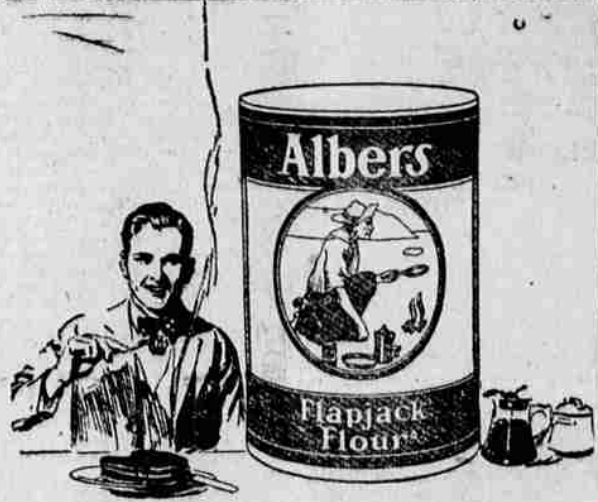

One sickly thin kid, age 9, gained 13 pounds in 7 months. She must ask Red Cross Drug Co., Glass Drugs, Inc., 1 & 1 Deuz Ave., or any good druggist for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—the original and genuine—40 tablets—40 cents—a pleasant to take as candy.—Adv.

Minerva Says---

Women are buying shoes as they buy hats—they know that a smart hat and smart shoes make a costume. How often, when she wants to look her best, she chooses a new hat and new shoes to add a new charm to the becoming dress or suit she has? Therefore she must choose shoes with careful understanding of garment styles and we want to let women know that our Store presents shoes in harmony with the correct garment styles and modes.

—how they satisfy the "inner man"!

GOOD MORNING! Good cheer! Good nourishment! All three piled high on a man's plate when mother turns out Flapjacks!

How they satisfy the "inner man"—these fine, upstanding hot cakes! How they start the sunshine ball a-rolling! Notice the man who goes in for Flapjacks in the morning. They're the men who "eat up" work the rest of the day!

And—just this word of friendly caution to mother: don't make the mistake of serving Flapjacks at the end of a hearty breakfast. They deserve first place on the morning menu.

Fruit, Flapjacks, syrup and coffee are enough for any man with a right good morning appetite. Easy to make. Economical to serve. Simply add a little water or milk and bake on a hot griddle.

Say "Flapjack" to your grocer—he'll know.
