CLASS TRACK MEET IS NEAR Oregon Five To Play At 8:00 Tonight

The first real opportunity to view the crop of track athletes in action will occur next Saturday morning provided the adverse weather conditions do not interfere.

At that time the captain of the four class teams will have their men ready to start to win honors for the class of '25, '26, '27 or '28, take their own choice.

The class captains are to be elected by popular vote tomorrow and will immediately set about lining up their teams for the meet at the end of the week.

All the track talent in the school will be out and the event is expected to bring forth some interesting competition.

Regular Events The meet will be run in the regular order of events with the 100 yard dash first and the pole vault, mile run, broad jump, 120 high hurdles, 440 yard dash, high jump, 220 yard dash, shot put, 880 yard run, discus, 320 yard low hurdles, javelin following in regular succession.

Prospects in general for a winning track team seem fairly hopeful although in most of the events men will have to be developed to give the Tigers a chance to take any of the money or third places so important in the final summing up of a meet.

So far low hurdles of winning caliber seem to be conspicuously absent with the exception of Sherwood, eastern Oregon record holder since last year.

Sherwood Heavier There seems some doubt as to whether Sherwood himself will be able to equal his time of 37 flat this season. Although a much more finished hurdler than last spring Sherwood seems to have taken on enough added weight to slow him down to some extent.

So far none of the contenders have shown much class at the middle distance. Pina seems the most hopeful prospect in the 440 but so far has failed to bring his time down to the winning class and will need to shave it several seconds in order to win many points.

Smuts and Bauman are being groomed for the half mile. There seems a possibility that Smuts may be able to clock off the event in reasonably good time before the end of the season but still needs a lot of training on the event.

SPECIAL MONDAY GAMES The Portland Beavers have five special Monday games scheduled at home this season: June 1, vs. Seattle; July 6, vs. Sacramento; August 2, vs. Seattle; August 10, vs. Vernon and October 2, vs. Salt Lake.

CHICAGO (By the Associated Press)—The greatest assemblage of high school basketball stars ever gathered together are ready for the opening round of the national interscholastic collegiate tournament conducted under the auspices of the University of Chicago.

The tournament drew a record breaking entry of 42 teams from 34 states, making a total of more than 400 players. Thirty-three of the teams are state champions. The south and the west opened hostilities when Miami, Fla., and Laramie, Wyo., both state champions, took the floor at 10 o'clock in the first game of the tournament.

Thereafter, games went on hourly, except at meal times. The championship will be decided Saturday night.

All sections of the country are represented in the competition. The last minute entries were from Southwestern high of Detroit, Detroit, Kan., and Urania, Ia. Western fives from the Rocky mountain region and beyond were so numerous that they traveled in a special train, made up at Greeley.

Today's games: 10 a. m.—Miami, Fla., vs. Laramie, Wyo. 11 a. m.—Beaumont, Texas vs. Devils Lake, N. D. 12 noon—Durham, N. C., vs. Helena, Mont. 1 p. m.—Marshallville, Gr. vs. St. George, Utah. 2 p. m.—El Reno, Okla., vs. Lakewood, Ohio. 3 p. m.—Greeley, Colo., vs. West Waterloo, Iowa. 4 p. m.—Waukegan, Ill., vs. Wheeling, W. Va. 5 p. m.—Wisconsin entry vs. Kansas City, Kan. 6 p. m.—Nashville, Tenn., vs. Mechanical Arts, St. Paul. 7 p. m.—Salem, S. COBB'S RECORD IMPOSING Ty Cobb, of the Detroit American, has an imposing batting record, having led his league 12 seasons, beginning in 1907 and ending in 1919.

Only once during that period was he displaced—that by Speaker, of Cleveland, in 1916.

Cobb's percentages ranged from .324 in 1908, to .420 in 1911. In 1922 Slator, St. Louis, also batted .420.

SIX 400 MARKS Six times during the past 25 years hitting kings in the American league batted .400 or better during the season. It started in 1901 when Lajoie hit .405. Cobb hit .410 and .420 in 1911 and 1912. Slator hit .407 and .420 in 1920 and 1922 and Helmann hit .403 in 1923.

THE "BEST" MEN In the Sporting News' record book for 1924 Washington's championship baseball team had its following players rated.

Among the 25 best batters: Goslin, 9th; Blee, 15th; Pruntho, 18th; McNeely, 20th. Walter Johnson was rated the best pitcher in the league and Zachary 7th best. Judge was second best first baseman, Harris 7th best second baseman, Pekinbaugh 4th best shortstop; Hauge 10th best third baseman; Matthews, 8th best outfielder and Liebard, 2nd best outfielder; Ruel, fifth best catcher. In team batting, Detroit, Cleveland, and St. Louis ranked above Washington, which led New York 22 points in the percentage column.

