La Grande Theatres

Sherrys Showing "White Man" Today and Tomorrow.

"White Man" contains some extraordinary acting by the well known film favorites who make up its cast. Alice Joyce, who makes her return to pictures in this vehicle, is more beautiful than ever before and quite convincing in what she still holds a conspicuous place among the supreme actresses that the screen has yet produced.

Rough and Tumble Screen Fight in "Devil's Cargo."

Wallace Berry and William Collier, Jr. have challenged each other to a finish fight with bare fists and boot heels. The battle is to take place in La Grande today. The place in the Star theater—and there is no way of cancelling the battle other than by changing play dates of Victor Fleming's latest production for Paramount, "The Devil's Cargo," in which the beligerent pair are featured with Pauline Starke and Claire Adams in the leading roles.

Neighbors' Talk Causes Torment To Many People.

Larry Calkins believed that he loved his foster sister, and he believed also that his elder brother, Johnny, loved her. But it was not until the eve of his departure for France, a soldier, that Larry won the girl's promise to be his bride when he returned.

He told his brother of the promise, and also told him that there had been a bitter quarrel with the uncle who was executor of the little farm estate where the boys, their foster sister and their widowed mother lived. Then he went away.

As the result of the quarrel the uncle died and the brother left behind was accused of having murdered him. The brother stoically stood trial, caring only to protect his younger brother. He was acquitted but the neighbors believed him guilty. The odium they heaped upon him became intensified when the mother died and left the son and his sister to maintain the little home until the homecoming of the "guilty" one from France. And the brother did return, a hero, medalled, and pride of the whole town.

The misery that these two suffered at the instrumentality of the harshly, narrow minded men and women, they had believed their friends to described in a dramatic manner in "The Slanderers." Universal feature now being shown on the screen in the Arcade theater. The picture play, adapted from the McCall magazine short

27 YEARS AGO

Daily Morning Observer, March 24, 1898.—The people in the lower end of the Willamette valley woke up on the morning of the 20th to find a heavy frost upon their fruit bloom. The peach crop about Portland has been postponed to another year and all early fruit was seriously injured.

Everett George Ellis, pastor of the Baptist Church at Baker City is starting his sabbatical. Mrs. Crandall of this city this week.

Miss Mae Stephens returned from Elgin yesterday where she has been making arrangements in regard to the entertainment to be given Wednesday.

Mr. True, a late arrival from Kansas has purchased the La Buft farm from George Wilkinson yesterday. Mr. True started back to Kansas for his wife and family.

Maudie Parker and Ben Noyes completed the course in office routine and bookkeeping last week.

Cove—Several inches of snow fell here Sunday night and the weather is unusually cold.

The public school closes here this week. An entertainment will be given Saturday evening.

Horses to Draw Heaves. HOOD RIVER, Ore.—Dr. M. E. Welch, county veterinarian here for the last 25 years, will pay his last tribute to the horse when he rides to his last resting place in a circus.

Dr. Welch's fondness for horses was first aroused 40 years ago, when he was a boy bareback rider in a circus. He developed into a jockey later and a driver of trotting and pacing. An old horse-drawn hearse was withdrawn from storage at the Pashon stables where it has remained unused for 10 years.

Spooners Are Punished

PENDELTON, Ore.—Spoonering parties in automobiles parked along sides of roads in Umatilla county will face arrest and charges in court, according to J. T. Cookingham, sheriff. He said he had instructed his deputies to investigate every car standing along roads after dark.

The statement following a case in court when Charles Owens and a woman with whom he was found in a car on a country road south of Pendleton pleaded guilty to a statutory charge. They were each fined $100 and costs when they entered pleas of guilty. The woman was charged on a damn libe warrant.

Berlin Flocks to See Product of Its Tailors

BERLIN (AP)—Ready-made clothes had their lining at the German capital recently when the first Berlin clothing fair was held on the new exhibition grounds on which, in rapid succession, there have been held the radio, the automobile, and now the clothing fairs.

Over 1,000 firms applied for space in the three large halls set aside for the purpose. It was the

What My Neighbor Says

Is of Interest to La Grande Folks

When one has had the misfortune to suffer from backache, headaches, dizziness, urinary disorders and other kidney ailments and has found relief from all this misery and suffering, that person's advice is of untold value to friends and neighbors. The following case is only one of many thousands, but it is that of a La Grande resident. Who could ask for a better example?

Mrs. C. I. Johnson, 302 Spring street, La Grande, says: "Kidney disorder caused pain across my back. My head ached and I had severe dizzy spells and could hardly walk across the floor. My kidneys acted irregularly and I felt miserable. After taking Don's Pills I was free of kidney trouble."

FOUR YEARS LATER, Mrs. Johnson said: "I have never had anything do me as much good as Don's. When my kidneys trouble me, they are sure to give relief."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Don's Pills—the same that Mrs. Johnson had. Foster-McBarn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y., Adv.
