

CAMERAGRAMS

DEMURE! LOOKING Miss Orr Wilson, leader of London's younger society set. Her mother, Mrs. Ertle May Wilson, has been the acknowledged leader of London society for a number of seasons.

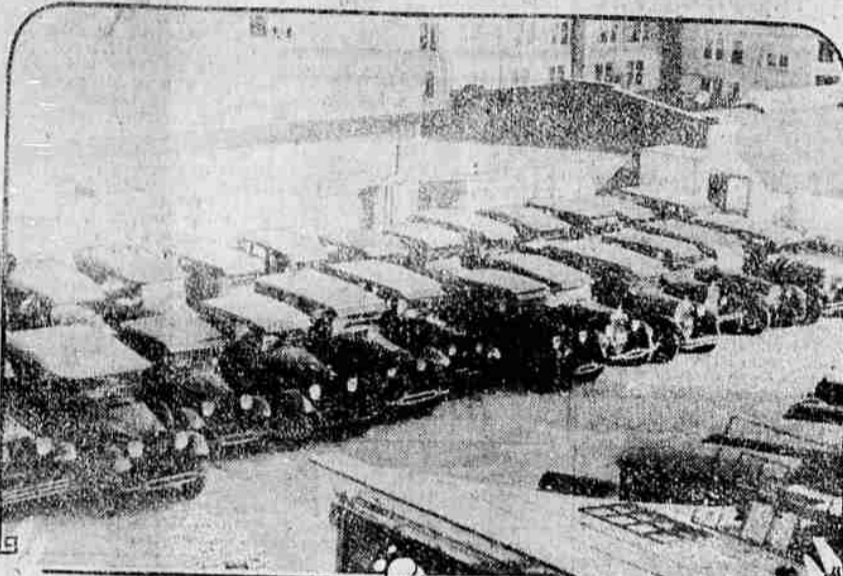

RIN-TIN-TIN of moving picture fame (left), Mrs. Rin-Tin-Tin or Naurette, and center, their family of nine future "movie stars." The gentleman is Lee Duncan, owner of the famous group.

UNCLE SAM FEEL that he owed the Blackfoot Indians something for the 1500 square miles now Glacier National Park, so this Teepee town is maintained at the gateway in commemoration of the gift. The land once was the best of the tribe's hunting ground.

A FOUR-LETTER WORD, meaning meat of a cow, but Leo does not seem to get the idea. Neither does Helene Conklin, with the pencil. Hardly the proper atmosphere for Helene to think.

ONE SOLUTION to the traffic problem. A Miami (Fla.) department store has a regularly equipped garage, and parking space for "customers' cars, on the roof of the building. Cars are taken to the roof and brought down by an attendant.

THIS SIX-FOOT globe, representing the earth surmounted by an airplane, designed by John Francis Permano, will be erected at Boston to mark the spot where the world flyers landed on their return from around the world, if the Massachusetts legislature can be persuaded to provide the funds.

WHILE JINGDES RANT of a possible war between Japan and the United States, San Francisco and American jockies are trying to show the Japanese that they, at least, are friendly. Jap warship "Izumo" in San Francisco harbor, and an American sailor fraternizing with a Jap.

M. JULES JUSSERAND'S successor as ambassador from France, Emile Darschner, Daeschner talked with Coolidge the other day and agreed that "nations should pay their debts."

MISS GERTRUDE SABLON, SNY, Rochester, N. Y., who knows as much about lumber as any individual in the United States.

WITH THE RECALL of Jules Jusserand, France's ambassador to the United States, Senor Don Juan Blano, ambassador from Spain, becomes sardonic of the Washington diplomatic corps.

ANOTHER CHAMPION here, Dottie Jean Metzler, two-year-old daughter of V. E. Metzler, Chicago Y. M. C. A. physical director. "The world's youngest equilibrist!" is the dad's proud boast.

A CLEAN JUMP, and an unusual picture of the horse's shadow, reflected in the water. Picture at a handicap steeple chase, Kenton Park, England.

ABOUT THE AGE when this picture was made, 10, Burton K. Wheeler's mother told him he'd grow up to be president. Well, he's now United States senator from Montana. Never can tell.

NEVER CLIMB A TREE when a bear chases you. The old saying that bears can't climb trees is all wrong. Look at the picture. Bruin is going right up. It's a Glacier National Park bear.

PSYCHOLOGISTS are unable to account for Ethel Leginska, internationally famous woman pianist. Miss Leginska mysteriously disappeared just before a scheduled concert in New York, and was completely lost to the world until she was found in the outskirts of Pittsburgh a few days later.

HERE WE HAVE Chief Justice George Sutherland. He is 62 years old, and was appointed to the bench by President Harding, Sept. 4, 1922.

THIS FAMOUS PAINTING of George Washington by Peale has been purchased by Daughters of the American Revolution, and will be hung in the Continental Memorial Hall at Washington.

NOT A NURSE MAID, but Miss Edna Martin, Century Matron picture actress, gets a lot of pleasure out of taking care of her friends' kiddies, she says.