SWARTZ' DIMENSIONS Ledy Swartz, ex-La Grande pitcher, with the Brooklyn Dodgers this year, in 21 years of age, weighs 175 pounds, is five feet 10 inches high and hits and throws left handed. He's getting his first trial in the majors this spring.

HIT .438 Back in 1924 Duffy, of the Boston Nationals, led the league hitters for the season with a percentage of .438. That mark has never been equaled or bettered in big league baseball. The nearest approach was .432, hit by Keeler, of Baltimore, in 1897.

SUNDAY TRIAL SCORES GIVEN

The training of hunting dogs for the fall field trials started Sunday with six pairs of dogs in the field, each allowed 20 minutes to show its qualities.

Dogs were here from Baker and Halper as well as from La Grande. The following score will give dog owners an idea of the scoring method: ranging, backing, obedience, bird sense, flushing, breaking in, style or class.

Table with columns: Dog Name, Percentage. Includes Rex A., Patsy Boy, Queen Tut, Bally Boy, Rob Roy, Hazelnut, Bonnie, Mickey Doon, Webfoot.

In the list above the dogs are grouped in pairs, i. e., Rex A. and Prince of Monaco.

These trials will be held often and will be announced beforehand in these columns.

"We would like to ask dog owners to get out the next few Sundays as it will soon be nesting season and the law prohibits one from going in the fields with dogs," the committee in charge stated today.

SUNNY JIM TELLS HIS PART IN LA GRANDE "WALTZ"

The following account of Sunny Jim's side of the story in regard to the fight at La Grande Thursday night in which he and Tommy McCarthy were accused of "waltzing" and their share of the gate receipts held.

After knocking McCarthy down three times in the first round and knocking him out in the second Sunny Jim believed he had won and would receive his money, but it was not forthcoming. He was told he would have to wait until the following day, he says.

At a meeting of the commission the next day from which he declares, he and his manager were not allowed to defend themselves, the commission rendered its verdict of no money.

Jim says he and his manager had been given transportation to La Grande, but none with which to return to Portland. He also states that his manager told the La Grande commission that they had no money for return fare and received the abrupt answer, "Well, walk back."

FORD DISPLAY WEEK STARTS

The past week has seen great activity by Perkins Motor company, local Ford dealers, in preparation for "Ford Display Week," which opens on Monday, March 30th.

Spring housecleaning is as much of an annual event with Ford dealers as it is with the average housewife, but this year, in addition to having their sales rooms renovated and decorated, their shops and equipment made spotlessly clean, it was decided to have "Ford Display Week" for the entire territory.

As a result a number of Ford dealers have put on unusual displays of new and Guaranteed Used Cars.

Ford accessories, dash lights, rear view mirrors, spark plugs, batteries, etc., have also been given prominent places in dealers' displays.

MANY TIMES WINNER

The New York Nationals have won 11 pennants since 1883. Boston won nine since 1877. Chicago won 11 since 1876.

SOME WORLD SERIES

Back in 1887 the Detroit Nationals won the world series by defeating the St. Louis American Association team 10 games to 6. Fifteen games in a record for a world series—in fact, it looks almost like a bush-league season's schedule.

SOME SCORE!

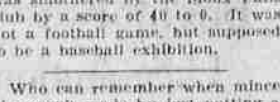

What is believed to be a record was made on July 17, 1924 at Sioux City, when the home team was smothered by the Sioux Falls club by a score of 40 to 6. It was not a football game, but supposed to be a baseball exhibition.

Radio Chats

(By Powell Crosby, Jr.) There are 24,000,000 owned homes in the United States. Of that number nearly 10,000,000 are equipped with some kind of a musical reproducing instrument—a phonograph, a piano-player, or what not.

Thirteen million are equipped with electrical service. Nearly 12,000,000 have motor cars.

From 3,000,000 to 5,000,000 have their own radio sets.

What a future for the radio industry? Some day every home will have its own radio.

An industry with such a future must necessarily shoulder real public responsibilities.

No industry can have such a close relationship to the public without having tremendous public obligations.

Radio is being conducted today for profit. Those in it are in it to make money. That is the purpose of all business. But no business—this may sound trite but it is just as true as it was the day it was first expressed—can prosper except on the basis of conscientious service to the public.

It was Abraham Lincoln who so well said that "without public sentiment nothing can succeed, with it nothing can fail."

That applies to radio. Radio broadcasting must be conducted for the benefit of the greatest number.

That of course is the purpose of the Department of Commerce of the United States Government in exercising supervision over radio and to the credit of that department let it be said that it has done well. But enormous problems face the industry today. From week to week we shall consider them.

Buicks are As Good As They Look

By the distinctive appearance of Buick motor cars, you may judge their inner quality. The same engineering thought that developed the Valve-in-Head engine, Sealed Chassis, automatic lubrication, Buick mechanical 4-wheel brakes, and like factors of superior performance, is also responsible for the grace and the symmetry of Buick body lines.
