OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

By Condo

he took up his abode, a boarder in the home of beautiful Sidney Page and her aunt, Virginia. Vall plays the part of Sidney. Her acquaintance with the stranger is a pleasant episode in her heretofore uneventful life, and she soon realized that the importunities of two determined but youthful sweethearts that she marry one of them have lost their zest for her, and she feels that the companionship of the stranger, precisely loved. Then arrives the man who is destined to bring misery into her life and into the lives of the others.

Percy Marmon, whose characterization of Mark Sabre in "If Winter Comes" has been acclaimed one of the outstanding portrayals of the screen, is cast in the part of K. LeMayne, the mysterious stranger.

Marguerite Fisher, who has a long list of successful screen appearances to her credit, portrays Carlotta Harrison, whose blind trust in a man resulted in her misery.

Others conveniently cast are John Roche as Dr. Max Wilson, Maurice Ryan and Francis Feeley as the two youthful sweethearts of the Sidney page, Myrtle Vane as the aunt and William A. Carroll as the father of Dr. Max.

Everything has heard of the Flying Horse, otherwise our old friend Pegasus, of Greek Mythology; but with the particulars of its amazing story. This, therefore, is a good time to brush up on your Greek Mythology for Douglas Fairbanks is coming in "The Thief of Baghdad," to be presented at the Arcade next week.

It will not, of course, require a bookish knowledge of the origin of Pegasus to enjoy the experience of seeing Doug astride this prodigy, dashing athwart the sky. The introduction of the Winged Horse in "The Thief of Baghdad" is, however, only one of the flabbergasting features of this most astonishing of photoplays—surpassing even in wonder its Magic Globe, which unveils the past and the future; the Enchanted Apple, which restores life to the dead; and the Magic Carpet on which you can fly over the housetops and into the sky.

Doug built this photoplay with the amazing theory: When the impossible is conceived in the brain—it exists!
