The Spotlight

YOU'VE been in a theater when the stage was dark, and a spotlight suddenly focused upon the thing you wanted most to see. Advertisements are like spotlights. They focus attention upon the goods that interest you most.

You could wander in and out a dozen stores and, in the confusion of many objects, overlook what would please you best. Yet by reading the advertisements, without leaving your home you can tell definitely where the desired wares are, their prices, how they will serve you. You can know actual values long before you buy.

Advertisements throw light on new comforts and improvements, too, you might like to own. They let you see conveniences other folks are enjoying—bring them within easy reach.

Let these spotlights guide you to standard goods. They'll help you save. Read the advertisements regularly.

Dr. Charles Krusemark of Chicago who treated Mrs. McClintock mother of William McClintock whose death is being probed, has told authorities that no mercury medicine were given to Mrs. McClintock that might have caused her fatal illness. An autopsy on the body shows traces of both lead and mercury. The autopsy was part of an investigation being made by the state in its case against William Sheppard accused of young McClintock's death.

An Investment Guaranteed and Recommended By Ten of the Best Business and Professional Men In La Grande

The La Grande Building & Loan Association is backed by the ten members of its Board of Directors, ten of the most successful and best business men in the city, and a return of 7% compounded semi-annually is guaranteed by them.

They are: Dr. A. L. Richardson, Wm. Siegrist, A. J. Stange, A. T. Hill, H. E. Coolidge, T. J. Scroggin, J. J. Carr, Frank Phy, Lester Stoddard, Floyd McKennon.

They recommend Building & Loan stock to the investor because it is secured by first mortgages equal to more than twice the amount of the loans made—with securities to that amount deposited with the state of Oregon—because it offers a good rate of interest on small savings or large as they are accumulated, and because it keeps Union county investments at home where they help build and develop the home communities.

You may purchase investment units of $100 or more in small monthly payments. Investigate this investment in detail today! Come in or ask a representative to call.
