STORE AT NEEDY BURNED

CANBY, Ore.—Fire destroyed the store building at Needy and its contents. There had been a dance in the hall over the store Saturday night and it was believed a cigarette stub thrown into rubbish in the hall caused the blaze. The building and stock of general merchandise had just been purchased from Ray Nash by his cousin, J. W. Nash of Portland. It was understood the loss was partly covered by insurance.

Just A Few Cents A Line

Publicity is necessary for any business transaction. If you sell an article, or your own services, or the use of a house or office, it requires publicity to the extent of reaching the person with whom you deal.

To serve best that publicity must be economical as well as adequate. You can buy that variety in Observer Want Ads every day. The cost is only a few cents a line—yet, you reach over 12,000 prospects.

"AN OBSERVER WANT AD WILL DO IT."

FARM PRODUCTS OF INDIANS SHOW LARGE INCREASE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The title lad who has a weakness for war paint, feathers and Indian tales may take heart at the Indian bureau's announcement that there are still 245,000 of these primitive Americans in the land.

The attention of the Sixty-ninth Congress will be called to the fact that, unless the nation's lawmakers make other provisions, the period of government wardship in the five civilized tribes will expire in 1931. There are about 17,000 Indians under Federal supervision in the five civilized tribes and over the country the Bureau of Indian Affairs has 200,000 "restricted" Indians, who are supervised.

The Indians themselves, Indian Bureau officials say, are anxious to have the restriction extended, as they desire government guardianship to conserve their lands.

Under the June 1924 law, all native-born Indians are now citizens of the United States, many of whom are under wardship. There are 150 tribes of Indians now in the country, many of them being small groups.

The number of Indian children in schools, the health appropriations by congress, Indian hospitals and the value of farm products raised by these citizens have materially increased in the past decade. Farming and stock raising have developed appreciably among the Indians, and large sums of money are being spent by the government on irrigation projects on their lands, the Indians being the country's first irrigators. The Navajo Indians in particular are great sheep raisers, their women being noted weavers of blankets.

McDonald Is One Producer Who Sticks to Realism.

With the release of "A Self-Made Failure," Producer J. K. McDonald has established a record for consistency as a successful producer of feature pictures.

When a new producer turned out "Penrod and Sam" the picture world marveled. When he produced "Boy of Mine" it was considered miraculous, and now with the release of "A Self-Made Failure," which is coming to the Arcade theater Friday, McDonald is beginning to assume the role of a production personality.

J. K. McDonald's success may be summed up in the fact that he is conscientious and unassuming. He has not let success go to his head. He keeps driving at the same objective—human stories, human characters and—human pictures.

One of the great critics has complimented him for the cinema hall of fame. He has produced three remarkable screen and has often succeeded in a row—and within one year!

McDonald has done something that no producer has done for a long time. He has produced three remarkable screen and has often succeeded in a row—and within one year!

Fox Lands Another Stage Success in "Gold Heels"

Motion picture fans will welcome the report from Hollywood announcing the completion, in the William Fox West Coast Studios, of that famous racing melodrama "Gold Heels" by Henry M. Bloom, Jr., under the title "Gold Heels." The picture comes to the Star theater Friday for a three-day run.

Robert Agnew plays the leading role in this production which was directed by W. S. Van Dyke. In the role of "Cheekers" Campbell, picturesque jockey, Agnew comes to the fore a cherry faced young man with snap and pep.

Opposite the young actor is Peggy Shaw playing the role of "Peg" Harlow, the heroine, whose daring auto drive brings "Cheekers" horse removal to the track, thereby making possible his start and final victory in the $10,000 stake race.

Others in the cast of "Gold Heels" who are assigned principal parts are Lucien Littlefield, who offers a brand new interpretation of that famous race track character "Tish" Miller, William Norton, Bailey as Arthur, Kondaly, Harry Tracy as Tobe, another character to be found wherever the sport of kings prevails; Carl Stockdale as Judge Barlow, father of "Peg"; Winifred Landis whose faith in "Cheekers" cannot be shaken, and Katherine Craig, who plays the role of Sadie Saunders. Other in the cast are Fred Butler, James Douglas, Buck Black and Betty Hibel.

The story of "Gold Heels" is too well known to be repeated in detail.

Beauty and Thrills in "White Man" At Sherrys Today.

What we believe to be one of the most unusual films shown in this city in many a day, "White Man" will recall to your mind that it is an adaptation of George Agnew Chamberlain's popular novel first published as a serial in the Woman's Home Companion and subsequently carried through many months at the top of the list of best-sellers.

It now comes to the screen as a Preferred Picture presented by R. P. Schulberg with Gasnier as director. The film version has preserved all the picturesque atmosphere of the book and his practically brought to life many thrilling moments that make it ideal picture material.

The story gets away to an interesting start when an aristocratic English girl flies in an aeroplane with an aviator she has never seen, rather than to marry a man she does not love. This perilous journey terminates in the jungles of Africa where adventures follow each other in quick succession.

An elephant hunt, a primitive battle between two native factions, a few of the stirring happenings that occur before the solution of this fascinating story is reached.

Comedy showing, "It's a Bear."

Hood River Frost is Harmless.

HOOD RIVER, Ore.—A minimum temperature of 27 was reported for lower valley points, while 24 was reported from the upper valley. A heavy frost prevailed, but orchardists reported that not even apricots, the only fruit in bloom, were injured. Following a clear, crisp day, the sky was clear, indicating further freezing temperatures. Orchardists declared that two weeks of such weather would be welcomed.

Dancing masters met in New York. Decided upon an international dance. The old one is the war dance.

Daily Morning Observer, March 25, 1898—Chas. Goodnow has the contract for building a new barn for Dr. Molitor, which will be built upon his residence property.

Geo. Devine, the tinner, is putting in steam pipes at the Hunter and Fox dry kiln. It will require about two thousand feet of pipe to furnish the kiln with steam.

Constable John Waldon has returned from Wallowa with the man Brooks and now has him under lock and key where he will be in safe keeping until such time as he is wanted for trial.

J. H. Peare, the jeweler, has an exhibition some genuine silverware which was sent direct to him from Ireland. Mr. Peare says he intends to send for some of the plate and endeavor to grow them here. He says he can see no reason why it can not be grown here as well as in Ireland.

A. H. Cherry has one hundred and twenty-five young chicks which were hatched just in time to see the landscape covered with snow. Mr. Cherry says he will probably have to put snow shoes on them if it lays on for any considerable time.

A wheat buying firm in Linnetta county on last Monday purchased 16,000 bushels of wheat, paying 65 cents a bushel.

The friends of little Miss Oliver and her parents remembering her sixteenth birthday anniversary decided to give her a party yesterday. Those who were present were: Misses Lena Lyman, Ida Fowler, Eva Robbs, Effie Simms, Lulu Oliver, Master Fred McCracken, Chas. Oliver, Claude Oliver, Willie Oliver, Geo. McJuffrey and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver.

CLATSkanie MAN KILLED.—CLATSkanie, Ore.—Everett E. Emmett, 22, a resident of Clatskanie for three months, was killed at the Benton Timber company camp when struck in the neck by a haul-back.

Mr. Emmett was married since his arrival here to Carrie Martin, who came from his old home of Kendrick, Idaho. Three sisters, one of whom, Mrs. Jean Bull, lives here, and the brother, survive. His father lives in Montana.
