Sherrys Showing Harry Carey in "Soft Shoes."

Harry Carey in "Soft Shoes" is the easy-going sheriff of Boulder, a small western town. He gets a legacy of several thousand dollars and decides to go to San Francisco to see the sights. His experience in "seeing them" makes a most interesting story. Comedy showing Larry Semon in "Kid Speed."

"The Golden Bed" Now Showing at Arcade Theater.

Four acts crawling on a huge river of ice. Closing, two men bickering as to who shall get a snow-flower at the edge of a half-mile deep crevasse. A guide and a woman watching. Hot words born of jealousy, a guide rope severed, two men falling.

"Chocolate Soldier," Coming Here, Based On Shaw's Comedy.

The story of "The Chocolate Soldier" which will be the offering of the Brandon Opera company.

That Horse Tony Is a Leaping Fool But He Sure Has Brains!

A local news reporter in Los Angeles, securing a good feature story when Tom Mix jumped his horse from the roof of a two story "dobe building" to the ground in progressive leaps from one gallery to another, while making scenes for "The Last of the Duques."

Unafraid to Try Out Flax.

PENDLETON, Ore.—Five varieties of oats, eight of barley and five of flax were sown in the county grain nursery here by G. A. Mitchell, assistant superintendent of the Moro experiment station, and Fred Bennion, flax is an experiment. The county annually grows several thousand acres of barley, and oats can be grown here. The seedling here followed similar work in the county nurseries at Lone, Heppner and Condon.

Organization of Specialists Portland and Seattle Offices

THE unparalleled success of the Dr. Chas. J. Dean non-surgical method of treating Piles and other rectal and colon ailments has built an organization of highly trained specialists to care for the patients who come from all parts of the West.

places were narrow and a slip meant not only a relapse but possible serious injury, maybe to both of us. It seemed as if Tony knew just what he was up against. He was deliberate and his action was as smooth as an engineer's time-piece. He didn't balk and he didn't hurry himself. I just stayed on his back and he did the rest. There's only one way to explain it. That Tony horse has brains.

This reporter shot over another question. "But didn't you have to guide the horse? He never could have done it alone."

"Don't you think so? Well, the act is still standing. I'll get Tony and maybe he'll surprise you."

Tom took Tony to the starting place and pointed to the galleries below. He stroked the animal's neck and then asked clear of him. "Go to it, old boy?"

Tony needed no more bidding. He went through the stunt as if his master were riding him. The reporter wrote the story as Tom had given it.

"The Last of the Duques," Zane Grey's tale, will be seen at the Star for three days starting today.

many at the Arcade theater on next Tuesday night, March 24, is based on George Bernard Shaw's brilliant satirical comedy "Arms and the Man." The opera closely follows the incidents, situations and structure of the original story. The scene of the opera is laid near Dragoman Pass, Bulgaria, 1855. Serbia and Bulgaria are at war. The family of Colonel Popoff, of the Bulgarian army, consisting of the daughter Nadina, her cousin Mascha, and the mother Aurelia, are ensconced in their home, fearful of the approaching engagement of the conflicting armies. Nadina, a romantic maiden, is in love with Alexing, a young Bulgarian who has become a hero amongst his countrymen for his brilliant capture of the Serbian army, consisting of this young officer is identified by Nadina and she is filled with complete admiration for his conquests.

Later Bismert, a young Swiss officer, attached to the commissary department of the Serbian forces, is attacked by the patriot, who he eludes by climbing into Nadina's boudoir. His escape manifested at the chapel of the normal school on the evening of March 14. All orations were good. The Bible school of the university won first prize, Williams university second, Pacific college fourth. Music for the occasion was furnished by the normal school orchestra. After the program a banquet was served.

The Dorcas society of the Christian church served a Blarney tea at the Old Fellows' hall, March 12. A picnic was offered for the prettiest table and was won by Mrs. Chambers. The program for the afternoon consisted of music and recitation.

The students' annual prom was held Saturday evening. The symposium was beautifully decorated in commemoration of St. Patrick's day. Forty or more students will graduate from this school this spring.

MONMOUTH (Special)—The Intercollegiate Oratorical association of Oregon held their yearly convocation at the chapel of the normal school on the evening of March 14. All orations were good. The Bible school of the university won first prize, Williams university second, Pacific college fourth. Music for the occasion was furnished by the normal school orchestra. After the program a banquet was served.
