MATHEWSON IMPROVES
SARASOTA LAKE, N. Y. (AP)—Christy Mathewson, president of the Boston National league baseball club is recovering from a cold at his home here. The former pitching ace of baseball, who won a valiant fight against tuberculosis prior to his return to the game as a pitcher, is in good health and his condition cannot be considered serious, his physicians said Wednesday.

DUNDEE DEFEATED

Baseball's Largest Hands

Billy Evans Says

DOUBLE CROSS
Looks very much as if the old double cross is being slipped some one in the heavyweight wrestling class.

When Wayne Mann, "Sunkin' bushes" won the championship by defeating that veteran war horse, Ed "Strangler" Lewis, the sport world was shocked.

However, the rise of a new champion, who didn't appear to capture it as per schedule, was hailed everywhere as a good thing for the wrestling game, which has been much muzzed up of late.

Shortly after the title match, Mann defeated Stanislaus Zyzasko, ex-champion and leading contender. That made him look like a real champion.

A former collegian, a noted football player at Nebraska, Mann stood out as a colorful figure in the wrestling game.

Then just as the sport world was acclaiming Mann, Zyzasko threw him twice at Philadelphia before most of the assembly was comfortable seated.

On the surface it certainly looks as if there was still something wrong somewhere in the gentle art of wrestling.

PRaises MUSEL
"When he wants to, Bob Mysel is the greatest outfielder baseball has ever produced," says Joe Bush, veteran star pitcher, formerly with the Yankees, now with the St. Louis Browns.

"When I say this I am not unkindful of Cobb, the wonder player, the great speaker, and the brilliant Eddie Hough, as well as other stars I haven't seen in action.

"Very fast, using a long stride that has him going at full speed after taking a few steps, Mysel is without a peer in covering ground.

"In addition to his ground-covering ability, his judgment of distance is unusual, and he has the greatest throwing arm in baseball.

'LET 'ER BUCK' DRAWS CROWD

When Chief Tail Pine sensationally smashed all records at the 1924 Pendleton Round-Up in the bull-dogging contest when the spectacular parade-faced forward the grandstand with a dramatic effect, when the racers tore around the quarter mile track, when the cowpunchers roped and heaved the steers and when the buckaroos endeavored to stick it out on the back of a sunfishing, swirling, plunging horse, the movie camera was taking it all in. Last night at the Star "Let 'Er Buck," featuring Hoot Gibson, brought back a lot of memories to those in the audience who attended Pendleton's big show either way there last night or will be tonight or tomorrow.

Years ago Hoot's Carbett rode in the Boston race at the Union stock show and one year he and another rider came to blows during the race. The same thing happened between Carbett and Gibson in "Let 'Er Buck." But enough.

The picture is undoubtedly one of Hoot Gibson's best and the management of the Star expects crowded houses during the remainder of its run here.

HAMILTON BEATS MISHRIND

STUDEBAKER

New Standard Six Coach

$1295

f. o. b. factory [with full-size balloon tires]

STUDEBAKER has $60,000,000 invested in plants in which Studebaker cars are manufactured complete, including all bodies, both open and closed. No other large automobile manufacturer that we know of makes all of his own bodies.

This means that Studebaker saves the profit of outside parts makers and body-builders. Thus the price of this new coach is not burdened by an extra profit. At $1295 it represents a value no other automobile manufacturer can equal.

And no other manufacturer can offer a coach of such fine quality at the price. For every coach that Studebaker builds carries with it traditions of fine craftsmanship that have existed in Studebaker plants since 1852.

Compare this coach with other cars which sell at much higher prices. This will prove that Studebaker values are unequalled.

Radio Chats

(By Powell Crosby, Jr.)
The word "radio" comes from "radiate" meaning to give off something such as energy in every direction.

The broadcasting station may be likened to a pebble dropped into a pool of water, the radio waves likened to the water waves made by the pebble, and the receiving set likened to cork scattered about on the pool, bobbing up and down as the waves strike them.

What is tuning?
The principle of tuning can be appropriately illustrated by a fact well known to army men. When companies of soldiers are marching across a bridge they are always made to break step, for if they march in unison the bridge is quite likely to swing up and down until the strain becomes too great and it collapses.

If you ever have used a swing you know that if you keep giving it pushes at the right intervals it will keep swinging higher and higher. If you push at the wrong times, however, the result will be entirely different—it will act like a sailor just ashore, with "swayback" resulting this way or that and that way the next.

That is because the swing has a tendency to move back and forth at certain fixed rates—the rate depending on the manner in which it is constructed—and pushing it out of time will give it an irregular motion. The time required for one complete swing, or cycle, back and forth is called the period, and the period to which any particular object tends naturally to respond is called its natural period.

As for soldiers keeping step, their marching over a bridge—if they should happen to be marching in unison—the right tempo, the bridge would sway up and down a little further each time until finally the strain would be too great. This is called the principle of resonance.
