"LINE IS BUSY" ---
When you receive the report, "the line is busy" it means the line, not the telephone you called. There may be two, three or four telephones on the line. With one in use the others can not be called. Less labor is involved for the operator to complete a connection on the first call when she can than to report "line is busy" and be called again. She knows you will call again if she gives you a busy report. It lightens her burden to complete your call at once.

La Grande Theatres

Last Showing of "Ridin' Mad" at Sherrys Tonight.

Oh, boy! The Champion Cowboy of the World will be starred in "RIDIN' MAD," an Arrow-Bo Wilson release. Just repeat that phrase—World's Champion Cowboy! No fake riding earns that title—real, honest-to-goodness bucking bronchos with lashing hoofs, humped backs and wild, racing eyes have to be made out of his hand, and his riding has to be ahead of thousands of cowboys from all over the world.

Can't you on the title last year at Cheyenne, Wyo., and at Pendleton, Ore. He is the first and only one to ride "Tipperary," the famous Canadian outlaw horse—became a mean rider.

He at the theatre early because Canutt is not a sensation. Comedy Showing "Cout Getters."

Jones, as Man Who Played Square, Is Hit At Star Theater.

"The Man Who Played Square," the current attraction at the Star Theatre featuring the star, Bick Jones, is a very picturesque western cowboy film story that rings true, and it is great entertainment. A William Fox production written by the virile scenarist William Wallace Cook and directed by Al Santell, it is lavishly produced and is a logical dramatic romance.

The beautiful Wanda Hawley plays the leading feminine role and others in the cast include Ben Henderson, Jr., David "Red" Kirby, Hank Mann, Howard Foster, and William Post.

"Fronto" Black (Dick Jones) in response to a letter from his pal Steve (William Scott) sets out to find him. Approaching Steve's shack he is fired upon, but enters. He finds Steve, lying in bed wounded, had fired thinking that Black was Hank Spafford who had turned Steve to the lonely shack and had fired and wounded him from ambush.

Steve says that his father owns a half interest in the Gray Eagle mine, now run by Spafford who desires to kill him and become sole owner to the mine.

In the fight between Steve and Spafford the latter is wounded and dies. His daughter, Bertie, comes to the shack to get revenge upon Steve, but is met by Black.

He calms her and she employs Black as an amalgamator at the mine. At the mine he discovers a plot to oust Bertie from her control and a frame-up is made to convince Bertie that Black is simp-

27 YEARS AGO

Daily Morning Observer, April 11, 1925.—The Grande (Grande river) is quite high since the last rain.

Mrs. Julia Roach and 11th daughter, Anna, went to Portland last Saturday, where they will visit friends for a few weeks.

Prof. and Mrs. E. E. Bragg, of Hilgard, after spending Sunday with friends near this city returned home yesterday evening.

I. Hathaway left last evening for Cooks Inlet, Alaska, where he will endeavor to gather some of the shining metal which is said to be so plentiful there.

Judge Palko and his wife were in the city Saturday. The order the judge gets the more extensive his acquaintance and therefore the more numerous his friends.

The butcher business in this city has gone through several changes since Saturday morning.

E. E. Wilford purchased Mr. O'Tool's interest in the firm of Wilford and O'Tool and has also bought the butcher business heretofore conducted by Russell and Newby.

C. Elmer from near Summersville, was in La Grande Saturday and from him we learned that the farmers in his neighborhood have not got their spring crops in, but are making every day count in plowing, sowing and harrowing.

Mr. Elmer came from Kansas seven years ago and he is satisfied that this valley is a pleasant place to live than Kansas. J. P. DeLong purchased the eighty acre farm heretofore belonging to Edward Hughes Saturday. The farm is near Valeria school house. Mr. DeLong will take possession sometime during the week.

Messrs. J. M. Church and J. L. Doe left last evening for Astoria, where they go as delegates to the republican state convention which convenes April 14.

Architect Bennett is preparing plans for a neat modern dwelling for J. H. Cronmiller, former of the La Grande Chronicle.

If he advertises it, he knows it's good.
