Following the business meeting Mrs. Clyde Seltz gave several readings from "Irish Fairy and Folk Tales" by William Butler Yeats, whom people please and folk history won for him the Nobel prize in 1922.

Hints for the Housewife

Luncheon should be the most attractive meal to prepare, since there are such endless possibilities of combinations of dishes and courses. It need not represent the left-overs from dinner just "warmed up" with no attempt to disguise their origin. Every kitchen cupboard should have its emergency shelf with the makings of several meals and as fast as these are used, they should be replaced. This shelf may contain cans of fish, deviled ham, chicken, vegetables, olives, cherries, apples, fruits, macaroni spaghetti, and materials for making muffins, coffee cake, etc.

Brown Betty for dessert is easily prepared and may even be baked while the luncheon is being served. It utilizes stale bread and gives all the food requirements plus the vitamins and iron. Macaroni Mousse very popular just now and so attractive served in individual baking dishes. Fruit cups are nice to start a luncheon with, for though the fruit may have little value as a source of energy, it contains elements which have more or less stimulating action on the kidneys and some of them have a laxative effect.

Never-Fail Tomato Soup 4 tbsp. butter 3 tsp. salt 1-8 tsp. soda 1 cup strained tomatoes 2 cups milk Dash of pepper 2 tsp. flour Melt butter and add flour, stirring constantly to prevent lumping. Stir in tomatoes and cook for five minutes. Add soda, seasonings and milk last. Serve hot. This amount serves four people.

Macaroni Mousse 1 cup uncooked macaroni 2 cups hot cream 2 cups soft bread crumbs 2 tsp. salt 2 pimento pods chopped fine 2 tsp. parsley chopped fine 2 tsp. onion juice 1 cup melted butter 2 eggs beaten separately Cook macaroni in boiling salted water 20 minutes. Mix ingredients in order given and fold in stiffly beaten whites of eggs last. Bake in moderate oven 35 minutes. Put mold tin in pans of hot water. Serve with mushroom sauce, Garsish with parsley and pimento strips. This amount serves 12 to 14 people.

Brown Betty 1 quart stale bread crumbs 1 quart sliced apples 1 cup brown sugar 1 cup sugar 1 tsp. cinnamon 3 to 1 cup water Juice and rind of 1 lemon 1 tsp. nutmeg 1 cup butter Method: Butter a baking dish.

FARMERS BUSY WITH PLOWING

WALLOWA, Ore. (Special) — Prof. T. S. Baile and wife were La Grande visitors the last of the week.

Peter Crow of Lostine was among the visitors here the last of the week.

A number of the farmers in the valley have commenced plowing, some of them are breaking sod, while a few have been able to start plowing old ground on the well drained places. The storms of the past week have kept the surface of the ground from drying off very fast.

H. C. Roggs of Lower valley was at his ranch in the hills during the past week, getting things in shape to commence farming in a short time.

Elmer Biggs of Lostine was a business visitor here the latter part of the week.

Reports from the sale held at the Al Thompson ranch near Lostine last Thursday tell of some very good prices received for dairy cows and other stock sold.

The cows are reported to have sold at prices ranging from $50 to $185 per head. Other stock including horses, hogs and some poultry are said to have brought very good prices. Apparently this indicates an increasing confidence and a more optimistic outlook on the part of the general public toward continued improvement in agricultural conditions in this part of the country.

The work on resurfacing the stretch of highway between here and Lostine is said to be going quite slowly. The stormy condition of the weather during the past few weeks, has made the work more difficult.

J. E. Pace, who has traded his farm in the valley a few miles east of town for a dairy ranch at Stanfield, expects to leave shortly for his new home. Mr. Pace has been a resident of this section of the country for about thirty years, and his many friends regret to see him leave.

Light snow flurries continue to fall here nearly every day, keeping the ground wet up considerably. The starting of farm work in the hill sections has been considerably delayed by the storms.

G. H. Beam and "Bill" Skelton left recently for a trip to Pine and Eagle valleys, where they will look over the country, with a view to locating there.

T. G. Johnson came home recently from the north woods where he has been logging for the past several months. He has finished his contracts.

Quite a number of persons over the country are still suffering from the severe colds and influenza.
