Well Known Fraternity Invited To Dedicate Southern Memorial WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP)—A copy of the Apollo room of the Raleigh Tavern, famous old colonial history where the international honorary scholastic society of Phi Beta Kappa is believed to have been founded, has been provided for in plans drawn for the construction of the College of William and Mary campus here of a $100,000 memorial building honoring the 50 men who founded the society in 1776. The building will be of red brick and will conform in its outline to the general style of the rest of the college buildings.

From the campus of William and Mary, the Phi Beta Kappa society has extended over most of the civilized world. Chapters are situated at the majority of the larger American colleges and there are alumni chapters in many foreign countries. All these will be asked to take part in the dedication of the memorial, which probably will be in December, 1925.

Hints for the Housewife

EGGPLANT NORMANDY

The French have a rather unique way of preparing this vegetable. The result is much tastier than the American style and much more attractive.

Allow half an eggplant for each serving. Cut the plants in halves without paring, and fry in deep fat from five to eight minutes. Then drain, and with a spoon scoop out the centers of the plants, and chop this portion fine.

To three eggplants, which make six servings, allow one large onion, two tablespoonsful of butter, two cupfuls of soft bread crumbs, one quarter cupful mushrooms cut in small pieces, three quarters cupful of juice from canned or stewed tomatoes, one and one-half teaspoonfuls of salt and one quarter teaspoonful pepper. Chop the onion and saute it in the butter in an enameled ware saucepan. Add the chopped portion of the eggplant. When all are nicely browned, add the seasoning and tomato juice. Enameled ware is impervious to the action of vegetable acids so that the utensil will not be affected by the tomato juice and the food will not be discolored.

Fill each eggplant shell with the mixture, sprinkle with a few dried bread crumbs and chopped parsley. Bake in a hot oven until browned.

CURRIED SHRIMP WEST INDIES STYLE

Although it is not often that the French like other people's cooking better than their own, a French girl who has spent a number of years in the West Indies thinks this dish surpasses many that are made in her own country.

Slice one onion into thin pieces and fry a little in two tablespoonfuls of shredded coconut, one tablespoonful of curry powder, one boiling water. Simmer in an enameled ware saucepan for an hour. Then add one cupful of fresh, cooked shrimp, or canned shrimp, and a tablespoonful of lemon juice, the citrus acid juice of which, will not impair the vitreous surface of the enameled ware. Let this mixture boil for a few minutes, until all are thoroughly blended.

Arrange one cupful of freshly boiled rice in a serving dish and pour the shrimp mixture over it.

Chinese Pupils Resent Control by Foreigners

FOOCHOW (AP)—To forestall a proposed strike by students, the Anglo-Chinese college, a middle school here, supported by the Methodist Episcopal church, has been closed, the faculty declaring that it intends to maintain control rather than surrender to student domination even if it results in permanent dissolution of the school.

The proposal to strike was the result of the faculty's refusal to observe a holiday which none of the government schools in Foochow recognizes.

The school has recently made long strides in the direction of Chinese control. Fifteen months ago there were 15 foreigners on the staff. Now there are only five. The places of the others have been filled by Chinese of similar educational standards. In addition both deans are now Chinese. One of the latter was established last spring, supposedly by students who were angered by one of his rulings. The students in their propaganda are promoting an anti-Christian sentiment.

Sunday Papers Described LIVERPOOL (AP)—Sunday newspapers in England have an aggregate circulation of 11,800,000, according to the Rev. J. J. Armistead, who finds the influence of those journals to be lacking in Christianity. To their readers they say in substance, according to the investigator: "You can do without God; let us be pagans."

Dr. Armistead declares that in 157 columns of reading matter, only six columns mentioned anything suggesting the Christian religion.

Wynne Ferguson Author of 'Ferguson on Auction Bridge' gives you these EASY LESSONS IN AUCTION BRIDGE Copyright 1924 by Hoyle, Jr.

One of the writer's correspondents had for missing suit, then, of course, the dealer should not subsequently bid no-trump, but if his partner should bid the missing suit, then the dealer should bid this no-trump on the second round of bidding. A singleton or a void suit is a danger point for a no-trump and the best procedure is to first bid a suit and only after the bidding at that time make such a course necessary or expedient.

The following hands represent second no-trump bids by the dealer: Hearts—Q, S, 2 Clubs—K, J, 4 Diamonds—A, Q, 5 Spades—7, 6, 4, 3 Hearts—Q, 7, 4 Clubs—K, 4, 1 Diamonds—A, Q, 6, 4, 2 Spades—K, J, 7 Hearts—10, 7, 6, 2 Clubs—K, J, 4 Diamonds—K, 10, 9, 2 Spades—A, 4

All of these contain at least two quick tricks and the distribution is of such a nature that there is a reasonable chance to make the bid. The following bids, however, are not justifiable no-trump bids, even though they contain the necessary quick-trick strength. The distribution is of such a nature that the suit in bold print should be bid, rather than the no-trump.

Hearts—3, 7, 4, 2 Clubs—None Diamonds—A, K, 10, 7 Spades—K, J, 10, 4, 3 Hearts—A, S, 4, 2 Clubs—A, 10, 9, 8, 2 Diamonds—A, 4 Spades—K, 7, 5 Hearts—4 Clubs—Q, 7, 6, 4 Diamonds—A, Q, 6, 4, 2 Spades—K, J, 7

If the opponents hold the missing suit, they will bid it against a suit bid but sit tight and lead if against a no-trump bid. Prefer a suit to the no-trump when the hand contains a singleton or void suit, and you will win many a game and rubber not otherwise possible.

Problem No. 8 Hearts—J, 7 Clubs—K, Q, J, 10, 9 Diamonds—None Spades—Q, J, 7 Hearts—A, S, 4, 2 Clubs—None Diamonds—None Spades—A, 10, 9, 7, 4

PAUING ORDINANCE DIES HOOD RIVER, Ore.—Prospects for an early improvement of streets carrying the traffic of the Columbia highway through Hood River went a-buzzing when the city council, on second reading of an ordinance providing construction of 18-foot concrete pavement for the west end of Cascade avenue and Oak street by assessment to property owners, voted five to one against it.

While a petition favoring the street improvement was presented by downtown merchants, whose places of business are along Oak street, a remonstrance, signed generally by Oak street property owners, opposed the work. Discussion grew heated and James Stranahan, the single councilman supporting the paving ordinance, charged that it was defeated by business interests along Cascade avenue, who sought to prevent diversion of cross-town traffic from their thoroughfares.

Portland Speeder Fined. HOOD RIVER, Ore.—Claude Starr, owner of the Sovereign and Columbia Gorge hotels, was fined $20 by Justice of the Peace Blagden on a charge of speeding on the Columbia river highway. Traffic Officer Stout, who apprehended the Portland man, stated he was traveling at the rate of 50 miles an hour.
